Girl Scouting IN Transylvania

By
Mrs. Fred Reiter
Public Relations Representative

In three weekend periods during the month of May, over 1,000 Junior Scouts from Pisgah Council participated in the Junior Scamper. Attending from Transylvania county were troops 4, 82, 21 and 74.

To participate in special day-time activities. This bridging experience to see "camp life in action" and share in the activities was most informative as well as fun. Visiting troops from Transylvania county on Saturdays were 83, 80, 209, 178 and 286. Some 84 girls plus their leaders, assistant leaders and troop committee members participated.

contributions to the troop and the individual girl.

To A Girl Scout Leader

For this
No golden riches,
No outward show of earthly gain,
No bells ringing
No horns blowing,
No monument,
By your words to each small girl spoken,
You reach out
To touch the future of the world.
By helping her
To know and understand herself
And others,
Loving God and fellowman,
You build toward peace
Yet,
What more reward
Than knowing that she loves you.
H.W.E.

On the final weekend, Troop 74 from Transylvania county won first place in the all-camp inspection.

As another year of scouting closes special thoughts turn to Leader Appreciation. With such events as Brownie fly-ups and Court of Awards, girls seem to evaluate their leaders' contributions to the troop and the individual girl.
