Beautiful late summer weather has been the rule in the Brevard area in recent days, with rainfall rather on the short side. During the past week, temperatures each day averaged 85 and 88, with a measurable amount of rain falling during five days of the week. However, total rainfall for the week amounted to less than one-half inch at the weather station.

The Weather Bureau's forecast for the next five days calls for temperatures of below normal value with rather mild weather. Normal for the area is 79 and 56 at this season of the year.

Rainfall should average a half-inch or less, occurring as scattered showers and thundershowers.

The week's temperatures and precipitation follows:

	High	Low	Prec.
Wednesday	84	57	0.13
Thursday	86	58	0.14
Friday	85	56	0.10
Saturday	86	57	0.02
Sunday	87	59	0.00
Monday	84	65	Trace
Tuesday	83	52	0.02

Blue Devils And Tigers To Open Home Season This Week

The Brevard Blue Devils and the Rosman Tigers will both launch their home football schedules this weekend against tough opposition.

Coach Bill Cathey's Tigers start things off Thursday night with a game against the Lee Edwards "B" team, and the Blue Devils will play host to always powerful Shelby here Friday night.

Both games will be played at the County Stadium at Brevard high school.

The Tigers will be striving to bounce back from their opening 32-0 licking at the hands of the Swain High Maroon Devils last week. They will also be out to avenge the 13-6 upset victory that Lee Edwards "B" team registered over them last season.

Rosman came out of the Swain contest in good shape physically, and Coach Cathey expects them to go all out against the Asheville team Thursday night.

Kick-off time has been set for 7:30.

Like Rosman, Brevard will also be trying to bounce back into the win column against Shelby's Golden Lions Friday night. The Owen Warhorses handed the Blue Devils a 22-6 setback at Swannanoa last Friday night in the season's opener for both teams.

At the same time, Coach Gerald "Early" Allen's Lions were busy registering an impressive 35-0 victory over 4-A Hunter Huss of Gastonia to start their season on the right foot.

A large contingent of Cleveland county fans is expected to make the trip here to support their ever popular Lions, so this home opener Friday night could well be played before a large crowd.

Capell Reports

Much Building Underway, Permit Regulation Cited

Although there has been a slowing up in construction here and across the nation recently because of "tight money," building permits issued in the Town of Brevard during the past three months total more than $462,000.00.

The largest single item was $337,176 for the new library on the campus of Brevard college.

Work was started on six new homes and the rest of the permits were issued for repairs and additions, according to S. L. Capell, the building inspector.

Mr. Capell emphasizes the fact that all persons planning to build or remodel must have a building permit.

Application forms for requesting a permit may be obtained from Mr. Capell at Town Hall between 9:00 and 10:00 a.m. each day, Monday through Friday, and by appointment. Applicants will be required to fill out the application and submit it, together with an accurately scaled map of the lot or parcel of land with the building shown on it. All front, side, and rear yard dimensions should be shown, together with bearings and lengths of the property boundaries.

The plat should show the street or road on which the property is located and the zone in which it is situated.

Mr. Capell explained that application forms would be given to builders, contractors and others regularly engaged in building work, for their convenience in obtaining their permits.

Permits will be required for new construction and for additions to old work. The zoning ordinance places particular emphasis on the location of commercial structures, and any person expecting to build this type of building is urged to see Mr. Capell well before he plans to begin construction.

Labor Day Was Quiet

The Labor Day observance in Brevard and Transylvania county was quiet.

While a record number of accidents was recorded across the United States, only one wreck was reported in Transylvania.

A South Carolina woman suffered injuries in this accident which occurred at the entrance of the Pisgah National forest.

Most of the stores in Brevard were closed for the day as were town and county offices and the schools.

Many Transylvanians attended the big Apple Festival parade in Hendersonville, in which the Brevard high school band played.

Civic Chorus Will Begin Rehearsals

The Brevard Civic Chorus begins its new season of rehearsals with its first scheduled meeting next Tuesday evening, Sept. 13th.

It will be held in the Dunham Music center, room 110, on the campus of Brevard college, beginning at 8:00 o'clock.

All interested persons are invited to attend.

Beale Fletcher To Again Teach Dance Classes

Beale Fletcher, well-known dance instructor in this area, will resume teaching dance classes here in Brevard.

Mr. Fletcher, a member of Dance Masters of America, previously taught dancing here in Brevard, but has not done so for the past several years.

Classes in tap, ballet and interpretive dancing will be taught, and registration day here will be next Tuesday, September 13th. Classes will start on Tuesday, September 20th.

All persons interested in having their children take dance instruction from Mr. Fletcher are urged to come to the Silverstein Community building on East French Broad street next Tuesday for registration between the hours of 2:30 and 6:30 p.m.

