

UF Drive Opens Monday

The annual United Fund campaign in Brevard and Transylvania county opens on Monday, Sept. 24th, according to Chester Kilpatrick, the fund drive chairman.

There will be a kick-off breakfast at Gaither's at 7:00 o'clock for division chairmen and solicitors, and the campaign will begin immediately afterwards.

The goal this year is $30,665.00, slightly higher than it was a year ago.

United Fund President John Bailey explains that two new agencies were admitted this year and they are the Brevard and Rosman Rescue squads. "These organizations are doing a fine job for the communities they serve, and we are happy to add them to our list," Mr. Bailey declared.

In all, there are some 26 extremely worthwhile agencies being supported by the Transylvania United Fund, the president stresses.

Management of industries in the county and owners of various businesses are encouraged to have their employees give through payroll deduction.

The huge thermometer, which will show the progress of donations as they come in, will again be erected on the court house lawn.

James M. Wulpi, the executive secretary, is opening headquarters on the corner of Broad and Jordan streets in the building formerly occupied by Cassell's.

Dr. Stricker Heads Medical Society Here

Dr. R. L. Stricker was elected president of the Transylvania County Medical Society and chief of staff at the Transylvania Community hospital in a meeting Monday night of the local society.

Secretary of the staff and medical society is Dr. Albert O. Ryan. Dr. Julius Sader was named as delegate to the state medical convention, and Dr. James H. Sanders was named alternate delegate.

These officers will assume their duties on January 1st.

Bright Future

First Union's Application At Rosman Is Approved

W. H. Keith, vice president First Union National Bank of North Carolina, announced today that the Comptroller of the Currency has approved the application of First Union National Bank for a full service branch at Rosman. The branch will be located on Chestnut street.

Rosman is southeast of the Brevard office and will serve the commercial and industrial banking requirements of the lumber, chemical and manufacturing industries located here.

Recently, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) let a contract for the construction of a satellite tracking station in the Pisgah National Forest near Rosman.

Mr. Keith stated:

"It is most gratifying to receive confirmation of our application from the Comptroller of the Currency to open this branch. We know the area is undergoing rapid expansion including new and diversified em-

Bank Hearing Well Attended, Decision Expected In October

Much interest was shown at the hearing before State Banking Commissioner Ben Roberts here last Friday morning, as officials of Northwestern Bank, of North Wilkesboro, and First Citizens Bank and Trust company, of Smithfield, sought to prove why their applications for facilities here in Brevard should be approved.

Welcome Is Extended To Brevard College Students And Faculty

Comments Made To Community By President

As Brevard College begins the new term, President Emmett K. McLarty issues the following statement to be carried in this week's issue of The Times:

"The 1962-63 academic year is underway at Brevard College and promises to be superior in every respect. A record enrollment was indicated at registration last Wednesday when it became evident that there was an increase of 40 full-time resident students over last year. The total number of registrations was 418 full-time students and five special students taking regular college courses. This number does not include the scores of local citizens enrolled in private music and art courses.

"The increased enrollment at Brevard College is largely due to the excellent public relations office supported by the steady heightening of academic standards at the college. The college is becoming recognized throughout the Southeast for its excellence in offering university parallel courses. Last year 85 percent of Brevard College graduates enrolled in a number of senior colleges to continue their -Turn to Page Three

Special Edition Of The Times Is Published

Brevard and Transylvania officials join hands with the merchants and others in the community in welcoming the large and selected student body, faculty and staff members to Brevard college for the 1962-63 term.

All indications point to one of the most successful years in the history of the school, which this fall begins its 109th year of educational and religious service to the youth of the state and nation.

Enrollment is at a peak of 420 students, with many special students also being enrolled.

Special Edition

This week The Times is publishing its annual Brevard college greetings edition, and all subscribers are urged to read the entire paper with interest. This paper is going not only to regular subscribers, but also to students, parents, trustees of the college and a large number of out-of-town friends of the institution.

Mayor B. W. Thomason said yesterday that it is always a real pleasure to welcome the students and faculty members to town. He praised the officials of the college on the progress that is being made at the institution.

On behalf of the county board of commissioners Bob Boya, chairman, sent cordial greetings to the college student body and the faculty and staff members.

Freeman Hayes, president of the chamber of commerce, welcomes all persons to Brevard college for the 1962-63 year.

Galloway Is Certified As New Postmaster

Thomas W. Galloway, of Rosman, has been appointed Acting Postmaster at Rosman post office. The appointment, effective August 17th, was made by J. Edward Day, Postmaster General.

The certificate of appointment was presented to Mr. Galloway by W. T. Martin, of Greenville, S. C., postal service officer for this region, in informal services last Thursday.

Morton Elected President Of Bar Association

J. Bruce Morton, Brevard attorney and solicitor of the Transylvania General County court, was elected president of the Transylvania Bar association at the annual meeting Tuesday afternoon.

He succeeds John R. Hudson. Other officers elected at the meeting are as follows:

John Smart, vice president
J. O. Wells, secretary
Cecil J. Hill, treasurer.

At the meeting, members of the local bar association also discussed the schedule of legal fees charged here. It was the feeling that they should be brought into conformity with those charged across the state.

The group commended the county commissioners for improvements made in the courtroom, and they requested that new chairs and tables be purchased for lawyers, court officials and others.

Jurors For October Court Called

Jurors for the October term of Superior court in Transylvania are announced today by Clerk of Superior Court Marvin McCall.

The first week, which opens on Monday, October 22nd, will be devoted to the trial of criminal cases, and the civil docket will be heard during the week of October 29th.

Judge J. Frank Huskins, of Burnsville, will preside over the court, and Leonard Lowe, of Forest City, will prosecute for the state.

Mr. McCall reminds members of the Grand Jury during the July term that they must serve again during this October term.

Jurors called to serve during the first week are as follows: Howard Volrath, Sam C. Owen, Mrs. H. E. Newbury, Mrs. Fred -Turn to Page Five Transylvania county is included in the plans of the U. S. Forest Service for expansion of recreational facilities in Western North Carolina, according to Congressman Roy A. Taylor.

Rep. Taylor released a report prepared by Peter J. Hanlon, forest supervisor for N. C. National Forests, listing long-range development plans for the national forest areas in this county.

"How fast these projects can be completed depends on how rapidly we can secure the appropriations," said Mr. Taylor, who has fully endorsed the Forest Service program.

He listed as follows the proposals contained in Hanlon's report for Transylvania county: 1. Sycamore Flats. This area on Davidson River near the Pisgah Ranger station is scheduled for expansion of picnicking facilities this year.

2. Cherry Cove Recreation area. This area is located just off U. S. 276 about four miles east of Wagon Road Gap. The area will be developed primarily for camping.

3. Horse Cove Recreation area located just below -Turn to Page Five
