

TRANSYLVANIA—
An Industrial, Tourist, Educational, Agricultural and Music Center. Population, 1960 Census, 16,372. Brevard Community 8,500, Brevard proper 4,857.

THE TRANSYLVANIA TIMES

A State And National Prize-Winning A.B.C. Newspaper

TRANSYLVANIA—
The Land of Waterfalls, Mecca for Summer Camps, Entrance to Pisgah National Forest and Home of Brevard College and Brevard Music Festival.

Vol. 74 — No. 22

SECOND CLASS POSTAGE PAID AT BREVARD, N. C.

BREVARD, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 30, 1963

PRICE 10¢

★ 32 PAGES TODAY ★

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

OFFICIALS OF THE NEW Transylvania Community Center issue a cordial invitation to all persons in the town and county to attend the "open house" of the renovated building on Gaston street on Saturday. Highlighting the event will be pancake meals at breakfast, lunch and dinner, and all proceeds will go to further renovation work. At the left is Rev. Ben Ormand, who is serving as the funds raising chairman for the center, and Dr. Julius Sader, president, is next in line. Mrs. Emmett K. McLarty is the secretary, and at the right is Tom McCrary, who is vice chairman and head of arrangements for the "open house" and the pancake meals. (Times Staff Photo)

With Pancake Meals

Community Center To Hold "Open House" This Saturday

The new Transylvania Community center, located on Gaston street, will be formally opened to the public on Saturday.

The "Open House" will be highlighted by three pancake meals during the following hours:

Breakfast — 7:30 to 9:30
Lunch — 11:30 to 1:30
Dinner — 5:00 to 7:00

Tickets, which are contributions to the center for continued renovation work, are $1.00 each, and they are being sold under the direction of Lloyd Burhans.

Tom McCrary, the general chairman of the event, cordially invites the public to attend and get a good meal while seeing the new center. Mrs. Spalding McIntosh, Jr., is in charge of hostesses' committee, while Mel Everingham is the procurement chairman.

Many local merchants are contributing food, etc., to the event, and all indications point to an overwhelming success.

The chairman is being assisted by Carroll Robinson, of, first of the Transylvania Community center and many other individuals.

"Come out. Enjoy a good meal, morning, noon or night and see what a wonderful community center Transylvania county now has," Mr. McCrary urges.

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Thursday, May 30 — Memorial Day Service at Gillespie Evergreen cemetery 11:00 a.m. Post office, banks and county offices closed.

Saturday, June 1 — Transylvania Community Center open house, pancake breakfast, lunch and dinner served. "Trial By Jury" and "Happy Journey to Camden and Trenton" in college auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, June 2 — Attend the church of your choice. Brevard College baccalaureate sermon at Brevard Methodist church at 11:00 a.m. Graduation in college gym at 3:00 p.m. Brevard Senior high baccalaureate service in J. B. Jones auditorium at 8:00 p.m. Rosman High baccalaureate service in Silversteen gym at 8:00 p.m.

Monday, June 3 — Rotary club meets at Gaither's at 7:00 p.m. Rosman High school graduation in Silversteen gym at 8:00 p.m.

Tuesday, June 4 — Special school election, polls open 6:30 a.m., close 6:30 p.m. Brevard Senior high graduation in J. B. Jones auditorium at 8:00 p.m. Eastern Star meets at Temple at 8:00 p.m.

Wednesday, June 5 — Toastmasters club meets at Gaither's at 8:30 p.m. WOW meets in Woodman Hall at 8:00 p.m.

Memorial Service Slated

The American Legion and the American Legion auxiliary will observe Memorial Day in Transylvania county on Thursday, May 30th, at 11:00 a. m., in the Gillespie - Evergreen cemetery, according to Mrs. J. B. Pettit, chairman for this occasion.

Rev. R. L. Phillips of the Enon Baptist church will deliver the invocation. Mrs. Bly Rogers, president of the auxiliary, will introduce David B. Sams, the feature speaker.

Other patriotic organizations participating are the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, the United States Army Reserve and the Gold Star Mothers.

All legionnaires and auxiliary members are urged to attend this service in memory of the war dead, and the public is cordially invited.

