A&P Opens Early American Style Super Market, Invitation Is Issued

One of the most modern food establishments in this area was opened in Brevard when the A&P Tea company moved into its new super market at 330 S. Broad street on Tuesday of this week. Company officials announce that this is the latest addition to the nation's oldest and largest food chain. It involves investments in excess of $200,000.

J. A. Zeigler, vice president in charge of the firm's operations in the Carolinas, has extended an invitation to all residents of Brevard and the surrounding area to visit the store during the Grand Opening Week and indicated ample parking space is available at the new store. The store itself comprises approximately 14,000 square feet of floor space and approximately 72,000 square feet of parking area for about 125 cars.

First Deputy Premier Of Russia Interviewed

(Editor's note: This is the fifth of a series of articles written by the publisher of this paper while touring a number of capitals in Europe on a study mission conducted by the National Editorial Association.)

MOSCOW (Special) — One of the highlights of the trip to Moscow was the tentative promise of an interview with the Soviet's top leader, Nikita Khrushchev, which turned out to be with the First Deputy Premier of USSR, Anastas Mikoyan and Prime Minister Polyanski of the Russian Soviet Republic.

Conference Room

The group was ushered into a beautiful conference room in one of the newer government buildings of the Kremlin. It was spacious and light and equipped with sliding glass top desks. After waiting for a few minutes, the Soviet officials showed up, almost on time.

Mr. Mikoyan, a small man, with a broad face and a well-trimmed mustache, greeted the group with smiles and expressed the hope they had enjoyed a pleasant trip and were enjoying their stay in the Soviet. Edgar Bayol, executive vice-president and manager of the National Editorial Association, was the spokesman for the group and explained that the association had been asked to submit the questions in writing and in advance.

No Monopoly!

Mikoyan replied, "I hope you have no monopoly to speak of. We are opposed to monopolies everywhere and to this one too!"

This, coming from a government which has the monopoly on — Turn to Page Six

Transylvanians To Vote In "Nickels" Election On Friday

All Transylvanians who purchase feed and fertilizer are eligible to vote in the "Nickels for Know-How" election on Friday of this week.

All monies realized from the "Nickels for Know-How" program go for expanded research. M. H. Shuford, chairman of the permanent committee in Transylvania, urges all qualified voters to participate in the election. Joining with him in this plea are Charles Osborne, co-chairman; and, Mrs. Sallie Wallace, secretary.

Polls will be conveniently located throughout the county, and the election committee is now busy working out details for the event. Members of this group are Vernon Gosnell, H. C. Enloe and Owen Lee.

McCall Loses Chase To Local Police

A speeding car, which was being chased by Brevard officers about 2:00 o'clock Wednesday morning, overturned on a curve on North Caldwell street and was badly damaged. An occupant, Roberta McCall, suffered hand and facial injuries.

The driver, Garnett McCall, 18, was bruised about the legs. He was charged with driving under the influence and speeding.

Officers investigating the accident were L. B. Vaughan, Jr., Charlie Wright, and reserve officer, Joe Terry.

The car, a '54 Ford, was reported to have been owned by Floyd Holden, of Rosman.

Adult Education Courses Again Offered Here

Adult education classes will begin at Brevard senior high school next Monday evening at 7:00 o'clock, it is announced today.

Courses offered will include typing one and two, shorthand one and two, bookkeeping and welding.

All courses, except welding, will be offered on Monday and Tuesday nights for one and one-half hours each night. If enough demand is expressed, courses will be taught toward finishing required work for a high school diploma equivalent.

Welding will be offered on Monday and Tuesday nights from 7:00 o'clock until 10:00 p.m.

Courses will be for 30 hours and will be finished before Christmas. The cost is $21.00 for each course. Welding is $5.00 per night.

In all courses, except welding, the tuition must be paid in advance.

Additional information can be secured from the office of Supt. Wayne Bradburn, telephone TU 2-4611.

