TRANSYLVANIA-An Industrial, Tourist, Educational, A g r i c u ltural and Music Center. Popula-tion, 1950 Census, 15,321. Brevard Community 7,394

Vol. 71-No. 24

THE TRANSYLVANIA TIMES

Mrs. Jenkins

Welfare Post

The Transylvania county commisioners and the welfare board an-ounce that Mrs. Edith Garrett lenkins has assumed the duties of uperintendent of public welfare.

Patton, who resigned Feb. 1960,

Mrs. Jenkins succeeds Mrs. Dora

Assumes

A State And National Prize - Winning A.B.C. Newspaper

SECOND CLASS MAIL PRIVILEGES AUTHORIZED AT BREVARD, N. C.

BREVARD, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 1960

Local Board Making Plans For Run-Off,

General Election In County, June 25

MAYOR B. H. FREEMAN has issued a proclamation proclaiming next week as "Brevard Music Center Week" here and he is shown above presenting it to James Christian Pfohl, director of the Transylvania Music Camp and the Brevard Music Festival. Co-directing the campaign will be M. Thomas Cousins and after having served as superintendent for 26 years. Mrs. Juanita F. Cox has been acting superintendent since February. Mrs. Jenkins received her degree from Western Carolina college and has recently completed a year of graduate work from the School of Social Work, The University of Tennessee. One year of her 12 years experience in welfare work was in Transylvania county in 1958-1959. Mrs. Jenkins, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. U. Garrett, of Sylva, is member of the Presbyterian —Turn to Page Seven

Taj Hanna, and the event will open with a breakfast on Monday morning at Gaither's. In the photo above, left to right, are Town Manager Tom Henry, Mr. Cousins, Dr. Pfohl, Mayor Freeman, and Mr. Hanna.

(Photo by Austin Studio)

Local Reserve

Unit Receives

Superior Rating

BEAUTIFUL CASCADE LAKE INN, indicated by the arrow, burned to the ground about 3:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The large resort inn was unoccupied at the time of the fire, and the origin of the blaze was undetermined. Cascade inn was built in the mid 30's by the late Charles and Joe Pickelsimer. It was not covered with insurance at the time of the blaze. The Brevard fire department answered the alarm, but the building was "too far gone" when the firemen arrived.

(Times Staff Photo)

Robin Hood Barn Theatre To Open Thursday Evening

Headquarters of the 12th United State Army Corps in Atlanta, Geor-gia, has announced that Battery Osborne Is Top 'A", 4th Howitzer Battalion, 22nd Artillery, 81st Infantry division, Farm Writer In here in Brevard, has been awarded

A personal letter of commenda-

/ear 1959. Mr. Osborne was presented the

Details On Two Separate Events Are Announced

TRANSYLVANIA-

The Land of Waterfalls.

Mecca for Summer Campa.

Entrance to Pisgah National Forest and Home of

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

Brevard Music Festival.

The Transylvania Board of Elections is making plans for the special run-off primary and the general election here on Saturday, June 25th. Chairman George Shu ford announces. Democrats will vote in the runoff in two races.

In the House of Representatives race, Jack Potts, who was high man in the first primary, will have James C. Gaither, incumbent, an his opposition.

Transylvania Democratic voters will also nominate a candidate for governor. The two men in the running are Terry Sanford, the high man in the first primary, and Dr. Beverly Lake, who ran second in the four-man race.

Simultaneously with the Democratic run-off primary, a general election will be held for Democrats, Republicans and Independents.

This special election has been called by Governor Luther Hodges, in compliance with Section 163-105 of the General Statutes of North Carolina. The election is held to name a successor to the late Con-gressman David M. Hall.

The only candidate's name to ap-pear on the ballot will be Roy A. Taylor, Democratic nominee for The Robin Hood Barn Communthe unexpired term of Mr. Hall. ity theatre will open Thursday There will be a space for writenight, June 16th, for its first proins.

duction. Earlier this year, Republican Heinz Rollman filed in the race and "Angel Street," also known as "Gaslight," will be presented at was nominated in the May 28th pri-8:15 o'clock on Thursday, Friday mary. However, he appealed to and Saturday evenings. It will also the courts to have his name with be given three nights the following drawn from the ballots.

week, June 23, 24, and 25. Chairman Shuford explains to Appearing in the cast will be all voters that on June 25th they Wilson, Barbara Rhodes, will actually be voting in Don local Transylvanians.

