

Brevard Merchants To Hold Town-Wide Dollar Days Today, Friday & Saturday

WNC Firemen Are Attending School Here

Subjects And Instructors Are Listed, Center Is On Illahee Road

More than 100 firemen from towns and cities throughout Western North Carolina are taking part in the training program being offered here through the cooperation of the Brevard volunteer department at the local training center on the Illahee road.

Classes will be held nightly through Thursday night, under the direction of E. M. Salley, Jr., chief of the Enka department.

Assisting Mr. Salley are: Jim Bailey, of the American LaFrance company; Bart Cope, chief, Sylva; Dan Merrill, chief, Brevard; and Fred Dalton, Skyland.

The subjects being taught and instructors are:
Pump operations: Jim Bailey and Woody Hampton.

Fog nozzles: E. M. Salley, Jr.
Oil fires and small extinguishers: S. E. Johnson, Bill Crompton and Zeke Roberts.

First aid: Willie Walker and Luke Harrison.

Basic fire equipment: Charlie Himes.

Ladders: Ed Prince, and James Bridges.

Rope tying—fire department: Arnold Monteith.

Gas mask: Mark Jones, Calvin McCrary and Bud Galloway.

Hose lay: Bart Cope, Allison Orr, Frank Henderson and John Bishop.

Planning Special Services, UN Day

Elaborate plans are being made for the observance of United Nations Day in Transylvania county. Highlighting the observance will be special services on October 14th and 15th at the Brevard-Davidson River Presbyterian church, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Harold Siniard has been appointed chairman of the event by the Mayor of Brevard and governor of North Carolina.

Many prominent Brevard citizens will participate in the services, and special music will be presented by the Allen High School Glee Club, of Asheville, and local musicians. A film strip concerning the work of the UN will also be shown at each service.

The Weather

Summer ended on a rich note of fall, with crisp temperatures both day and night. Only .05 an inch of precipitation was recorded. Daily readings are as follows:

	High	Low	Prec.
Wednesday	77	49	.01
Thursday	74	50	T
Friday	76	58	.01
Saturday	68	52	.02
Sunday	74	46	T
Monday	78	45	0
Tuesday	79	49	.01

Now Resurfacing Streets In In Brevard With Asphalt

Several streets in Brevard are now being resurfaced with asphalt by the Asheville Paving company.

The work is expected to be completed by Monday, if clear weather prevails.

Workmen are now busy resurfacing Broad street from city limits, opposite Boyd's station to the court house.

East French Broad, from Broad to the Neely road, is the next phase of the project, and when this is completed, work will be started on Gaston and Maple streets.

This particular project runs from Farmer's Federation at the East Main street intersection to the Maple street extension.

The cooperation and the patience of the public is solicited by the company and highway officials while the streets are being resurfaced.

Brannen To Head Toastmasters

Newly Elected Officers Of Club To Be Installed On October 7th

Orren L. Brannen, of the DuPont Silicon Plant at Cedar Mountain, was elected president of the Brevard Toastmasters Club at their last regular meeting.

The new president and the other elected officers will be installed on October 7th, and they will serve for a six months term.

The other officers are as follows: educational vice-president, Dan L. Scannell; administrative vice-president, Bill Norris; Secretary, Alonzo L. Warren; treasurer, C. M. Douglas; and sergeant at arms, Freeman Hayes.

FREE PARKING THURSDAY is being offered as one of the highlight attractions of Dollar Days in Brevard on Thursday. This is a joint project of the Town of Brevard and the merchants committee of the Brevard Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Opal King, city clerk, left, and Eddie Varner, chairman of the committee, inspect the bags which will cover the meters throughout the day. Motorists are requested to limit their parking to one hour. (Time Staff Photo)

Free Parking Offered On Thursday

Chairman Varner Issues Invitation. Prices Practically Reduced

"Dollar Days" will be held in Brevard Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, and local merchants will be offering special prices during the sales promotion. In cooperation with the merchants, town officials are allowing free parking all day Thursday.

The merchants committee has been planning this special event for some time and many stores will be offering special purchases at drastic reductions. Also to be offered will be new fall merchandise at reduced prices for the three days only.

Eddie Varner, chairman of the merchants committee, invites all Transylvanians to take advantage of the savings that will be offered during this event.

"Park free on Thursday, but please limit your parking to one hour so that as many as possible can take advantage of the wonderful buys that will be available," he said.

This is the first townwide sales event since July when a very successful "Sidewalk Sale" was held.

The merchants committee plans to hold several events of this type each year and the next big event will be the Christmas shopping season, which will open with a bigger and better than ever Christmas parade.