During the remainder of the day, the auxiliary will place a flag on each veteran's grave in the County.

It is hoped that many persons will display their flags —Turn to Page Three

The Weather

Transylvania, as well as most of North Carolina, received a good soaking since Saturday with rainfall that caught the weatherman completely by surprise.

In Brevard, rainfall for the week totaled 2.56 inches with all but four-one-hundredths of this occurring since Friday night at 6:00 p.m.

High temperature for the week was 78 records on Wednesday of last week and Tuesday of this week.

Low mark came on Friday morning when the mercury chilled to 36 degrees.

Average highs and lows were 68 and 48 respectively.

Daily statistics are as follows:

	High	Low	Prec.
Wednesday	78	45	0.00
Thursday	66	47	0.04
Friday	66	36	0.00
Saturday	62	47	0.65
Sunday	63	51	0.37
Monday	62	54	1.10
Tuesday	78	58	0.40

For the next five days daily highs will average from 74 to 77 with early morning lows averaging 52 to 55. The forecast calls for heavy precipitation in the form of scattered showers through Saturday. Temperatures will drop somewhat during the weekend.

At Duke Power Co.

Gaines Is Retiring, Clark Is Named Successor, Brevard Office

J. M. Gaines, veteran Duke Power company, manager here at Brevard, will retire June 1st after 35 years service, most of which was spent as the company's top representative in the Transylvania county area. He will be succeeded by John D. Clark of Duke's Hickory district office.

Mr. Gaines, who has headed Duke's operations in Brevard since 1929, except for two years as manager at Hendersonville, is a native of Texarkana, Ark.

A graduate of Georgia Institute of Technology, before joining Duke Power in 1928, he was with Westinghouse Electric & Mfg. Co. in Sharon, Pa. and Florida Power Corp. in St. Petersburg. He served overseas in World War I and participated in five major engagements.

Mr. Gaines is a Methodist, is a director of and was twice president of the Brevard Chamber of Commerce, past director of the Brevard Kiwanis Club, a director of Western North Carolina Associated Communities, member of the American Legion, member of the Engineers' Club of Western North Carolina, member of the Southeastern Section of the American Physical Society, is of Senior Member grade in the Institute of Elec-

—Turn to Page Six

Graduation Exercises Set At College, Brevard And Rosman

THE THREE MEN above will award diplomas at graduation exercises in Brevard and Transylvania county during the coming week. At the left is Dr. Emmett K. McLarty, president of Brevard College, who will give out the sheepskins at exercises Sunday afternoon. In the center is Principal E. F. Tilson, who will award the graduates their diplomas at Rosman on Monday night. At the right is Principal Robert T. Kinzey, who will make the presentations at Brevard senior high school next Tuesday night.

Ballot Carried

Special School Election Is Set Tuesday, Background Cited

The special election for school improvements next Tuesday was called after a thorough investigation and study of needs in the school system was made by the Transylvania County Citizens' Committee for Better Schools.

David C. Lea is the chairman.

Regarding the election, the following statement has been released by the committee:

The Transylvania County Citizens' Committee for Better Schools would like to remind all voters of Transylvania County of the School Tax Supplement election on June 4, 1963. The purpose of the supplement is to provide the necessary funds for upgrading and broadening the educational opportunities in the schools in Transylvania County. It will be used to employ additional teachers, librarians, and other supporting personnel. If our schools are to keep pace with today's demands on education, the school tax supplement is a must.

There are certain facts —Turn to Page Seven

First Union National Bank Is Low Bidder

The First Union National bank was the low bidder on the Brevard water bonds, totaling $13,000.00.

There were 7 bids, and they were opened in Raleigh on Tuesday by the Local Government commission.

First Union's low bid was 3.6216 per cent, and the bonds mature from June, 1965 until June, 1976.

The announcement was made by Bill Keith, Brevard's vice president, First Union National bank.

Look Inside..

Variety of sports, pages 4 and 5, first section.

Reasons for voting for in school election, back page, fourth section.

Pictures on BPW installation, pages 6 and 7, fourth section.

Much pictorial coverage given to graduating classes throughout the paper.