Mrs. Maggie Masters is directing the production, and Mike Masters Mothers March is the technical director. Gus Mast-A number of interesting features For Crippled have been planned along with the A rock shop will occupy one of Children Friday the stalls, and D. C. Dills, engineer

"Brevard Music Center" week Action Taken will open here on Monday, June 20th, with a breakfast for the volunteer workers at Gaither's. Mayor B. H. Freeman has issued

Music Center Week, Volunteers Named

Mayor Freeman Proclaims Brevard

Connestee Falls and picnic area, worth interests, have agreed that will be open this summer to visitors the falls and picnic area may be without charge according to joint used by the community with the without charge, according to joint used by the community with the

"WHEREAS, the Brevard Music statement of the Brevard chamber proviso that it be kept clean and this which was held on May 12th, of center is the summer music center of commerce and O. H. Orr, agent orderly.

of the South and as such brings for the owners. much prestige and good music to This famed waterfall is known meeting Tuesday night voted to General Frank S. Bowen, Jr., 12th rural life editor, has been named far and wide, and has been pictured underwrite expense of caring for Corps commander, by 1st Lt. Char- the outstanding newspaper farm for years as one of the major attrac- the property around the falls, and les M. Osborne, local unit com- writer in the United States for the Andy Brown and Mary Wilson, all separate elections tions for Transylvania. The adjoin- issued the request that people who mander. ing picnic area, enhanced by trees, visit the falls and picnic area keep the clear-flowing creek and multi- in mind that the owners are donattude of shrubs and flowers have ing use of the land, and therefore made it one of the attractive spots it should be treated with courtesy at the recent dedication ceremony

Thomas Cousins, a committee of sible.

25 local citizens will contact as many persons as possible and offer them sponsor memberships in the Brevard Music center at reduc- Reserve Police

Connestee Falls Will Be a proclamation, proclaiming the Open To Public At No Cost

The chanber of commerce in cials state.

Headed by Taj F. Hanna and M. in the county that is easily accest to offset the privileges being granted. If severe abuse occurs, it is center. Owners of the property, the Fox- probable that the property will be closed to the public, chamber offi- local unit since it became a part

Other business at the meeting vision on May 1st, 1959.

-Turn to Page Six

Clyde Osborne, Brevard native

General Bowen personally inspected the Brevard reserve unit, when he was the principal speaker of the new Army Reserve Training

Lt. Osborne has commanded the of the 81st Infantry (Wildcat) di-

-Turn to Page Twelve

٠.

center"

our area.

For this drive, sponsorships will Force Now for $30.00 residents of Transylvania for $30.00, rather than the regular $50.00.

special period as "Brevard Music finer aspects of life, and

"WHEREAS music is one of the

"THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLV-

ED, that I proclaim the week of June 20th, to the 25th as Brevard

Music center week and request the support of it by all our citizens."

week, and it is as follows:

The following persons are among those serving on the solicitation committee:

Lloyd Burhans, Mr. and Mrs. sion, according to Police Chief W. Frank Carr, Mrs. C. C. Johnson, G. Thurston, Jr., Mrs. E. B. Matheson, Mrs. Har-Classes ar old Killian, Ray Childers, Jerry Je- the army reserve center. Afternoon rome, Sr., Wolfgang Selle, C. P. session are held from 1:00 to 3:00 Ferguson, B. L. Maguire, Ray Win-chester, Russ Lombardo, Mrs. Henry Carrier, John Bennett, Mrs. These will continue Monday through James Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. John Friday, through the month of June. B. Reeves, Miss Pat Austin, Mrs. E. In addition to Chief Thurston, O. Bryant, Mrs. George Spicer, Mrs. members of the state highway pa-Julius Sader, Mrs. Duncan Hunter, trol, superior officers from the Ash-Mr. and Mrs. David Perkins, Mel Everingham, and Donald Moore.

The school for the Brevard Re serve Police force is now in ses-

Going To School

Classes are being held daily at eville police department, and FBI agents are acting as instructors. Chief Thurston states that both

North Carolina Farm Agents To Meet This Week At College

The annual meeting of the North Carolina Association of County Agricultural agents will be held on the campus of Brevard College Thursday and Friday, June 16th and 17th. Agents and their families will stay for the two-day meeting in Annabel Jones hall, and business sessions will be held in the auditorium of Sims Campus Center building. All meals will be served in the college cafeteria. Appearing on the Thursday morning program will be Dr.

preside.

Emmett McLarty, president of Brevard College; Charles Himes, president of the Brevard Chamber of Commerce; Harry Silver, president of the Western District, association of county agricultural agents; R. W. Shoffner, assistant director, Extension Service, N. C. State college; and Carl Rose, of Fayetteville, Arkansas, president of the National Association, County agricultural agents.

Sam Cartner, president of the North Carolina association will

A number of special events are being planned for the meeting, -Turn to Page Six strate rock-cutting, polishing, and mounting stones.

for Duke Power company, will have

ers is the business manager.

production.

