

OLIN MATHIESON EMPLOYEES voted against unionization almost four to one in an election last Friday and Saturday at the Pisgah Forest plant. The pictures above were made during balloting last Friday afternoon. Miss Roberta Robertson of the National Labor Relations of the National Labor Relations Board, who held the election, observes. At the right an employee is securing her ballot from Miss LaFonda Griffith of the Labor Board, while Grover Frisbee, company observer, and Kenneth Moore, union observer, look on. (Times Staff Photos)

Board is shown giving a ballot to Ernest Bradley in the picture at the left. In the sport shirt is Kenneth Powell, observer for the Union, and in the dark suit is Charles Brewer, company observer. In the center photo Norma Hyder dropped her ballot in the box as Louis Perloff

TRANSYLVANIA—
An Industrial, Tourist, Educational, Agricultural and Music Center. Population, 1960 Census, 16,372. Brevard Community 8,500. Brevard proper 4,857.

THE TRANSYLVANIA TIMES

A State And National Prize-Winning A.B.C. Newspaper

TRANSYLVANIA—
The Land of Waterfalls, Mecca for Summer Camps, Entrance to Pisgah National Forest and Home of Brevard Music Festival.

Vol 27 — No. 8

★

SECOND CLASS MAIL PRIVILEGES AUTHORIZED AT BREVARD, N. C.

BREVARD, N. C., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1961

★ 18 PAGES TODAY ★

PRICE 7c

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

LAWRENCE HIPPI, left, is pictured above being sworn into office as Transylvania's new tax collector by Clerk of Superior Court Marvin McCall. The ceremony took place last Saturday morning here in the Court House. At the right is Mrs. Ray Brown, and she is the new deputy collector. Witnessing the ceremony were Bob Boya, at the left in the background, who is chairman of the Transylvania Board of County Commissioners, and John R. Hudson, county attorney, at the right. (Times Staff Photo)

Olin Mathieson Employees Vote Against Unionization Four To One, Ballot Large

Hipp New Tax Collector In Transylvania

Lawrence R. Hipp was sworn in Saturday morning as the new Transylvania County tax collector.

Hipp was appointed to the post by Gov. Terry Sanford, and he will serve until the first Monday in December of 1964.

He succeeds the late C. M. Douglas, who died last November 8th, and took over the post from Mrs. Margaret Guilkey.

Mrs. Ray Brown has become assistant tax collector, a post to which Hipp was appointed in December in anticipation of being named as tax collector by the governor.

The swearing-in was performed by Transylvania County Superior Court Clerk F. M. McCall.

Meanwhile, legislation is being—
—Turn to Page Five

A LARGE QUANTITY OF WHISKEY AND BEER which has been captured by local officers during raids in recent months was ordered out by the judge during the last term of superior court. This operation took place last Thursday morning on the court house hill and it attracted considerable attention as well as raising "quite an odor". Local officers carrying out the work from left to right are L. B. Vaughn, W. D. Nelson, Chief "Bill" Thurston, J. C. Rowe, and N. H. Stiles. (Times Staff Photo)

Figures Were: Company—1401, Union—378

Employees of Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp. in Pisgah Forest voted almost four to one against representation by the United Papermakers and Paperworkers, AFL-CIO in an election held last Friday and Saturday in the plant at Pisgah Forest.

The official count showed that 1,401 employees voted against representation by the union, while only 378 voted for the union. There were 1,888 employees eligible, of whom 1,806 voted. Union observers challenged 27 votes, but none were challenged by the company.

The election was announced earlier this month by the National Labor Relations Board upon petition by the UPP for hourly-rate employees.

Philip C. Brownell, vice president and manager, in a letter this week to employees of the plant, said in part...

"Those of us who sat on the sidelines while you voted last week are genuinely happy at the outcome. Everyone has reason to be glad that nearly everyone who had a right to vote did vote, and that the conduct of

—Turn to Page Four

Brevard Voters To Elect Mayor, Board Of Aldermen On May 2

A general election for the purpose of naming a Board of Aldermen and a Mayor will be held in Brevard on Tuesday, May 2nd.

Registration dates, deadline for filing, registrars, etc. will be announced by the Board of Aldermen after their next regular meeting.

The Statutes set the date of the election on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May.

At previous meetings of the Board, there have been discussions pertinent to a new registration, and this is also expected to be called by the Board at the March meeting on Monday night, March 6th.

Rev. B. W. Thomason, former state senator, filed on Tuesday as a candidate for mayor.

Simultaneously, five men announced for the Board of Aldermen. They are as follows: J. Erwin Galloway, B. H. Freeman, H. H. Patton, Herschel Townley, and Anthony Trantham.

County's Representative Reports, On Committees

Jack H. Potts, Transylvania's representative in the 1961 legislature, told The Times this week that legislative work is off to a good start.

He said that the western delegation had a most interesting meeting with Governor Terry Sanford on Tuesday, and Mr. Sanford described Western North Carolina's organized program for planning for future regional growth as a model for the rest of the state.

Mr. Potts said that the Governor solicited the support of WNC legislators in the fight for educational spending and tax proposals he will detail March 1st.