Times and WPWF win awards, front page, fourth section.

Rep. Bill Leonard reports, page 3, fourth section.

Rundown Of These Events Made By Times

It's graduation time in Brevard and Transylvania county. Exercises are slated at Brevard College Sunday afternoon, at Rosman Monday evening and at Brevard senior high school next Tuesday night.

Baccalaureate sermons will be preached on Sunday.

Schools will close on Friday. However students will return to the various institutions for their report cards next Tuesday morning.

The Brevard College graduation day sermon will be given Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock at the Brevard Methodist church by Dr. Frank Jordan.

Dr. Emmett K. McLarty, president of Brevard College, will award diplomas at exercises that afternoon, beginning at 3:00 o'clock. Complete details are carried in stories on page 3, section 2.

At Rosman High School

The baccalaureate sermon for the Rosman high school senior class will be delivered Sunday, June 2 in the high school auditorium at 8:00 p.m. by the Rev. Page Lee of the Bible Department of Mars Hill College and pastor of Mt. Moriah Calvert Baptist church.

Special music will be rendered by Gloria Moody Gustina Barton and Carolyn Greene and the combined Glee clubs under the direction of Mrs. J. M. Winget.

Gail Powell will give the invocation and Ronald Dodson will give the benediction.

The commencement exercises will be held Monday night, June 3 at 8:00 p.m. in the Silversteen gymnasium. Student speakers will present a program on "Mo-

—Turn to Page Three

Big Convention To Be Held Here In June

Brevard College will be the scene of the annual convention of the North Carolina Pupil Transportation Association to be held here June 11th to 14th.

Some 400 school transportation personnel, many with their wives and children, are expected to be on hand. Theme of the meeting is "Education, Key To Progress."

According to Hugh Allen, association president, "truly, the keys that start the motors of the 9,000 buses which transport more than 565,000 pupils to school each day are keys to education."

"The average cost per pupil for transportation is less than 10 cents per day, North Carolina's bus drivers, 90 per cent —Turn to Page Four

Wayne Glazener Wins Road-E-O

Wayne Glazener, a 16-year old junior at Brevard senior high school, won the Safe Driving Road-E-O sponsored by the Brevard Jaycees here last weekend.

Wayne's victory in the hotly contested local Road-E-O earned him the right to compete in the state-wide Road-E-O to be held in Burlington on June 8th and 9th.

He will be accompanied to Burlington by Don Voltz, who was chairman of the local Road-E-O.

Young Glazener is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Glazener of Rt. 1, Pisgah Forest. —Turn to Page Seven

Alexander Named To Post, UNC

Jack Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis Alexander, of 62 Turnpike road, was recent ly-elected president of the Student Body in the School of Pharmacy at the University of North Carolina for the 63-64 term, during which time he will be completing his Senior year.

During his sophomore year, Jack became a member of the Pharmacy Senate and will serve as its president also during the 1963-64 term.

During his junior year, he was elected president of that class, served as a member of the Dean's cabinet, member of the Pharmacy senate and student librarian.

He is also married and has two children: Tim age 6 and Lisa age 4. His wife, Nan, is a secretary at the University of North Carolina School of Dentistry.

Pros And Cons Heard At Hearing On ABC Election

RALEIGH—The Mayor of Brevard told a legislative committee today that if an election is held in Brevard on the question of legalizing liquor, "the distillers will pay thousands of dollars in support of their cause."

Dr. E. K. McLarty, president of Brevard College, urged the committee not to approve the bill.

Establishment of ABC stores, he said, would be "putting a road block in the paths" of young people. He added, "it will hurt Brevard College. If we permit an ABC store you will hurt recruitment at the college. . . . For God's sake, have mercy on your young —Turn to Page Seven mit a referendum in Brevard on the question of establishing ABC stores in the town.

Dr. E. K. McLarty, president of Brevard College, urged the committee not to approve the bill.

Establishment of ABC stores, he said, would be "putting a road block in the paths" of young people. He added, "it will hurt Brevard College. If we permit an ABC store you will hurt recruitment at the college. . . . For God's sake, have mercy on your young —Turn to Page Seven