Miss Warren is a 1967 graduate of Rosman high school and Mr. Galloway is now serving in the United States Air Force in Texas. Wedding plans are incomplete.

MRS. WILLIAM R. CHAPMAN

Miss Greene Is Bride Of William Chapman

Miss Freida Lea Greene and William Rondal Chapman were married June 17th at 4:00 p.m. at the East Fork Baptist church with the Reverend Jack Plemmons officiating. Music was provided by Steve Owen, pianist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of peau de soie featuring a round neckline, long tapered sleeves and a chapel train. Her veil of illusion was attached to a headpiece of organza flowers. She carried a white Bible and a white orchid.

Mrs. Joe McCall, of Rosman, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a sleeveless blue satin brocade dress with matching shoes and headpiece and carried a bouquet of pom poms.

Mrs. Lawrence Chapman, of Lake Toxaway, and Mrs. Clinton Holland, Jr., of Pisgah Forest, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore blue satin brocade dresses similar to that of the honor attendant with matching shoes and headpieces. They carried bouquets of pom poms.

Flower girls were Misses Rhonda Chapman and Glenda Holland, nieces of the bride.

They wore white lace dresses accented with blue ribbons and blue headpieces.

William E. Chapman was his son's best man. Ushers were Bill McKelvey, of Brevard, Oren Matthews, of Rosman, and Joe McCall, of Rosman. The guest register was kept by Cindy Gillespie, of Rosman.

The bride's mother chose an off-white dress, with navy blue accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother chose a turquoise suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception for the immediate families of the bride and groom was held at the home of the bride. A rehearsal party was given for the wedding party following the rehearsal on Friday evening, June 16th.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Greene, of Rosman, the bride is a graduate of Rosman high school and is employed by First Union National Bank of Brevard.

Mr. Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Chapman, of Lake Toxaway, is a graduate of Brevard college and will attend Western Carolina College this fall.

The couple will reside at Lake Toxaway.

Changes Noted In Auxiliary's New Officers

MRS. RICHARD M. TUTTLE

Miss Brown Marries Mr. Tuttle, June 24th

The First Baptist church in Bartow, Florida, was the setting for the marriage of Miss Cheryl Ann Brown, of Bartow, Florida and Richard Michael Tuttle, of Brevard, on June 24th.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Charles Brown, of Bartow, and the parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Tuttle, of Waynesville.

Dr. J. Harvey Saunders officiated. A musical program was presented by Don L. Taylor, vocalist, and Mrs. Walter O. Gibson, Jr., organist.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. Her formal wedding gown of silk organza over taffeta was fashioned with a scoop neck edged in scalloped Venice lace. The empire waistline was defined with Venice lace flowers. A detachable court train was fastened at the shoulders and the bouffant veil of English illusion was held by a cluster of organza roses. She carried a cascade of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

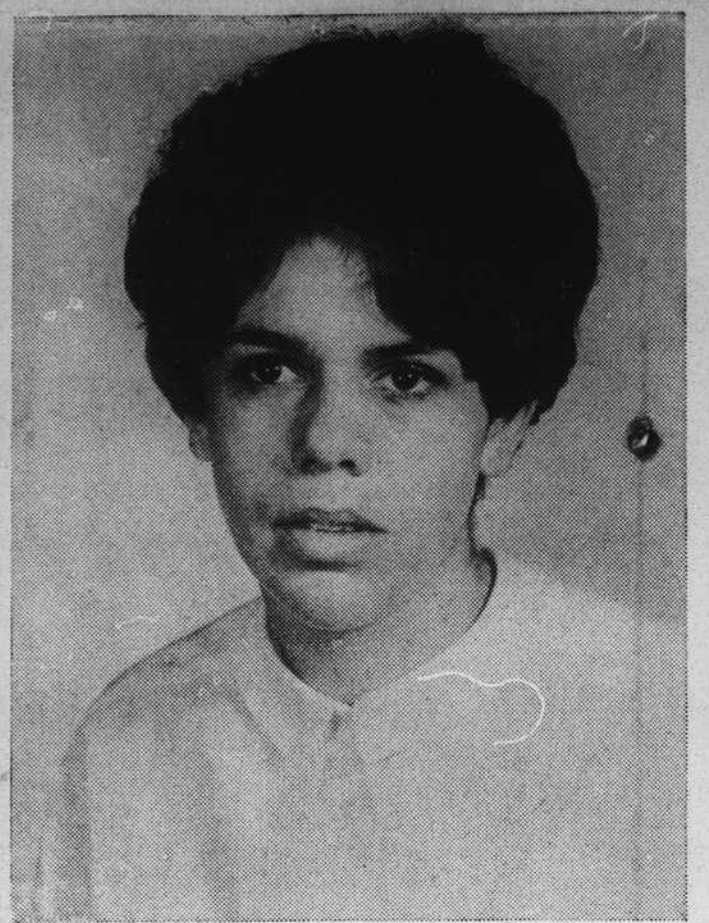

Miss Beverly Bradham was maid of honor, with Mrs. Robert G. Fitzgerald, of Melbourne, Florida, as matron of honor and Amy Riley, of East Point, Georgia, niece of the bridegroom as junior bridesmaid.

The attendants wore floor-length pink dresses with empire waistlines accented with pink daisies. Matching butterfly veils were arranged beneath clusters of roses and petals. They carried kissing balls of white chrysanthemums and pink frills.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. Ushers were David Schoonover, of Macon, Georgia; Robert G. Fitzgerald, Stephen Brown, brother of the bride; and David Riley, of East Point, Georgia, nephew of the bridegroom.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the Browns' home.

The couple will live at 230 Grove street in Brevard where Mr. Tuttle is employed with Olin Mathieson.

TO WED—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ray Simpson, of Franklin, announce the engagement of their daughter, Vamie Felicia, to Mark Stephen Case, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Case, of Brevard. An early August wedding is planned.