Rep. Potts has been appointed on many important committees of the House of Representatives, and they are as follows:

Judiciary No. Two, Joint Community Libraries, Committee on Election and Election Laws, Higher Education, Corporations, Engrossed Bills, Road and Highway Safety, Public

—Turn to Page Four

"Buck" McCall Will Head Civil Defense

F. L. "Buck" McCall, chief of police at the Olin Mathieson Chemical corporation at Pisgah Forest, has been named civil defense director for Transylvania county. He succeeds Weldon Misenheimer, resigned.

Mr. McCall says that plans are already underway to organize the county under the civil defense program, and to have Transylvania certified.

One of the first areas to be

—Turn to Page Four

Little Theatre Presents Play This Week

The Brevard Little Theatre's production of Elizabeth McFadden's "Double Door" will be presented this Friday and Saturday evening in the Brevard College auditorium. Curtain time for both performances will be 8:00 o'clock.

A cast of 12 persons has been rehearsing for six weeks under the direction of Robroy Farquhar. A large group of BLT faithfuls spent most of last weekend constructing the set for this, the second production of the current season.

A special performance will be presented on Thursday evening in the college auditorium to benefit the Jenkins Community Center. Curtain time for this performance will also be 8:00 o'clock, and all colored persons of the community are cordially

—Turn to Page Five

Potts And Ramsey And Hamlin Law Firms Merge

Two local law firms, Potts and Ramsey, and Hamlin and Hamlin and associate, John R. Hudson, are joining and the future name of the organization will be Hamlin, Potts, Ramsey and Hudson.

The new firm has contracted to purchase the Goodwin building on Jordan street, and offices will be located on the ground floor of the building.

They will engage in the general practice of law as a firm and they expect to be in their new location in early March. Temporarily they will remain in their present locations.

Mr. Hamlin, who has been practicing law in Brevard for 42 years, said yesterday that he felt the merger would be beneficial to the organization and to the community.

Over the years, Mr. Hamlin has been extremely interested in the affairs of the Republican party, and he has been active in community and church activities.

In 1928 he served as representative in the General Assembly and was minority leader. He has also served as Register of Deeds two terms, county attorney, and solicitor of the county court before it was done away with.

A charter member of the Kiwanis club, he is a past president, and he was also a charter member of the Brevard Chamber of Commerce and served as director continuously until 1958.

Mr. Hamlin received his education at Cullowhee and his law degree from Wake Forest col-

—Turn to Page Ten

Baptists Will Hold Mass Meet Friday Evening

A mass meeting of the Transylvania Baptist Association Brotherhood will be held on Friday, February 24th, at the Grace Baptist church.

The meeting will begin at 7:15 o'clock.

Jesse Gillespie, associational brotherhood leader, urges all members and pastors to attend. He issues a special invitation to all men who are interested in the brotherhood but do not now belong.

Red Cross Leaders Named

Newly appointed directors and committee chairmen of the Transylvania chapter of American Red Cross made plans for the new year at a luncheon meeting Tuesday at Gaither's.

Guest speakers were Miss Ruth Lockman, Red Cross field representative, and Miss Rosemary Englebert, home service director for the Madison-Buncombe chapter.

Chairman J. Bruce Merton presided over the meeting and introduced the new committee chairmen.

The group discussed the dis-

—Turn to Page Five

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Thursday, February 23—BPW meets at Colonial Inn at 7:00 p. m. Associational YWA meets at Little River Baptist church at 7:00 p. m. Masous meet in Temple at 8:00 p. m.

Friday, February 24 — Associational Brotherhood meeting at Grace Baptist church at 7:15 p. m. BLT play, "Double Door," in college auditorium at 8:00 p. m. Ace of Clubs meets at 8:00 p. m.

Saturday, February 25 — BLT play, "Double Door," in college auditorium at 8:00 p. m.

Sunday, February 26 — Attend the church of your choice. Heart Sunday.

Monday, February 27—Rotary Club meets at Gaither's at 7:00

—Turn to Page Ten

PRINCIPALS in the Brevard Little Theatre's forthcoming production of Elizabeth McFadden's sinister "Double Door" are shown above in final stages of rehearsal. Left to right are Nancy Edwards, Dick Bur-

nette, Barbara Rhodes, and Bernie Maguire. The play will be given this Friday and Saturday, February 24th and 25th, in the Brevard College auditorium. (Official Little Theatre Photo)

The Weather

Mild, humid weather, which moved into Brevard almost a week ago, has predominated the weather picture, bringing a total of 2.93 inches of precipitation to the area. Temperatures reflected a definite warming trend. Daily readings are as follows:

	High	Low	Pre.
Wednesday	66	39	0
Thursday	72	27	0
Friday	66	32	0
Saturday	57	47	.80
Sunday	59	50	.15
Monday	51	45	.58
Tuesday	52	39	1.40

Additional Stock Market Reports Being Heard, WPNF

Due to popular request, additional information on the stock market activity is now heard daily over radio station WPNF, Bill Hancock, the program director announces.

A capsule summary of the market's trading has been incorporated as a part of Brevard Lumber company's world news, and can be heard each evening at 6:10 o'clock.

This addition gives the station's listeners a complete news report nightly during the thirty minute period consisting of local, world, weather, and sports news, Mr. Hancock states.

OTHER PROGRAMS

The schedule for the Farm and Home hour is as follows: Thursday, Farm Home Adm., John Collins; Friday, ASC, Marvin Whitmire; Monday, County agent; Tuesday, station program; Wednesday, home agent.

Appearing on the Civic Hour the following: Wednesday, American Legion auxiliary; Friday,

—Turn to Page Five