

Miss Monteith And Mr. Moody Married

Miss Linda Lee Monteith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Monteith of Pisgah Forest, and Pfc. Charles Ray Moody, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alton Moody of Brevard, were married on December 21st in an evening ceremony at Temple Baptist church.

The Reverend James Moody, brother of the groom, and the Reverend Wayne Sorrells were officiating ministers. Music was provided by Mrs. Marcus Laws, organist and Mrs. Joe Smith, soloist.

The bride was escorted by her father and wore a street length gown of satin with scooped neckline and bouffant skirt with a jacket of alencon lace with a bateau neckline and scalloped sleeves and hem. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was attached to a rose bud tiara with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid.

Mrs. John T. Monteith of Sylva, sister-in-law of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a sreet length gold brocade gown with scooped neckline and A-line skirt with a gold velvet hair bow. She carried long stemmed yellow carnations.

Mr. Moody was his son's best man and ushers were Gary Monteith, brother of the bride and Paul Adkins, brother-in-law of the groom.

Both are graduates of Brevard high school and the bride attended South Eastern Beauty college in Charlotte.

The groom is stationed at Fort Bevens, Mass. and the couple plan to live in Ager, Mass.

Hill And Dale Club Has Christmas Party

The annual Christmas party of the Hill and Dale Homemakers club was held last Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Edna Rackley. Some 12 members attended.

The group gathered at the noon hour when a covered dish luncheon, featuring turkey and all the trimmings, was enjoyed.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Dixon Lyday and Mrs. Buford Watson.

Mrs. C. F. Allison read the legend of the Christmas candle, followed by a Christmas prayer as the devotion and table grace.

After the delicious meal the group gathered around the Christmas tree where games were played under the direction of Mrs. James Cabe. This was followed by an exchange of gifts and the revealing of "Pollyannas."

Miss Jean Childers, Home Economics Extension agent, was presented a gift certificate with best wishes for the holidays.

The retiring president, Mrs. Howard Schmidt, presided and expressed appreciation for the cooperation extended to her during her two years as president. Mrs. Watson, the incoming president, requested the members to consider a project for the new year. She consulted with members on naming new project leaders and committee chairmen.

Following the drawing of new "Pollyannas" the meeting adjourned to meet in January with Mrs. Watson.

Three facts to remember about stroke: (1) Strokes are not hopeless — even severely paralyzed patients may make remarkable progress; (2) The sooner the better — simple measures taken promptly help greatly in restoring the use of paralyzed muscles. Help with speech problems should begin early; (3) Better later than never — if the patient has the desire to be independent, even a late start on rehabilitation exercises may help him, say the North Carolina Heart Association.
