Steel and cement span work on the bridge has been completed and the hand rails are now being poured. Gravel is expected to be put on the roadway next week, and paving is slated immediately afterwards. Due to weather conditions, it is impossible to say at this time when traffic will be permitted over the new highway, but the project is said to be ahead of schedule.

Record High Budgets Approved For Transylvania And The Town

Mrs. Osborne Is New Mayor Of Rosman

Mrs. Edith C. Osborne has been sworn in as Mayor of Rosman.

She succeeds the late Allen M. Sisk who died several weeks ago.

Mrs. Osborne was appointed to fill out Mayor Sisk's unexpired term by the Rosman town board of Aldermen. She was sworn in last week.

Late Mayor Sisk and the aldermen, A. P. Bell, Jr., Donald Lee Butler and Carlos Pangle, were sworn into office in mid-June. Mr. Sisk died recently.

Mrs. Osborne is the widow of the late Dr. Joe E. Osborne.

Tax Rates Will Remain Same, Breakdown Cited

Record high budgets have been approved for the Town of Brevard and for Transylvania county.

These budgets are now open for public inspection.

A record high budget of $1,321,312.00 for the fiscal year of 1967-68 has been approved by the Transylvania county commissioners. The tax rate of 95 cents remains the same.

This is a gross increase of $194,063 over last year's budget, with the school receiving the largest gain of $138,226.00.

The other major divisions receiving increases are the general fund, an increase of $23,350; old-age assistance, an increase of $9,810; aid to dependent children, an increase of $6,090; aid to the permanently and totally disabled, an increase of $2,819; and in administration, an increase of $4,248.

A pie chart showing how the taxpayers' dollar is spent in Transylvania county can be found on the front page of the fourth section.

The Brevard Board of Aldermen has approved a record high budget of $364,478.00 for the fiscal year, 1967-68.

The budget is now open for public inspection at the Town hall.

The new budget has increased from $352,500 last year to the present figure of $364,478.

The tax rate of $1.20 will remain the same. A breakdown of the new budget shows the following expenditures:

Rodgers' "Some Enchanted Evening" and the suite from "The King and I," and the Overture from "West Side Story" by Leonard Bernstein.

Edward Vito, harpist, with guest conductor Donald Johanos conducting the Brevard Music Center Orchestra, will be featured on Sunday afternoon's matinee concert in a performance of the beautiful but rarely heard Concerto for Harp and Orchestra, Op. 74 by the Russian composer Reinhold Gliere. Maestro Johanos will conduct the orchestra in performance of Mozart's Symphony No. 35 in D Major, better known as the "Haffner" Symphony, and the Symphony No. 1 in C Minor, Op. 68 by Johannes Brahms.

Vito, long a favorite with Brevard audiences and students, was featured for 20 years as solo harpist with Arturo Toscanini and the NBC Symphony Orchestra. Vito's career has encompassed recitals, guest appearances with the world's leading orchestras, composing, arranging, and conducting, both in concert and on recording. A graduate of the Cincinnati College of Music, he has won many honors, including the 1958 "Musician of the Year" award from the University of the Philippines.

Johanos, a native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is widely-known for his outstanding work as conductor of the Dallas Symphony Orchestra. He is one of only three conductors, American born and trained, who —Turn to Page Three

Capacity Crowds Expected Again At Music Center This Weekend

Large, enthusiastic audiences are expected to continue this weekend as the Brevard Music Center goes into its fourth week-end of the 1967 Brevard Music Festival.

A varied offering of composers ranging from Mozart and Brahms to George Gershwin and Richard Rodgers will be heard, with featured performers including pianist Ernestine Smith, harpist Edward Vito and guest conductor Donald Johanos.

An all-Mozart concert will be the curtain-raiser for the week-end series of three programs. Ernestine Smith will be the featured soloist in a performance of the lovely Piano Concerto in G Major, K. 453, accompanied by Maestro Henry Janiec conducting the Honors Orchestra.

Also on the program will be the Divertimento No. 2, K. 131 and one of Mozart's most charming and best-known works, the Serenade, K. 525, better known as "Eine Kleine Nachtmusik," both performed by the orchestra.

Mrs. Smith, pianist-in-residence at the Center, teaches privately in Greenville, South Carolina. A native of Canada, she studied piano with her mother until age 12 when the family moved to the United States.

She received advanced training at Furman University with Mona Keeney, at Colorado College with Max Lanner, at the Mattay School in England with Denise Lassimonne, and in Greenville with Richard Case. A widely-known workshop clinician, Mrs. Smith has appeared in recital, with the Greenville Symphony Orchestra and the Brevard Sinfonietta.

