Brevard College Will Hold First "Appreciation Day" On Friday

This Weekend To Be Homecoming, Events Scheduled

The Homecoming activities at Brevard College this weekend will begin Friday with an Appreciation Day assembly program in the college auditorium at 3:00 p. m.

Because they are largely responsible for the progress in the first stage of the college building program, ministers and members of all the churches in the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church have been invited to visit the campus to see the "new look," President Emmett K. McLarty, Jr., stated.

Following the assembly program, Open House will be held in the new Science hall from 4:00 to 6:00 and from 7:00 to 9:00. President McLarty announced that everyone in the community interested in the college is invited to attend both the program and open house.

On Friday morning and afternoon the college Board of Trustees will be in session, headed by Chairman Allen H. Sims of Gastonia. Members on the board from Brevard are John I. Anderson, Jr., Leslie S. Grogan and F. S. Best.

With the Science hall completed and construction started on the new physical Education Building, the Trustees will review plans for the next stage in the college expansion program.

Alumni returning for Homecoming are asked to register Saturday morning in the lobby of the Campus Center building. The faculty dining room in the college cafeteria will be reserved for alumni at both lunch and dinner on Saturday.

Activities will end with the annual Homecoming Dance which will start at 8:30 Saturday evening. In a school-wide election last week, Sally Maynard of Winder Park, Florida, was chosen Homecoming Queen. Serving her as attendants will be Catherine Whitworth, of Charlotte, sophomore attendant, and Marcella Dodd, of Winston-Salem, freshman attendant.

Registration For Bond Issue Vote To Begin

Registration for the state-wide bond issue vote will start Saturday, October 14, and continue through Saturday, October 28, T. J. Wilson, chairman of the Transylvania County Board of Elections has announced.

November 4 has been set as challenge day and the election will be held on Tuesday, November 7.

Only those who have become of age or moved from one precinct to another need register, said the county elections official. This is not a new registration.

A voter must be 21 years of age on or by November 7th to register and vote. He must have been a resident of North Carolina for one year and a resident of his township, ward or precinct for one month. Everyone

Contest Opens For National Newspaper Week

Highlighting the local observance of National Newspaper week, which is next week, The Transylvania Times will again sponsor an essay contest in Brevard and Rosman high schools.

The theme of the observance this year is "Your Newspaper—Heritage of Truth: Frontier of Freedom".

The contest will be open to all 11th and 12th graders in the two schools, and Editor John Anderson is asking these students to submit an essay of not more than 500 words to their English teachers by 3:00 p. m., October 28th.

Editor Anderson points out that the theme emphasizes the role the newspapers play as bearers of ideals and com-
