WHEREAS, we believe that it would be wise to appoint a lawyer to serve as Clerk of the Superior Court during such transition period;

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the members of the Transylvania County Bar Association, do hereby respectfully recommend to His Honor Jonathan W. Jackson, Resident Judge of the 29th Judicial District, that he appoint a lawyer to fill the unexpired term of Robert H. Caldwell, deceased. Be it further resolved that we do hereby endorse James Onie Wells for appointment as Clerk of Superior Court for Transylvania County and recommend to His Honor Jonathan W. Jackson, Resident Judge of the 29th Judicial District, that he consider Mr. Wells for such appointment should he decide to appoint a lawyer to this position.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Robert H. Caldwell, Clerk of the Superior Court of Transylvania County, died on the 19th day of September, 1967, creating a vacancy in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court for said County otherwise than by expiration of the term; and

WHEREAS, under the provisions of Section 2-6 of the General Statutes of North Carolina it is the duty of the Judge of the Superior Court for said County to appoint a successor until an election can be regularly held; and

WHEREAS, the undersigned is the duly elected, qualified and acting Resident Judge of the Twenty-ninth Judicial District of the Superior Court in which district Transylvania County is located;

NOW, THEREFORE, I hereby appoint J. O. Wells of Brevard, Transylvania County, North Carolina, to fill the vacancy in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court of Transylvania County created by the death of Robert H. Caldwell, pursuant to the provisions of G. S. 2-6, to serve until an election can be regularly held.

This the 21st day of September, 1967.

J. W. JACKSON
Resident Judge of the Twenty-ninth Judicial District of the Superior Court.

STATEMENT FROM JUDGE JACKSON

Statement of Judge Jackson concerning the appointment of Mr. Wells as Clerk of Court here:

"I have learned with deep regret and sorrow of the unexpected and untimely death of the Honorable Robert H. Caldwell, Clerk of the Superior Court of Transylvania County. His death will be a real loss to the county. During my contacts with him in the short time since he became Clerk I had come to have great respect for him. He was capable and efficient and was rapidly learning the many duties and responsibilities of the Clerk's office. He gave every promise of making one of our best clerks.

"Mr. Caldwell's death has created a real emergency in Transylvania County. In December of 1968, the District Court System will be established throughout the Twenty-ninth Judicial District. This will create an entirely new system of courts, abolishing all Justice of the Peace, Mayor and County Courts. At best it will create some confusion and delays. With an inexperienced clerk the situation would be much more critical.

"The Transylvania County Bar Association has been wise, in my opinion, to recommend the appointment of a lawyer to fill the vacancy created by Mr. Caldwell's death. The county has been most fortunate to find a lawyer willing to leave his practice and serve the County as Clerk during this difficult and trying period. Mr. J. O. Wells, whom I have appointed Clerk of the Superior Court to succeed Mr. Caldwell upon the recommendation of the Transylvania County Bar Association, is a graduate of Wake Forest Law School and has practiced in Transylvania County for a number of years. He knows the duties of the office of the Clerk and has had experience in its operation as a practicing lawyer in the county. His knowledge of law and his experience should be of great service to Transylvania County in this distressing and trying time. I am grateful to him for being willing to leave his practice and serve as Clerk of the Superior Court."

HON. J. W. JACKSON
Resident Judge of the 29th Judicial District of the North Carolina Supreme Court

Goal Is $42,964, 13 Local Agencies Are Benefactors

The theme of this year's campaign will be "One Hundred Per Cent Fair Share Giving." Dr. Massey explained that a "fair share" is equal to one hour's pay per month for twelve months for hourly employees, or 1% of the gross income of salaried personnel. "We realize that this is a high goal," he declared, "but feel that it is one worth aiming for."

He urged campaign workers to show the people of Transylvania County the advantages and benefits which United Fund drives have meant in the past to the people of Transylvania County. "We must convince them of the need for the United Fund drive, and that our campaign fills that need," he stated.

In closing, Dr. Massey declared that "The people of Transylvania county have money for what they want to buy, whether or not they need it. It is the United Fund's challenge to sell the people of Transylvania County what the need — 100% participation in the 1968 Transylvania County United Fund Campaign."

"The Little Foxes" Tryouts For Brevard Little Theatre's Play Set Monday

Tryouts for Brevard Little Theatre's first production of the 1967 - 68 season, "The Little Foxes," to be directed by Pat Fuleihan are to be held at the Brevard Community Center on Monday, October 2nd, at 7:30 p. m.

"The Little Foxes", by Lillian Hellman, is a story of two greedy brothers and a greedy sister who coldly devour the earth, scheming, twisting, driving their way to material success. Her portrait of voracity is a bitter one.

The characters consist of four women and six men.

They are:

Addie: Negro woman, age 50-55

Birdie Hubbard: Woman of about 40, pretty, well bred, faded face

Regina Giddens: handsome woman about 40

Alexander Giddens: pretty delicate girl of 17

Cal: Negro man - middle age

Oscar Hubbard: Man in late forties

Benjamin Hubbard: Large man with large jovial face-age 55

Leo Hubbard: Early twenties, weak kind of good looks

Horace Giddens: Tall man of 45, has been good looking, but face is now tired and ill.

William Marshall: Educated cultured gentleman in his mid forties.

The setting for the play is at the Giddens home in a small town in the South in the spring of 1900.

The play is being supplied to the Brevard Little Theatre by Dramatists, Inc., of New York. "The Little Foxes" was first produced in 1939 but is being revived on Broadway this year.

The fourfold University of North Carolina has a physical plant valued in excess of $224,000,000 and an annual operating budget of approximately $90,000,000, of which 48 per cent comes from State funds.
