Legion Auxiliary Has District Meeting Here

The 19th District of the American Legion Auxiliary held its annual meeting April 25th in Gaitner's Rhododendron room.

Mrs. Charles F. Gold, Sr., District President, of Rutherfordton, presided over the meeting. The Brevard Unit No. 88, hostess for the occasion, received delegates from all the units in the 19th District.

Mrs. A. E. Norville, of the Brevard unit, opened the meeting with the invocation. Greetings to the group were extended by Mayor Raymond F. Bennett after which a patriotic musical program was given by Mrs. James Sanders.

Mrs. Edwin L. Kay, Department President, delivered the major address.

The District meeting goes to Forest City next spring with Mrs. Ethel B. Owen as the new District President and Mrs. Margaret Head, alternate, both of Brevard.

Following deliberate discussion, the body voted to send the following telegram to Congressman Roy Taylor: "American Legion Auxiliary Units District representing Brevard, Forest City, Hendersonville, Rutherfordton, Spindale in meeting today commend your stand on flag burning and urge your continued efforts in maintaining nursing care unit at Oteen."

A buffet luncheon was served at the close of the meeting.

AAUW Has Workshop, Hickory

The Hickory branch of the AAUW for the Western North Carolina AAUW branches at Lenoir-Rhyne College last Saturday, April 29th during a workshop concerning ways to develop the program areas for the coming year.

The topic for consideration are: The Politics of Public Education; Testing Values in a Changing Society; Society's Reflection in the Arts; and The Growing Gap Between Rich Nations and Poor Nations.

Dr. Leslie Syron led a panel discussion dealing with the development of the programs that AAUW has been concerned with through the past years. Dr. Helen Reed, Director of a laboratory school at the University of Eastern Kentucky, spoke on the growing gaps between the affluent nations and the poverty nations and suggested ways the AAUW could help in trying to solve this problem.

Members of the Brevard branch who attended the workshop were: Dr. Roberta Riegel, Mrs. Eugene Baker, Mrs. E. K. McLarty, and Mrs. Walter Holland.
