Last Rites Held Sunday For Cpl. Stiles, Killed In Vietnam

Funeral services for Corporal Verrill D. Stiles, age 19, U. S. Marine corps, who was killed in Da Nang, Vietnam, on March 28th, were held here last Sunday afternoon at the Grace Baptist church.

The Rev. Fred Lehrer, Rev. Bob Hamilton and Rev. G. H. Cox officiated, and burial was in Pisgah Gardens.

Cpl. Stiles was killed in a mine explosion during classroom instruction in Da Nang Vietnam.

Thirteen Marines were killed and numerous others were wounded in the incident.

Cpl. Stiles is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stiles, of Brevard; three sisters, Mrs. Francis Hudson, Mrs. David Honeycutt, both of Brevard, and Miss Vanessa Stiles, of the home; two brothers, Harry Jr. and Ronnie Stiles, both of the home and his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Stiles, of Brevard.

Silo Blaze Is Quickly Extinguished

The Brevard Volunteer fire department was called out about 8:00 o'clock Tuesday morning to answer an alarm at the Glen Cannon Country club.

The tar-paper roof of the silo was ablaze, but it was quickly extinguished before spreading to the adjacent barn and other buildings.

Damages were kept at a minimum.

Fire Chief Dan Merrill urges all citizens to refrain from doing any outside burning since the woodlands are extremely dry.

All burning permits have been cancelled until after a good rain.

Commerce Directors In Meeting

Directors of the Brevard Chamber of Commerce heard several brief reports at their regular monthly meeting Tuesday night in the library.

Dr. Wilburn Davis, chairman of the chamber's beautification committee, reported that plans for placing flower pots in the downtown Brevard area were progressing. He also indicated that the entire beautification program for Brevard seemed to be moving ahead as scheduled.

It was reported that a drive to bring in the remaining chamber members other than the "early-bird" members is being planned. This drive should get underway in the near future.

Vernon Fricks reported that the directors of the Western North Carolina Associated Communities will be meeting here in Brevard next Tuesday, April 18th. The board will meet at 11 a.m. in the meeting room of First Citizens Bank & Trust Co.

A dutch buffet luncheon will be served at Gaither's restaurant for the group at 12:30 p.m. The directors of the chamber were extended cordial invitations to attend either of the two functions.

This will be the first meeting here of the WNCAC in the past four years, and it is hoped that a good turnout will be on hand to welcome the group to Brevard.

President John Clark presided over Tuesday night's brief session.

US Forest Service, Campgrounds Open

Most National Forest campgrounds in North Carolina are now open. Camping areas are being opened earlier this year because of warm weather.

Campgrounds on the Pisgah Ranger district that are open are: White Pines, Sunburst, North Mills River and Lake Powhatan.

In addition, the Stony Fork, Sycamore Flats, Sliding Rock and Pink Beds picnic areas are also open.

Water systems and flush toilets in these areas will be operational by April 14th.

The Coontree Campground will be closed until the new flush type toilet being constructed there by the Schenck Job Corps Conservation Center is completed. The anticipated opening date for Coontree Campground is May 15th.

Davidson River Picnic area and the Cradle of Forestry in America Visitor Information Center will open on May 1st.

Other campgrounds in the National Forests in North Carolina that are open are:

Transylvania Farmers Get $40,607 In ACP Assistance

Transylvania county farmers received a total of $40,607.00 gross assistance through the Agricultural Conservation Program in 1966.

This figure and others are contained in the annual statistical ASCS report made public this week by the Transylvania County ASCS Office in Brevard.

In addition to the gross assistance given county farmers, the report pointed out that 770 farmers participated in the program.

One of the big items included in the ACP allocation for the year was $2,304.00 for the seeding of 134 acres of permanent pasture or hay. A total of 76 county farmers carried out this practice.

The liming of farmland was another conservation practice on which a large part of the allocation was used. 129 farmers limed a total of 846 acres of farmland at a cost of $6,946.00.

A total of $20,439.00 was used on improving permanent vegetative cover for soil and watershed protection. A total of 612 farmers improved 2,345 acres of pasture and hay with this practice during 1966.

There were 11 conservation practices included in the County ACP Program for 1966. Some of these in addition to the above named, included planting forest trees, drainage of pasture and low lands, and the establishment of winter cover crops.

Several other programs in addition to the Agricultural Conservation Program were in effect. Burley Tobacco and wheat were two under the Acreage Allotment and Marketing Quota Program. This past year 73 allotments were established for the growing of Bur-
