Gun Club Holds "Shooten" Match

Saturday, twenty-five marks-men under the sponsorship of the Gun Club, met on the college property across the French Broad River, in the first of a series of competitive shoots outs.

The first event, the .22 rifle at 30 yds. was won by Roland Kelley; Junior Carpenter was second. The second event, the .22 pistol at 25 ft., was won by Wayne Kelley; Junior Carpenter was second. The third event, the still-target shotgun at 30 yds., was won by Pete Skarinka, a dark horse to the shotgun event. Pete put 8 pellets in the bulls-eye with this single shot.

The last event, the clay pigeon, was won by Randy Burnett, who hit 9 out of 10. Second place went to Fred Davis and Barry Wheeler with 8 out of 10 each. Because of its great success, the Gun Club is planning another shoot in the near future.

Track Season Opens On 13th

The Brevard College track team open their season here at Brevard on Monday, March 13, when they entertain the Panthers of High Point College. Coach Thad Talley has his Roadrunners well in shape and ready for this non-conference, practice meet with High Point. The field events will get underway at 3 o'clock and running events will start at 3:30. "Please come out and support the Tornadoes this coming Monday and show them that the Brevard College students are behind them all the way!"

West Beam	1 - 4 2 - 9

The Brevard College girls' all-star basketball team defeated the Mars Hill girls here at Boshamer gymnasium on March 3, by a final score of 38-32.

The Brevard girls, coached by Intramural Director, Mr. G. V. Tauscher, jumped off to an early lead and were never in serious trouble throughout the ball game.

The Brevard team was very aggressive and determined in rocking up their third victory in six starts. Mr. Tauscher stat-