A snack bar with some local craft items will be operated with the box office, with Arthur Dehon, Jr., in charge. Miss Sondra Dehon will be in charge of the box office. An outdoor buffet will be served by women of the Cedar Mountain community on opening night, featuring ham and all the trimmings. Mrs. Robert Williams is in charge ASTA" award, the highest honor of the buffet, and the price will be available to newspaper farm writ- $1.50.

ers, Tuesday night in Kansas City, Season tickets will be on sale Mo., at the annual convention of the American Seed Trade associ-Street." There are no reserved ation, which sponsors the nation- seats, but phone calls are invited to wide contest. be sure seats are available.

-Turn to Page Twelve $3.75, and $2.00 for students.

Program Highlights

WPNF To Broadcast "World 600" This Sunday, Log Cited

Radio Station WPNF will broad-Other Programs cast the "World 600" race, direct from Charlotte Sunday afternoon, Bobby Hoyle, station manager announces Making its debut in the sports Friday, N. C. Forestry, with Clark the court house lawn here in I Making its debut in the sports world, this exciting 600 mile race will feature some of the best known drivers in the racing business. The broadcast, presented locally built feature some of the best known drivers in the racing business. The broadcast, presented locally built feature some of the best known drivers in the racing business. The broadcast, presented locally built feature some of the best known drivers in the racing business. The broadcast, presented locally built feature some of the best known drivers in the racing business. The broadcast, presented locally built feature some of the best known forestry, with Leonard Hampton; and Wednesday, the county home economics agent. The rally will get under by McCrary Auto Service, will be-gin at 12:15 o'clock Sunday after- Participating on the Civic Hour noon, and will be originated by programs during this week will be such well known announcers as the Rosman Chamber of Commerce, such well known announcers as the Rosman Chamber of Commerce, Hendersonville Phil Agresta, Fletcher Austin, Bill Curry, Bill Ward and Hal Hammrick. This should prove to be the big-gest and most exciting sports event of its kind, Mir. Hoyle states, and chapel and Oak Grove Methodist staged at the A all sports dans are invited to listen.

on display his collection and equip ment. Roland Young, teacher at at 7 collection on Friday, June 17, Red Oak School, Weaverville, will assist Mr. Dill, and will demon-trate as a school for the sale of Easter seals.

The North Carolina Society for Crippled Children & Adults and the local societies operate for the purpose of improving the health, education, rehabilitation, welfare and recreational opportunities of all crippled children and adults regardless of race or color, so that they may take their rightful place in society.

"Your contribution will provide braces, wheel chairs, appliance and aids, physical and therapy, camping and educationparent and professional research," says Chairman Alvin Patterson. Approximately 90 per cent of funds remain in North Carolina, 60 -Turn to Page Twelve

Morris Named Lake's Manager, Rally Saturday

Robert Morgan, campaign man ager for Dr. I. Beverly Lake, candi date for governor of North lina, announces that Ralph "Knuckleball" Morris has The schedule for the Farm and named Transylvania county Home Hour this week is as fol- ager for the special run-off election lows: Thursday, station program; on Saturday, June 25th. Friday, N. C. Forestry, with Clark Dr. Lake will hold a big rally on promptly at 5:00 o'clock. Transylvanians will co

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Thursday, June 16-Kiwanis club meets at Gaither's at 6:45 p.m. Lions meet at Colonial Inn at 7:00 p.m. Robin Hood Barn theatre opens, 8:15 p.m.

Friday, June 17-Mothers March for Crippled Children, 7:00 p.m. Ace of Clubs meets at 8:00 p.m. Robin Hood Barn theatre, 8:15 p.m.

Saturday, June 18-Robin Hood Barn theatre, 8:15 p.m.

Sunday, June 19-Father's Day. Attend the church of your choice.

Monday, June 20 - "Brevard Music Week" begins with break-fast at Gaither's. Rotary meets at Gaither's at 7:00 p.m.

Tuesday, June 21-Loyal Order of Moose meets at lodge for supper at 6:30, business session, 8:00 p.m. Ace of Clubs meets at 8:00 p.m.

Wednesday, June 22 — Jaycees meet at Gaither's at 6:30 p.m. Luth-eran congregational meeting at church, 7:30 p.m.

DONALD LEE MOORE, JR., became an Eagle Scout at the Court of Honor last Thursday night in the Brevard-Davidson River Presbyterian church, and his mother is pictured above pinning the award on his shirt. At the right is his father. At the left is A. W. Tucker, Jr., his scoutmaster, who was in charge of the Eagle Scout ceremony. Full details on the honor court are carried in a story on page nine, first section, in this week's Times. (Times Staff Photo)

