

Little River Club Meets

By MRS. MARIE BROWN

LITTLE RIVER — The Community club held its regular meeting Thursday, February 16th.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pierson spent this week end with Mr. Pierson's mother, who is in the hospital in Brunswick, Ga.

Little River Homemakers club met Wednesday, February 15th at the home of Mrs. Robert Smith. Mrs. Paul Lollis showed film strips on cancer. Miss Jean Childers gave a demonstration on window cornice boards. Sixteen members and two visitors were present.

Reverend and Mrs. R. D. Gregg are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith and family.

The Y.W.A.'s observed Focus Week last week and were in charge of the midweek prayer service.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCrary and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brown and Wayne spent Sunday with Mrs. McCrary's niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Robinson, near Burnsville.

Mr. Fred Roach passed away Saturday, February 19th at Mission hospital in Asheville. We wish to extend our deepest sympathy to the family.

Tim and Eric Kilstrom, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kilstrom, will enter Brevard hospital for tonsillitomy Thursday.

Mrs. Ruth Nicholson is improving after a stay in Brevard hospital.

Reverend Broadus Wall, who served as interim pastor here, is in Memorial Mission hospital for surgery.

Miss Sherry Smith will enter Memorial Mission hospital on Tuesday for surgery.

Pvt. Gordon At Ft. Dix

Army Private Larry R. Gordon, 20, son of Mrs. Gazella M. Pierson, route 1, Penrose completed a light-vehicle driver course at Ft. Dix, N. J., Feb. 3.

During the course, he was trained in the operation and maintenance of military vehicles up to and including the two and one-half ton truck. Instruction was also given in the operation of the internal combustion engine and chassis assembly.

Pvt. Gordon is the son of Fred B. Gordon, route 3, Idaho Falls, Idaho.

Much Rain At Cathey's Creek

By MRS. KEN RILEY

CATHEY'S CREEK — The past week has been a very wet one in these parts. The sunshine will surely be welcome.

Friends in this section were very saddened to learn of the sudden death of Elzie Barton, a lifelong resident of the Cathey's Creek section. He was laid to rest last Sunday afternoon in the Cathey's Creek Cemetery.

We wish to express our heartfelt sympathy to Mr. Crawford W. Freeman on the passing of his mother, Mrs. Alice Freeman, of Hendersonville, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Parris and Lynn, of Alexandria, Va., spent the week end here visiting relatives. The Parrises were celebrating their 11th wedding anniversary.

Khi Hollingsworth, of Pisgah Forest, visited Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Fowler and family on Sunday. He also visited his uncle, Henry McKinney, of Rosman. Fred McKinney and son, Lewis Alton, accompanied Mr. Hollingsworth to visit Mr. McKinney. He is reported to be improving at this time.

Miss Annie Mae Fowler, James Charles Clayton and patrolman Joseph Maze Waldrop all celebrated birthdays on the 12th and 13th. Much happiness is expressed.

Ray Nicholson and Albert McKinney visited John Merrill in the Little River section on Saturday. They report him to be in his 80's and very spry and able to go anywhere he chooses.

Mrs. Vivian Barton has returned to her home after a brief stay in the local hospital. She is much improved.

Lake Toxaway Community Club Elects New Officers

By DOROTHY H. HALL

LAKE TOXAWAY NEWS—New officers for the Lake Toxaway Community club were elected at the business meeting held January 23rd. Mr. L. C. Case, III was elected President; Ken Wilson, Vice President; Jack Breedlove, Secretary and Treasurer, Ann Fisher, Junior President and Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Rhodes chairmen for the scrapbook.

Mr. Case appointed several committees to help carry out the club's goals for the coming year. The main goal for the coming year is to continue to make our community a better place in which to live.

The winning of first place in Western North Carolina in the Community Development Program speaks for itself of the wonderful job done by J. A. Wilde, former President, and his fellow officers.

The Lake Toxaway Volunteer

Fire Department met January 24th and elected officers. They are as follows: President, Bill McNeely; Vice President, J. A. Kilde; Secretary, Jack Hall; Treasurer, Bill McKinney; board of directors, Herbert Fisher, Allen Penniman, and Walter McNeely; fire chief, Bill McNeely; first assistant, Tommie Owen; second assistant, Elvin Galloway; communication chief, Eric Hansen; police chief, Columbus Burrell. A working was held February 4th, on the building.

The W. M. U.'s of North Toxaway Baptist church met February 6th at the home of Mrs. Louise Case. Mrs. Case and Mrs. Shannon Rhodes presented the very interesting program on evangelism.

On February 11th, the W. M. U.'s visited Rev. Shannon Rhodes, pastor of the North Toxaway Baptist church, and each lady took a dish of food. Rev. Rhodes has just returned from a week in Greneville hospital.

A covered dish supper was held February 7th in the community building with approximately 25 families attending. A business meeting was held afterward.

A regular meeting night of every first of the month was established with a covered dish supper to be held before hand. Boy Scout troop 710, with Glennis McCall and Bud Case as leaders, enjoyed a camping trip on Saturday night, February 11th. 12 boys attended by seven adults were on the outing. The boys with their leaders attended church as a group the next morning.

After their regular meeting February 13th, Mr. McCall and Mr. Case took the boys to see the movie, "Follow Me Boys" in Brevard.

At their meeting February 20th, the boys had the art of knot tying demonstrated to them by Vernon Bishop and Ken Wilson. Eight boys will have board of reviews Thursday night.

The troop was rechartered for the coming year with 15 boys on the new charter.

40 girls and three adult leaders met with Mrs. Dot McIntosh Monday afternoon to organize girl scouts in the Lake Toxaway community. Another meeting will be held February 27th at the community club.

Any girls, age 7 through 18, interested in joining should contact Mrs. Barbara Ann Case. Also any adults interested in being as leader should contact Mrs. Case.

The 11 sons of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hamburg of Gering, Nebraska, amassed a total of 68 years of military service. Of this total, 11 were in combat with seven brothers serving in WWII and three in the Korean conflict. Five of the Hamburg boys were members of the National Guard.
