Koscina! On the set of Universal's "M e a n while, Far From the Front," I watch director Jack Smight film a shot where Paul and the blonde Sylvia are trading kisses on a big, four-Sylvia Koscina poster bed. The voluptuous Sylvia is clad in a revealing negligee. Paul, with more clothes on, is as nonchalant as if he were buying a hamburger at a drivein.

This movie is a World War II comedy. Paul is a goof-up American private, but a great escape artist. Five U.S. generals have been captured by the Italians. Paul's superiors have decked him out in the uniform of a one star general and have let him be captured so he can help the other officers escape.

War, in this case, is not particularly hell. The officers are imprisoned in the villa of an cina.

We are constantly receiving notices from the Post Office Department concerning second-class mail which is not deliverable, due to incorrect or insufficient address. Since each of these notices costs The Transylvania Times ten cents, within a short time it amounts to a needless expenditure of a considerable sum of money.
