Capacity Crowd Attended First Audubon Film

The first of a series of five Audubon Nature Theater wildlife film programs was shown Monday afternoon for a capacity audience in Robin Hood's Barn at Sherwood Forest near Cedar Mountain.

Campers and counselors from camps in the surrounding area, people of all ages from Brevard and as far as Asheville, Greenville and Hendersonville, saw the outstanding all-color film presented by Dr. Alfred G. Etter, photographer and naturalist from East Lansing, Michigan. His film showed the interrelationships of all living things against a background of the changing seasons of the year.

Wednesday night Dr. Etter presented his all-color film on pesticides and the balance of nature filmed on the Michigan State University campus. The 8

County-Wide Garbage Collection System Set

Transylvania will have a county-wide garbage collection system, according to a joint announcement from Bob Boyd, chairman of the Board of Commissioners and Walter Hart, senior sanitarian.

There will be five designated areas, with land-fill dumps. They are: Tokaway, Silverstein, Rosman, Balsam Grove and Pisgah Forest.

Mr. Hart says that Transylvania is the first county in the state to work out such an extensive, county-wide garbage collection system.

Complete details, which are now being worked out, will be announced next week.

Weekend Visitors

Florida, Georgia Governors Enjoy Transylvania And WNC

Two Southern governors, Ferris Bryant, of Florida, and Carl Sanders, of Georgia, enjoyed visiting in Transylvania and other sections of Western North Carolina over the Fourth of July weekend.

They stayed at beautiful Sapphire Valley Inn, and Gene Howerd, Sr., the owner, had also invited Governor Terry Sanford. However, the North Carolina governor's office extended his regrets and said that Mr. Sanford had a working-weekend scheduled.

Governor Bryant addressed the Methodist lawyers at Lake Junaluska Friday night, while Gov. Sanders spent much time golfing and fishing.

On Sunday, Gov. Sanders brought one of his daughters to Brevard, where she enrolled at Keystone camp.

There was nothing official about the get-together of the two governors at Sapphire. They are long-time friends of Mr. Howerd, and some 100 persons joined them at a buffet-dance at the Inn last Thursday night.

Gov. Sanders laughed when he heard that Gov. Sanford still had his redistricting problems to face.

"Just tell him to get a big map and a big crayon and start marking it up. He'll have a lot of marks to make. It's a rough problem."

Boards To Talk

School Budget Cut, More Funds Said To Be Needed

The Transylvania county commissioners have approved a school budget of $335,317.00 for the 1963-'64 school term.

This is $8,477.50 less than the 1962-'63 budget.

The commissioners informed the Board of Education that such a cut was necessary due to the added cost for the property re-valuation program now going on in the county.

The Board of Education has requested a special meeting of the Commissioners to discuss this problem.

Several major renovation and improvement programs are being carried on in the public schools this summer, Supt. Wayne Bradburn reports.

Rosman high school is being completely renovated; two new classrooms are being constructed at Brevard junior high school; Pisgah Forest and Brevard elementary are being painted inside and outside and the floors are being refinished at Brevard senior high, Straus elementary and Rosman elementary.

A number of projects have had to be eliminated due to lack of funds, Mr. Bradburn states.

These projects had to do mostly with improvement of grounds at Penrose, senior high athletic field, T. C. Henderson elementary school and

Festival Successful

Ruth Ellen Hunter Is Named "Miss Brevard" In Pageant

Ruth Ellen Hunter, 20-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan C. Hunter of Brevard, was crowned "Miss Brevard of 1964" last Saturday night to highlight the three-day Sylvan Valley Folk Festival at the Brevard College gymnasium.

Miss Hunter won the title over 8 other lovely young ladies from Transylvania county. She had also been a preliminary winner in the evening gown competition.

First runner-up to the new "Miss Brevard" was Karen Felecia Galloway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Galloway, of Brevard. She was also a preliminary winner in the talent division of the competition.

Donna Lee Irby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon J. Irby of Brevard, was second runner-up. She also won the swim suit competition.

The coveted "Miss Congeniality" award, voted on by the contestants themselves, was won by Aundria McGuire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McGuire of Pisgah Forest.

Square dance teams, string bands, individual performers, three lovely visiting queens and the nine contestants all combined to make the Festival the most successful ever held by the sponsoring Brevard Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Good crowds were on hand for Thursday and Friday night's performances, and a full house witnessed the Saturday night climax to the three day festival.

