

FROM THE EDITOR'S CORNER

By EDITOR JOHN ANDERSON

They say "champions are champions because they can make a comeback." And O. K. Smathers seems to be able to do this time and time again. You have no doubt read about his recent winnings in the field of archery on the front page of this week's Times, and we congratulate him!

down Franklin avenue just to see them. Then came back up Park avenue. The Dr. Davises' roses are exceptional pretty this year. And be sure to note the ones at the Robert Duckworth residence and at Mr. and Mrs. Mack Allison's. The latest findings of a motoring survey research project point out that if all the cars in Los Angeles, New York and Chicago were placed end to end, some joker would pull out and try to pass.

still—we don't want any tourist telling us what to do! And we also like... A matron approached a salesgirl and inquired as to the whereabouts of the perfume counter. "Just walk this way," said the girl, taking the lead. "Hmmm," said the customer, "if I could walk that way, I wouldn't be here buying perfume!"

Brevard Personals

In The Mailbag Dear Mr. Anderson,

We've been enjoying wild strawberries recently... both picking and eating them. I'm certain that all the other "wild strawberry pickers" (and there were quite a few) join me in extending a hearty "thank you" to the owner of the strawberry patch located on Gallimore (high school) road. Someday, progress will dictate that some building project will replace the wild berries in this location. In the meantime, however, many of us are most grateful for the berries, and this is the best method I know of to say thanks to the unknown owner.

Berrypickingly Yours, Freddie Norris (For all of us)

Borrowed...

The speed and power of modern cars help bring things closer together—like this world and the next.

History is being made faster today than we can afford it.

When the bids dance nowadays, they don't talk, they don't touch one another, they don't even look at one another. It's like being married for 30 years.

It would be interesting to hear today's teen-agers tell their children what they had to do without.

Joke of the week...

An issue was before the town council in a Maine hamlet. Almost everyone seemed in favor except one middle aged man who kept raising objections. Finally the council chairman asked the protestor if he were a resident and voter. The man replied that he was both and had been for 12 years. "Twelve years?" roared the chairman. "Sit down and keep your mouth shut!"

Patricia R. Owen, class of 1968, was on the Dean's list of Beloit College in Beloit, Wisconsin during the recently completed winter term. She is the daughter of Mrs. Doris Thompson of Brevard.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mack Allison the past several weeks is Mrs. Allison's mother, Mrs. Jules Vrancken of Detroit, Michigan. Their son, John Harper, and his guest, Don Mowat of Baltimore, Md., also joined them here for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Thomas Corn of Atlanta, Ga., visited their parents this weekend, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Corn and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Brittain.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Elam of Nashville, Tennessee visited her sisters, Miss Jessie Shipman and Mrs. Allen Brittain over the weekend and attended the Shipman reunion at Etowah.

Joel Stevenson, a former resident of Brevard, returned here this weekend from Carrboro, where he presently resides and attends the University of North Carolina Law School. A graduate of Brevard College and Western Carolina University, Joel is married to the former Susan Maxwell of Elkin, and is a past commercial manager of WPNF.

Miss Mary Ina Anderson and three friends from Central Piedmont College, Linda Rich, Sharon Thompson and Daryl Gurly, visited with Mr. and Mrs. John I. Anderson over the weekend.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Capps this week is Mrs. Capps' grandmother and mother, Mrs. Claude Gary, Sr. and Mrs. Claude Gary, Jr., both of Atlanta.

Mrs. Dot Hunter had as guests the past weekend, Mrs. Edward Newman of Waynesville and Mrs. William Kirk of New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Patterson and Mrs. Albert Williams have just returned from a buying trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cook of Tampa, