

THE TRAINING CENTER of the Brevard Fire department, which is located on the Illahee road, adjacent to the Country club property, will be the scene of much activity all next week. More than 200 firemen from the WNC 22-county area will come here for a week's training session. Sponsored by the Western North Carolina Firemen's association, the event will offer instructions in all phases of fire fighting. In the scene above the observation towers, the fire-proof building and the oil pit can be noted, and at the left is the newly constructed assembly hall for lecture classes. (Photos by Russell)

WNC Firemen Will Hold Week's Training Session At Brevard Center, Opens Monday

O-M Officials Promoted

Promotion of five executives of Olin Mathieson Chemical corporation was announced today by Stanley de J. Osborne, president and chief executive officer. N. Harvey Collison, formerly corporate vice president in charge of the Metals division, has been appointed senior vice president and chairman of the staff committee. Milton L. Herzog succeeds Mr. Collison as vice president and general manager of the Metals division. Mr. Herzog had been a corporate vice president and general manager for operations of the division. Richard M. Furlaud has been named vice president and general manager of the corporation's International division, succeeding Henry A. Arnold who has been named a senior advisor of the corporation and continues.

A CHECK FOR $10,000 is being presented to Wayne Bradburn, left, superintendent of the Transylvania school system, by Phillip C. Brownell, right, vice president and manager, Ecusta paper and film division of the Olin Mathieson Chemical corporation at Pisgah Forest, for the advanced science education program.

Enrollment In Schools Is Down

After the first five days of school, enrollment in the Transylvania system shows a decrease of 68 from last year's figures. Supt. Wayne Bradburn reports today. During September last year, there were 4,083 students enrolled in the town and county schools, and today the figure is 4,015. However, enrollment is expected to increase as families return from vacation during the coming weeks. Mr. Bradburn also reports that there are 124 state allotted teachers in Transylvania schools and 12 special teachers. In the following paragraphs, the first figure represents the

Olin Mathieson Grants $10,000 To Schools For Advanced Science Work

Superintendent of Transylvania County Schools C. Wayne Bradburn announces today that the board of education had received the $10,000 grant from Olin Mathieson Chemical corporation for the advanced science education program which was reported earlier this year. Mr. Bradburn also announced that Dorothy W. Gifford, the teacher especially selected for the course, had the program in progress at Brevard high school with 26 students from Rosman and Brevard high schools al-

Work To Begin Approval Given To New Science Building, College

Presbyterian Men To Meet On Sept. 12

The Men's Club of the Presbyterian church will meet in the club rooms of the church at 6:30 o'clock Monday, September 12th.

Dr. John R. Cunningham, director of the Presbyterian Foundation will be the guest speaker. Dr. Cunningham is the former president of Davidson College. His subject will be "Christian Wills."

As this is the annual ladies night, a large attendance is expected.

Lions Meeting Thursday

Bob Andrews will be in charge of the program at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the Brevard Lions club on Thursday night at the Colonial Inn. Meeting time is 7:00 o'clock, and President W. M. Melton urges all Lions to attend.

Program Highlights

Famous Southern 500 Race To Be Heard On WPNF Mon.

The world famous Southern 500 race will be aired over WPNF on Monday, according to Bill Hancock, program director of the local station. Air time is 10:40 o'clock a. m. for this Labor Day classic, as WPNF joins more than 200 other radio stations from coast-to-coast and armed services overseas network. The race, presented locally by McCrary Auto service and Wilson's Radiator and Tire shop, features a starting line-up of 50 late model stock cars for 500 grueling miles that test the stamina of both men and machines. In case of rain at Darlington, S. C., site of the event, the race will be re-scheduled for the first clear day following Labor Day, Mr. Hancock concludes.

Other Programs

Organizations scheduled to have the Civic Hour programs during the coming week are the following: Friday, the Rotary club; Monday, the Lions club; and Wednesday, the American Legion Auxiliary. Speaking on Morning Devotions this week is the Rev. Dan Wallen, pastor of the Cherryfield Baptist church. Scheduled to speak next week is the Rev. Ben F. Ormand, pastor of the Brevard-Davidson River Presbyterian church. Sunday morning church services during the month of September will be broadcast through the remote facilities of WPNF from the Brevard Methodist church, where the pastor is the Rev. Courtney B. Ross.

Welcome Issued, Salley & Dalton Are In Charge

Over 200 firemen will gather here next week to attend a training school, sponsored by Western North Carolina Firemen's Association. Seventy departments of the 22 county area will be represented. Personnel will include both professional and volunteer firefighters. E. M. Salley, Jr., of Enka, chairman, and Fred Dalton, of Skyland, co-chairman, have made elaborate plans to present the latest methods in firefighting. The school will be held at the local training area for four nights starting September 6th. Each night will be divided in two one-hour classes, the first hour being lecture courses and the second hour demonstration and practical work. The lecture course will be taught by H. E. Inscoc, of Rocky Mount. Mr. Inscoc is a state instructor, who works out of the office of Charles Gold, N. C. Commissioner of Insurance. Instructors for the second hour classes will be members of the various departments present, and representatives of manufacturers of fire fighting equipment.