Little Theatre Begins Drive

Door-to-door Canvas Is Planned For Thursday Night, Hanna Reports

The first two 1959-60 Brevard Little Theatre season tickets were presented to Mayor Bert Freeman and Town Manager Tom Henry this week by T. F. Hanna, ticket chairman, to "kick-off" the annual membership drive.

A goal of $2000 has been set this year, as compared with nearly $1400 collected from the season ticket sales last year. This goal is not an attempt to "beat" any previous records, but represents a rapidly increasing need for funds to sustain the growing plans and scope of the Little Theatre, Mr. Hanna stated.

A door-to-door sales campaign is now underway, with tonight (Thursday) being the final night. Adult season memberships are $2.50, and student memberships are $1.25.

Try-outs for the first play of the season, "The Loud Red Patrick," a family comedy, will be held Tuesday night, September 29th, at 8:00 o'clock at the court house.

All those who are interested in trying out for a part or working on the promotion are asked to attend.

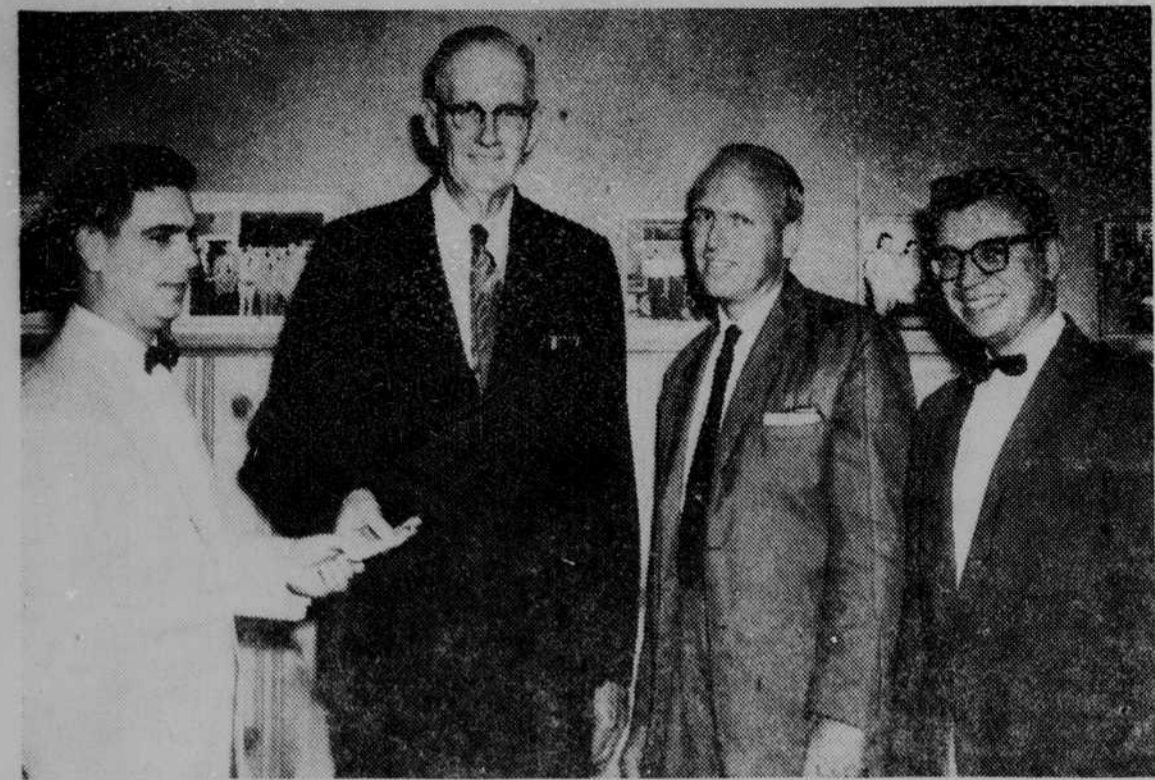

October To Be "Coffee Break" Time At Library

The Transylvania Community Library plans a unique attraction during the month of October.

Mrs. Lehmann Kapp, the librarian, is urging all the business men uptown to take their Wednesday morning coffee breaks at 10:30 o'clock at the library.

As a forerunner of the October coffee breaks at the library, John L. Simmons, of Merrill, Lynch, Pearce, Fenner and Smith, will show a film of interest to men concerning stocks, investments, etc., on Wednesday afternoon, September 30th, at 2:30 o'clock at the library.

"Every Wednesday morning at 10:30 during the month of October, coffee will be served by Friends of the Library," Mrs. Kapp stated. "So come, sip a cup of coffee, browse, read the latest magazines, newspapers, and take home a book on your latest hobby," she concluded.