A real change of pace is in the offering for Saturday evening's audience with a Pops Concert entitled "The Music of Broadway." The Brevard Music Center Orchestra with featured soloists from the Center's faculty, staff and students all under the direction of Henry Janiec, will present a variety of selections which have become American popular classics.

Some of the numbers to be heard include Leroy Anderson's "Belle of the Ball," Rudolf's Waltz from the "Vagabond King," Victor Herbert's "Sweethearts," Sigmund Romberg's "Stout-hearted Men," Noel Coward's "Zigeuner," Irving Berlin's "The Girl That I Marry," a Symphonic Synthesis from George Gershwin's great American folk opera "Porgy and Bess," Richard

About Direct Dialing

Rosman And Lake Toxaway Phone Subscribers Advised

The Citizens Telephone Company is preparing their equipment for direct distance dialing which is coming to Transylvania county in September; therefore, it is necessary to make certain changes in the switching equipment.

One of the steps is to change the codes for calling numbers on the party-line. This change will be made on Saturday night, July 29th at midnight in two areas.

Rosman party-line subscribers now dial one, one plus two other digits. After the change, it will be necessary to dial 240 plus the same last two digits on the party-line dialing instruction card.

Lake Toxaway party-line subscribers now dial one, one plus two other digits. After the change, it will be necessary to dial 300 plus the same last two digits on their party-line dialing instruction card.

Summer Dance Set Saturday, Legion Building

A big mid-summer dance will be held this Saturday night, July 29th, at the American Legion building.

Music for the occasion will be furnished by popular Dick Davis and his combo. Dancing will start at 9 p.m. and will continue until 1 a.m.

Admission will be $4.00 per couple, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Address Of Candidate For Lieutenant Governor Aired

H. Pat Taylor, former speaker of the House and candidate for Lieutenant Governor, made two appearances in Transylvania county this week.

Tuesday night he was the principal speaker at the 11th Congressional district Young Democrats Rally in Brevard senior high school, and at noon on Wednesday, he addressed the crowd attending the annual Whitewater picnic at the Sapphire Community center.

Mr. Taylor spoke on the need for the Democratic party to push ahead with a positive program and to close

Program Highlights

WPNF Recognized For Its Well-Rounded Block Programs

WPNF listeners are provided a variety of musical fare each day, and those who especially enjoy "country music" hear their favorites weekdays at 6:30 a.m. and 1:05 p.m.

Gospel music fans can hear their favorite quartets and other gospel artists on "Carolina Hymn Time" at 6:05 a.m., and "Quartet Caravan" Monday through Friday at 1:05 p.m.

Both these types of music are well liked by millions of listeners all across the country, and local listeners are given a good sampling of both each day by WPNF's chief engineer Leon Southerland, as he conducts these programs on the local station.

As the "Conquer the Clues" contest goes into its fifth week on WPNF, listeners and contestants are urged to get their entries in early during the final two weeks.

The contest will conclude on August 5th, with awarding of prizes to the winning contestants on that date.

The schedule of the Farm and Home Hour for the coming week is as follows: Thursday, Farmers Home Administration, Truman Westmoreland; Friday, North Carolina Forest Service, Clark Grissom; Monday, County Agricultural Extension Agent, Jim Davis; Tuesday, Station Program; Wednesday, Home Economics Extension Agent, Jean Childers.

Speaking this week on Morning Devotions is Rev. G. H. Dellinger, pastor of the Turkey Creek Baptist church. Next week Rev. Joe Medford, pastor of the Boyleston Baptist church, will be heard.

The Sunday morning church service is being broadcast through the remote facilities of WPNF from Brevard Methodist church, Rev. Brunson Wallace, pastor.

Rescuers Of Girl Scouts Are Thanked

Five girls and two staff members from Camp Pisgah are grateful to the Brevard Rescue Squad, three anonymous men, and a woman who helped them in a recent emergency.

On Thursday, July 13th, a group of girls started down the French Broad river when they accidentally tipped over.

Five of the group were able to climb to safety and seek help. These three men stopped at the girls' frantic wave and helped pull the others to safety.

It was the woman who alerted the camp administration about the accident.

The Rescue Squad saw that the girls were kept comfortable and the canoes were pulled to safety.

These girls express their sincere appreciation to these men in their time of need.

New Juke Box In Go-Go Room At Teen Center

The Transylvania Youth association announces that the colorful Go-Go room at the Teen Center is now equipped with a juke box.

It will be installed and ready for use this Friday night, and dancing will continue each Friday and Saturday nights.