United Fund Sets $28,351 Budget, Campaign Gets Underway Tuesday

WORK ON THE NEW LUTHERAN CHURCH was started Monday morning, as big trees, boxwoods and a lot of dirt were moved by the big bulldozer in the center of the photograph. At the extreme left is C. E. Cochran, the contractor, and in front of him is Rev. Alfred Rhyne, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd. The operator of the bulldozer is Kay Miller. The Fisher home in the center will be renovated and will serve as an educational department of the church. (Times Staff Photo)

Breakfast For Workers Will Kick-Off Drive

A budget of $28,351 for 1961 for the Transylvania United Fund has been adopted by the board of directors, and the campaign will get underway on Tuesday, October 4th, following a kick-off breakfast.

According to Campaign Director J. M. Gaines, the breakfast will be held for the captains and canvassers at Gaither's beginning promptly at 7:00 a.m.

The 1961 budget, which is slightly lower than the one for this year, was adopted at a meeting of the board of directors on Monday night at Gaither's. It was presented by Don Jenkins, chairman of the budget committee, and Gil Coan, the UF president, presided over the meeting.

Mr. Coan expressed confidence that once again the people of Brevard and Transylvania county would give their full support of the campaign.

As in previous years, the majority of funds raised will stay in Transylvania for humanitarian causes. Actually, some 22 agencies are included in the budget.

Director Gaines hopes that all persons will be ready to make their pledges when the canvassers make their first visit. "We hope to have a quick moving drive and not drag it out over a period of several weeks," he declared.

A breakdown of the budget is as follows:

- Associated Charities (Heart, Cancer, Crippled Children) $900
- Blind Fund—$350
- Boy Scouts—$4,083
- Carolinas United—$2,266
- Colored Community Center—$1,500
- Girl Scouts—$1,852
- Humane Society—$400
- Red Cross—$5,000

Winn-Dixie Is Holding Remodeling Celebration

Republicans To Hold Precinct Meet Thursday

Transylvania Republicans in Precincts 1, 2, 3 and 4 will meet Thursday night at 8:00 o'clock at the headquarters at 8:00 o'clock.

Heinz Rollman, of Waynesville, the Republican candidate for congress from the 12th Congressional district, will speak at the meeting.

All Republicans in these four precincts are urged to attend the meeting.

The headquarters are now open daily on West Main street and interested persons are invited to stop in.

Dinner Rally

Transylvania County Republicans are holding a fund-raising dinner at the Cedar Mountain Community center on Saturday night, October 8th.

According to Ralph L. Waldrop, the chairman of the Republican executive committee, the dinner will begin at 6:30 o'clock. Tickets are now on sale by members of the committee, the precinct chairmen, the Republican candidates and at the GOP headquarters on West Main street. They are $5.00 each.

This is one of a series of Republican rallies being planned by the executive committee prior to the General Election on Nov. 8th.

Brevard's Winn-Dixie begins its remodeling celebration this week. The event will continue for four weeks and will feature cash awards of $250,000 each week.

For the past several months, Winn-Dixie has been expanding their store building and has remodeled the interior. The meat department has been doubled in size and is now completely self-service. The produce department also has been doubled and the frozen foods section has been enlarged.

A new household department has been added and drug and candy departments have been expanded.

The Brevard store has been reorganized to conform to Winn-Dixie store layouts all over the country. Store manager, Charles Kelley, points out that this will enable you to shop any Winn-Dixie store with the same familiarity that you shop the local store.

A new department, that will be added in the near future, will be a complete gourmet department, according to Manager Kelley. This department will feature a complete line of fancy foods and delicacies from all over the world, he explained.

In a statement, issued from the employees of the local store, they state: "We, at the Brevard Winn-Dixie store, are proud of the fact that the people of Transylvania county have made this expansion possible with your support and business. We want — Turn to Page Twelve

Civic Clubs To Honor Firemen On October 10

National Fire Prevention week will be observed in Brevard and Transylvania from October 9 to the 15.

Highlighting the observance will be the annual banquet honoring members of the Brevard Fire Department.

The event is sponsored annually by the Kiwanians, Lions and Rotarians. This year the banquet will be held on Monday night, October 10, in Gaither's Rhododendron room. The Rotarians will be in charge, and a prominent speaker is being secured.