LOVELY CAROL COLEMAN, the new Miss Brevard, was a big hit with the large crowds attending the Apple Festival parade in Hendersonville on Labor Day. Pictured with her is John R. Huggins, the Jaycee director. Robert Miller was the driver of the convertible. Miss Coleman followed behind the Brevard high school band, which was also a crowd pleaser. (Times Staff Photo)

Transylvanians Vote On Airport Bond Issue In General Election

Notice Filed, Committee Sees Great Need Here

Transylvanians will vote for or against a $75,000 bond issue for an airport in Transylvania in the General Election on November 8th.

Notice of the election was filed this week by the Transylvania Board of County Commissioners.

Any person or taxpayer may protest against the issuance of such bonds at a meeting of the board on Sept. 26th at 10:00 a.m.

The commissioners have appointed an Airport committee made up of Spencer Hammill, Jack Bryant, Jack Mitchell and Gil Coan.

Because of no train service in the county, limited bus service and no new major highways in Transylvania during the past 35 years, the committee says there is a dire need for an adequate airport.

If Transylvanians vote for the bond issue, the Federal Government will pay $75,000 toward the construction of the airport.

The committee further states that if the issue does not pass, the county might not receive the federal grant since the program is up before congress for renewal at the present time.

The Federal Aviation Authority inspected the county and chose a site for an airport. This site is centrally located in the county so that all would benefit uniformly from it.

Great Books Group Meets

The ninth year of the Great Books discussion group begins September 18th, at the First-Citizens Bank and Trust company on Broad street from 8:00 to 10:00 p.m.

The only requirement for participation is to have read the assignment. The group's procedure, oversimplified, is to discuss what the author said, its impact to the reader and its relevance then and now.

Related readings are not pertinent to discussions, though past discussions are.

All interested persons are invited to attend.

"Do not be dissuaded by the fact that you may never have participated before; there is always a first time," group leaders say.

Farmers are reminded again today that they recently received ballots through the mail for voting in the ASCS Community Election. The election is to choose ASCS farmer - committeemen who will serve for the next year as local administrators of national farm - action programs.

According to Glenn A. Whitmire, chairman of the Transylvania Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County committee, "These ASCS committeemen have broad important program responsibilities, which make it all the more urgent that representative farmers be elected to do the job." He urged all qualified voters to be sure to cast their ballots by September 9, 1966.

Each year, the Chairman explained, such qualified voters - farmers who are taking part or are eligible to take part in one or more of the farm programs which the committees administer - elect a community committee from among their own number.

For each committee three regular members and two alternates will be elected. The chairman, vice chairman, and third regular member of the elected ASCS Community committee will also serve as delegates to the county convention where the ASCS county committee will be chosen on September 26th. The alternate committeemen will also serve as alternate delegates to the convention.

Program Highlights

Additional Stock Market Reports Heard Over WPNF

Closing stock quotations are heard each day on WPNF, presented to local listeners through courtesy of Olin Mathieson Chemical corporation and McCauley and Company.

This has been a long - time feature of the local station, voiced by Dick Page, and the brief program, heard each evening at 6:15 p. m., features a complete rundown on the important stocks in the spotlight, as well as those of all industries in the Western North Carolina area.

The station has recently completed arrangements to present nighttime quotations from the New York Stock Exchange, and these will be heard during the noon hour in the future.

Other Programs

The schedule for the Farm & Home Hour is as follows: Thursday, station program; Friday, Soil Conservation Service; Monday, County Extension (Chairman Jim Davis); Tuesday, U. S. Forest Service; Wednesday, Home Economics Extension Agent Jean Childers.

Sunday morning church services are being broadcast during September through the remote facilities of WPNF from St. Philip's Episcopal church. Rev. Fred Valentine is pastor.

Selective Service Information

It is a local draft board's responsibility, under law and regulations, to decide, subject to appeal, the class in which each man registered with it shall be placed.

Each man is considered as available for military service until his eligibility for deferment or exemption from military service is clearly established to the satisfaction of the local board.

The board is obligated to receive all pertinent information on classification presented to it, says the chairman of Local Board No. 89.

Mailing by the local board of a classification questionnaire to the latest address furnished by a man is notice to him that he will be classified in I-A, unless information is presented to the local board, within the time specified for return of the questionnaire, which will justify the deferment or exemption.

Unless the local board gives him added time, the man must return the questionnaire filled out within 10 days from date it was mailed. Mr. Bradburn points to this paragraph in the Selective Service regulations which the board must always keep in mind:

"In classifying a registrant there shall be no discrimination for or against him because of his race, creed, or color, or because of his membership or activity in any labor, political, religious, or other organization. Each such registrant shall receive equal justice."
