MORE THAN 5,000 PERSONS attended the big Olin Mathieson Chemical corporation picnic at beautiful Camp Harry H. Straus last Saturday. The event highlighted activities in Transylvania county on the Fourth of July. Although the highways here were jammed with holiday traffic, there were no accidents reported in the county. Like Camp Straus, a record number of people were in the Pisgah National forest during the day.

Brevard Merchants Stage Three-Day "Sidewalk Sale", Starts On Thursday

BARGAINS WILL BE OFFERED IN FRONT OF STORES

Chairman Varner Issues Invitation To Public. Many Participating

SPECIAL ISSUE

A town-wide "sidewalk sale", the first ever held in Brevard, will be staged by local merchants on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

By special permission from the town board of aldermen, the merchants will have tables out on the sidewalk in front of their stores, and special "bargains" will be offered.

The merchants committee of the Brevard chamber of commerce has been planning for this unique event for some time, and the business men have made special purchases for the "sidewalk sale."

Extraordinary values are being offered by the participating merchants during the three-day sales event. Summer merchandise is being drastically reduced and a wide variety of other items are being offered at sacrifice prices.

Eddie Varner, chairman of the merchants division of the chamber of commerce, cordially invites all Transylvanians to come to town and shop the Brevard stores on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Readers of The Times are asked to read the advertisements very carefully and to make out their shopping lists. Special attention is called to the double spread in the second section of this week's newspaper.

LIBRARY NOW HAS BELL'S EXHIBITION

Unique Collection Of Musical Lore On Display. Public Is Invited

An exhibition of musical lore has been provided by Corydon Bell, of Sapphire, for the Friends of the Library, and it will be on view during the month of July at Transylvania county library.

The exhibit, coinciding with the opening of the Transylvania Music camp, includes many unique items from Mr. Bell's personal files and library, which will be of interest to concert goers and musicians alike.

Probably one of the most unusual items is a series of intimate photographs taken of the late Arthur Rodzinski conducting a performance of Richard Strauss' tone poem Till Eulenspiegel with the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra in 1938.

Accompanying the photographs are scores of the composition, and a painting by Mr. Bell illustrating an episode in the life of the mischievous Till — a legendary Belgian folk character.

Professionally, Corydon Bell is an author and illustrator, but his hobby is music and musicians and is an interest of long standing. A pianist and organist of unusual ability at high school age, he has been a student of many phases of music life of his life. From his first youthful composition at the age of twelve, he has continued to write and experiment with musical forms.

During his university years, he studied counterpoint and harmony under Charles E. Clemens of the Royal College of Music in London and was a pupil of organ with T. —Turn to Page Five
