To Double Efforts In "Pioneers" Drive, Funds For Centennial Celebration

The advisory committee, appointed by the Transylvania Historical commission to raise funds to finance the centennial celebration in 1961, will intensify efforts in the campaign during the coming weeks, Mrs. Mary Jane McCrary, the commission chairman, reports today.

This committee is headed by Admiral Ligon Ard, Raymond F. Bennett and Dan Scannell.

"Pioneer" buttons are being given with each donation of $5.00, and they will admit the wearer to many of the centennial events next year. The donation is also tax deductible.

Mrs. McCrary says that it is the hope of the committee to open an office in uptown Brevard in the near future.

Every man, woman and child in Transylvania should be interested in having a part in the centennial celebration next year, Mrs. McCrary says in urging the public to buy and wear the "pioneer" pins.

An application blank can be found on page 6 in this week's Times.

Reasons Cited

The Pioneer committee in charge of raising funds for the county history and centennial celebration has summarized as follows the reasons for the financial support that is needed:

1. The centennial celebration will be one of the county's most important historic events.
2. County history is a civic enterprise and a commendable history will be cause for civic pride. The organized effort and support of civic minded people is of greatest importance in gathering and preserving the

Many Cases Are Heard In Civil Court, Adjournment Expected Today

Police Reserve Formally Organized

Brevard's Police Reserve unit has been formally organized and is now serving the community with the regular force, Chief W. S. "Bill" Thurston reports today.

Following their recent graduation from the police training school at the new Army center, they were sworn into active duty, and during the carnival last week on the college athletic field, they contributed a total of 145 man-hours.

Frederick Marvin McCall, Jr., was elected as the chairman of the reserve unit, and other officers are:

Edwin Ray Wike — security officer

Marshall M. Feaster, Jr., — secretary and treasurer

Jack Carl Wyatt — publicity officer

According to Chief Thurston, the reserve officers have purchased, at their own expense, summer uniforms, guns and other necessary equipment.

It is hoped that the group can sponsor some event, like an "all-night" singing, to make enough funds to buy winter uniforms, which are expensive.

At the meeting when officers were elected and plans made for the future, Officer Jimmy Rowe

Now Receiving Street Paving Applications

Persons desiring the paving of their streets in Brevard should make application for paving petitions at the City Hall, Town Manager Tom Henry announced today.

The basic requirements concerning streets to be paved are as follows:

(1) Adequate water and sewer lines must be in the street or serving the property to be affected so that the street will not have to be torn up for installation of water and sewer lines in the near future.

(2) The street right of way must be a minimum of 30 feet in width.

(3) A majority of the property owners in number and a majority of the front footage represented by the owners abutting the street must sign the petition.

In the past streets had to be paid 100 percent in advance by all property owners. The Town Board of Aldermen has adopted the assessment policy which will allow the property owners to pay the assessment in five equal annual installments.