The training area is located on Illahee road, adjacent to the Country club property. An assembly hall has been constructed for lecture classes. Also at the center is an oil pit, where actual oil fires can be fought; a fire-proof building in which work can be done to accommodate firemen; "tree house", where ladder work is demonstrated and practiced; dummy water hydrants for use in hook-ups and an underground water

Composition By Moore Published In London, Eng.

A piano composition by Donald Lee Moore, prominent Brevard composer, was recently published by Chappell & Co., Limited, in London, England. The title of the number is "Blues In Three-quarter Time," and it is understood that sales are "going good" in England. The composition was first published in America by the Boston Music company, and European rights were recently purchased by the Chappell company. Mr. Moore has had some 35 compositions published, and has been a member of the American Society of Composers and Publishers for the past 10 years.

Going Away This Fall To School? Subscribe Today

Attention boys and girls who are going off to school and college — and their parents, too. Let The Transylvania Times go with you. Enjoy reading your hometown paper which is, as you know, check full of information and news about all the doings in the Brevard area. Parents — The Times won't take the place of letters to your sons and daughters away at school. Not at all. But it will save you the time and trouble of having to write news items in yourself, and if we do say it ourselves, the Times will give far more news than anyone has time to write. The cost? Very little; only $2.50 for the entire school term from the time they start until June 1st. So, don't delay, get that school subscription started at once. Mail or bring your remittance and the address to us; we'll do the rest.

Many Visitors Expected In County During The Labor Day Observance

The Labor Day weekend in Brevard and Transylvania will be quietly observed, and present indications point to a record number of visitors in the area. Most of Brevard's stores will be closed on Monday, as will town and county offices, the bank and the post offices. According to Vernon Fullbright, the acting postmaster, there will be no rural or city delivery of mail. Specials, however, will be delivered, and the general delivery window will be open from 11:30 until noon. The September meeting of the Transylvania board of commissioners has been postponed from Monday morning until Tuesday morning because of the Labor Day observance, and the board of aldermen meeting is slated for Monday night at 7:30 o'clock as usual. Many picnickers and sightseers are expected in the Pisgah National forest, Ranger Ted Seely reports and he predicts that all of the recreational areas will be filled to capacity. Jim Davis, president of the Brevard Rotary club, announces that the Rotarians will not meet Monday night for their regular weekly meeting because of the holiday. Visiting Rotarians in Transylvania can pick up their make-up cards that evening at Gaither's. Patrolmen Bill Sawyer and Charlie Capell urges all motorists to drive with extreme caution over the holiday, which is one of the most dangerous periods on the highways.