MAYOR BERT FREEMAN and Town Manager Tom Henry are shown above receiving the first Little Theatre season tickets in the 1959-'60 drive. Pictured from left to right are T. F. Hanna, membership chairman, Mayor Freeman, Town Manager Henry, and Steve Thomas, publicity chairman. (Times Staff Photo)

Welcome Is Extended To Brevard College Students, Faculty And Staff

The Mayor, Board Chairman And Others Make Statements. Special Edition

Brevard and Transylvania officials join hands with the merchants and others in the community in welcoming this week the large selected student body, faculty and staff members to Brevard college for the 1959-'60 term.

All indications point to one of the most successful years in the history of the school, which this fall begins its 106th year of educational and religious service to the youth of the state and nations.

President Emmett K. McLarty reported to The Times this week that the college is off to a grand start. More than 400 fulltime students are registered, and the college has some 30 members on the faculty and a staff of 15.

This week The Times is publishing its annual Brevard college greetings edition, and all subscribers are urged to read the entire paper with interest. This paper is going not only to regular subscribers, but also to students, parents, trustees of the college and a large number of out-of-town friends of the institution.

Mayor B. H. Freeman said yesterday that it is always a real pleasure to welcome the students and faculty members to town. He praised the officials of the college on the progress that is being made at the institution.

On behalf of the county board of —Turn to Page Seven

Lee's Rides Are Now In Brevard

Lee's Rides have returned to Brevard and are located on North Caldwell Street opposite Pisgah Candy Company.

They will be here in Brevard through Saturday evening, and are sponsored by the Transylvania Shrine Club.

For many, many years Lee's Rides have been visiting Brevard and have been enjoyed by all. The Shriners say in urging the public to come out.

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Thursday, Sept. 24 — "Dollar Days" begin in Brevard. Free parking all day. Masons meet at Temple, 8 p.m. HD Achievement Program at Senior high school. B & PW meets at Camp Straus, 7 p.m.

Friday, Sept. 25 — "Dollar Days" continue. Schools closed throughout the county.

Saturday, Sept. 26 — Last day of "Dollar Days." Harvest bridge tournament at Silversteen Center 2 and 8 p.m.

Sunday, Sept. 27 — Attend the church of your choice.

Monday, Sept. 28 — Rotary meets at Gaither's, 7 p.m.

Tuesday, Sept. 29 — Ace of Clubs meets, 7:45 p.m. District I meeting of N. C. Garden Clubs at Methodist church.

Public Invited

HD Achievement Day To Be Held Thursday, New School

All 12 of the Home Demonstration clubs in Transylvania will have exhibits at the annual Achievement Day, which will be held on Thursday of this week at the new Brevard high school.

According to Miss Arne Benson Priest, the home agent, the exhibits will be in the Home Economics department of the new school, and they will be open to viewing by the public from 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon until 4:00 p.m.

The public is most cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. William Nash, president of the Transylvania Home Demonstration clubs, says that each club will have two exhibits, and she joins Miss Priest in urging the public to attend.

Humane Society Sponsors Movie

A preview showing was made this week of the picture, "I'll Give My Life," which will be shown at the Co-Ed theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 30 and Oct. 1. This picture, which has a religious theme, is sponsored by the Transylvania County Humane society. Proceeds will be used to help develop the animal shelter, which is now under construction.

A number of representatives from churches and civic organizations attended the preview and a few of their comments are as follows:

"It was a very touching and inspiring picture." — Mrs. Gil Coan.

"Excellent." — Mrs. Harold Siniard.

"A deep spiritual message revealing how God works in the hearts of individuals to carry on His Will." — Mrs. J. B. Thomas.

"I wish every citizen of Brevard could see this film and be inspired and touched by its reality and message as I have been." — Mrs. W. Harold Killian.

Advance tickets are available from Humane society board members or at downtown booths Friday and Saturday mornings of this week.

Schools Close Friday, Bradburn Presides Over Superintendents

Schools in Brevard and Transylvania county will be closed on Friday in order that principals and teachers may attend the North Carolina Education association's western district meeting in Asheville.

This will be the 37th annual convention of the NCEA in Western North Carolina, and a large attendance is expected.

Events of the day will begin at 9:30 o'clock at Lee Edwards high school. There will be divisional luncheons, followed by afternoon sessions at 2:30 o'clock.

As president of the superintendents in Western North Carolina, Wayne Bradburn will preside over that divisional luncheon at the Battery Park hotel at 12:30 p.m.

Other Transylvanians on various programs are as follows: Dr. Burt Loomis, of Brevard college, "Higher Education."

Miss Dulcie Hayes, of Brevard college, "Modern Foreign Languages."

Mrs. Juanita Lavender, supervisor, Transylvania county schools, "Guidance Service."

William Cathey, Rosman, "Health, P. E. and Recreation."