Robert T. Kimzey, prominent Transylvania educator, placed the crown on the new "Miss Brevard". He had also been honored earlier in the evening by the Brevard Jayces and the Brevard Lions club, for outstanding service in the field of education while

"Governor's Weekend" Is Slated Here At The Brevard Music Center

Several Stars Will Perform With Symphony

The strains of beautiful music emanating from the hills around the Brevard Music Center this weekend will be honoring the Governor of North Carolina. Governor Terry Sanford will move briefly from the State Capitol to the "Summer Music Capital of the South." Performing in his honor will be Juilliard Award Winners, a Metropolitan Opera star, and a world famous pianist. On Friday night, July 12th, Stephen Manes, pianist, and Marilyn Zschau, mezzo-soprano will inaugurate the festivities of the Governor's Weekend. These artists won in competition against other Juilliard students to be named the Juilliard Award Winners of 1963. Young Manes will play the Rachmaninoff Piano Concerto No. 2. Miss Zschau will sing "Voi che sapete" and "Non so piu" from Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro." In addition to these, arias she will sing "My Heart at the Sweet Voice" from Saint-Saens' "Samson and Delilah," and "Stride la Vampa," from Verdi's "Il Trovatore."

"Cripple Creek" by the late North Carolinian Lamar Stringfield, and "Romeo and Juliet" by Tchaikowsky will complete the program presented by the Brevard Music Center Symphony, under the direction of James Christian Pfohl.

On Saturday afternoon the Transylvania Youth Orchestra and Concert Band will present a special concert for the Governor.

After this concert interested persons will have the opportunity to hear a panel discussion on "The School of Performing Arts."

Saturday night the Brevard Music Center Philharmonia conducted by Dr. Pfohl will feature soprano Arlene Saunders. Miss Saunders, Metropolitan Opera soprano, will sing "Jewel Song"

WPNF's "Treasure Chest" Is Now $175, Clues Heard Daily

WPNF's "Treasure Chest" swelled to $175.00 last week, when no one correctly solved the weekly contest in the "Summer Treasure Hunt" series.

A new contest is underway for this week and new entry blanks can be secured from any of the merchants participating in the program. Clues are given daily on the "Tune Time" program at 2:05 p.m.

WPNF is now in its second week of a series of broadcasts in which the entire text of the Bible will be read from Genesis through the Revelation.

Station Manager Al Martin said today that the special series of programs is being prepared by Rev. Paul Mims, pastor of Temple Baptist Church, of Pisgah Forest.

The programs are about five minutes in length and are presented twice daily, at 8:30 a.m. and again at 5:30 p.m. This is to enable those persons who might have to work in the

The more than 50 members of the American Association of Retired Persons who reside in Transylvania county are forming the nucleus for a local chapter.

An organizational meeting will be held July 23rd at 10:00 o'clock at the Transylvania Community Center.

George R. Chester, area organizer, and president of the Hendersonville chapter, will be the guest speaker.

The local movement is being supported by the Brevard Chamber of Commerce and Brevard Kiwanis club, through J. M. Gaines and James M. Wulpi. A movement is underway throughout Western North Carolina for each county to have its own chapter, as a drawing card to make this area a retirement area for the nation.

Mr. Chester will answer questions concerning help offered by AARP, which include legislative representation, non-profit services to stretch retirement incomes, gift memberships, types of volunteer services, recognition of ability as ageless, and the promotion of creative

Fourth Was Quiet

Fourth of July was quietly observed in Brevard and Transylvania county.

The day was a holiday, with stores, town and county offices being closed.

Highlighting activities in the community were the Fourth of July picnic at Camp Straus and the Syvan Valley Folk Festival.

More than 5,000 persons attended the annual picnic, and the gala event was reported to have been highly successful.

While a record number of persons were killed on the nation's highways over the Fourth of July weekend, there were no serious accidents in Transylvania county, the State Highway Patrol reports.

Commerce Body Gives Aid At Industrial Site

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce voted to contribute up to $500 to move a troublesome water main at their regular monthly meeting Tuesday night in the library.

It was recently discovered that the main now runs directly under the construction site of the new Brevard Manufacturing Company plant here in Brevard.

The Town of Brevard, the Transylvania County commissioners and the Brevard Chamber of Commerce will now share jointly in the expense of moving the water main, which must be done before construction on the new plant can continue.

The directors also voted to request the county commissioners to look into the possibility of zoning certain designated areas of the county.

It was pointed out that neighboring Henderson county is presently zoning some sections of that county.

The joining of the two counties in zoning certain areas would keep those sections in their present state of development before unsightly obstructions start making their appearance