Andersons Abroad Report Is Received From Denmark, Warm Welcome

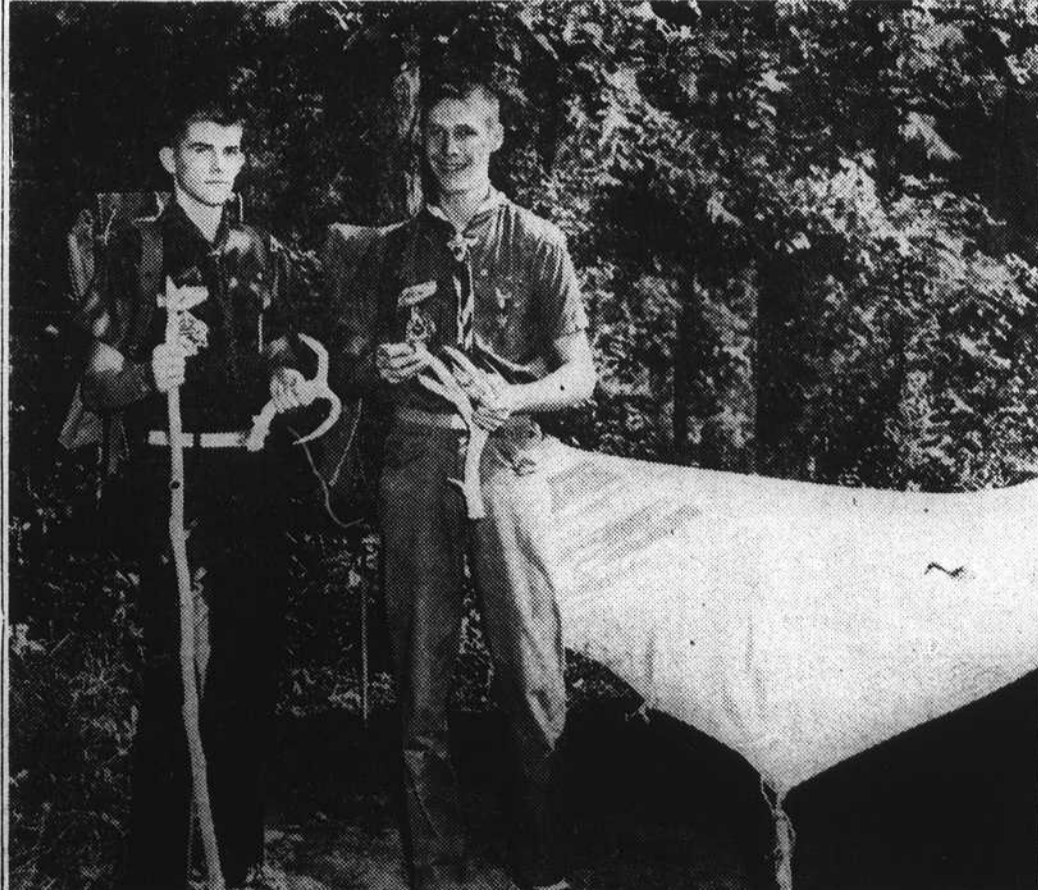

(Editors note: The publisher of this paper and her daughter Stella Anderson are members of the East-West Study Mission being conducted by the National Editorial Association. This is the first of a series of articles being written from capitals of Europe.) COPENHAGEN, DENMARK (Special) More than 50 members of the National Editorial Association, departing from New York on the "Cinderella" flight just after midnight, Thursday, opened their eyes Friday morning to view the magic land of Hans Christian Anderson after a smooth flight over Scandinavian Airlines System's jet flight to start the East-West Study Mission which will carry them into a number of capitals including Moscow. Friendly Welcome The warm and friendly welcome the members of the study mission party received as soon as they deplaned, took away the chill of the cold rain. Each person was presented a pin in Danish porcelain, from the Prime Minister of Denmark, Viggo Kampmann, with a message in which he said, "Welcome to Denmark! We are happy to see you here because we are always happy to see good friends." It was

Annual Workshop Conference At Brevard College Opens Wednesday

The annual workshop conference for the Brevard college faculty and staff will be held on the campus, beginning on Wednesday, Sept. 7th, and continuing through the 10th. According to President Emmett K. McLarty, student leaders will join with the faculty and staff for the event. The conference will open with a supper, at which time Dr. McLarty will speak on the theme of the workshop: "The Place of a Christian College in Higher Education." Dr. John Bennett, dean of the college, will preside over the supper meeting. One of the principal speakers at various sessions of the conference will be Dean John W. Johannaher, of Scarritt college, Nashville, Tenn. "The picture for the school year looks good" Dr. McLarty reported this week. Faculty members total 30, which is the largest number in the history of the school, and the president reports that the number of returning students is also the largest ever. "Brevard college will open for the 1960-'61 term on Sept. 14th, and classes will begin on the following day.

Two Scouts Return From New Mexico

Two Brevard Boy Scouts, members of Troop 701, have returned from a two weeks visit to Philmont, the National Boy Scout ranch located near Cimarron, New Mexico. Tom Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Mitchell, Jr., and Don Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lee Moore, accompanied 22 scouts of Explorer Post 24, of Asheville. The group, along with adult leader J. G. Heatherington, left Asheville by bus on August 2nd, and arrived at the ranch on August 5th. They spent the nights at various Armed Force bases and in YMCA's. Upon their arrival at Philmont, the scouts prepared for 12 days of camping and hiking, all of which was actually done on the ranch, at an elevation higher than Mt. Mitchell. Many times on their hikes,

BREVARD SCOUTS Tom Mitchell, left, and Don Moore, right, are pictured above in their uniforms and with the packs they carried on the recent 12-day camping experience at Philmont Boy Scout ranch, near Cimarron, New Mexico. They are holding deer antlers which they collected on the trip. Further details on their trip are included in an adjoining story. (Times Staff Photo)

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

- Thursday, September 1 — Kiwanis meets at Gaither's at 6:45 p. m. Lions meet at Colonial Inn at 7:00 p. m. Masons meet at Masonic Temple at 7:30 p. m.
- Friday, September 2 — Roman vs East Yancey, Brevard field, 8:00 p. m. Ace of Clubs meets at 8:00 p. m.
- Sunday, September 4 — Attend the church of your choice.
- Monday, September 5 — Labor Day. Ace of Clubs Annual Harvest Tournament, 2:00 and 8:00 p. m.
- Tuesday, September 6 — Eastern Star meets at Masonic Temple at 8:00 p. m. Ace of Clubs meets at 8:00 p. m.
- Wednesday, September 7 — WOW meets in Woodmen Hall at 8:00 p. m. Workshop conference begins at Brevard college.