PRIZED POSSESSIONS AT NEW KENNEDY HOME—A wagon and blackboard are moved into new home of Mrs. John F. Kennedy. Caroline and John Jr. in the Georgetown section of Washington. The former First Lady completed her move from the White House to the house which Under Secretary of State Harriman has lent her. Mrs. L. B. Johnson paid tribute to Mrs. Kennedy for leaving White House "a shining gift of beauty."

St. Philip's Church To Hold All-Day Program For Youths

An all-day program for high school youth on the theme of "Growing and Maturing" will be held at St. Philip's Episcopal Parish House Saturday, January 4.

The program is sponsored by the Episcopal Young Churchmen and the Community Seminar Group, and is open to all young people of high school age. Also, college students who may be still home on vacation are invited to attend.

The talk, keynoting the theme and laying the basis for the day's program, will be given by the Rev. James Y. Perry, Jr., Executive Secretary of the Episcopal Diocese of Western North Carolina. Mr. Perry is also Director of Sky Valley "Pioneer Camp" for Boys in Henderson county.

Dr. J. H. Sanders, of Brevard, will speak to the group on the physical and medical aspects of growing and maturing youth. A movie will be shown dealing with family life and parent-youth relationships. Group discussions will follow each of these presentations.

Also taking part in the program will be Lloyd Barkers, Chairman of the Transylvania Youth Association; N. A. Miller, principal of Brevard high school; Dr. David C. Kirk, Jr., chemist at Olin-Mathieson, and the Rev. Fred Valentine, Jr., Rector of St. Philip's Episcopal church.

The program will begin at 8:00 a.m. with a worship service in the chapel, followed by breakfast. First session will be 9:30 a.m.; lunch at 12:45 p.m., and those attending are asked to bring sandwiches; second session at 1:45 p.m.; and third session at 4:15 p.m. The program will conclude at 6:00 p.m.
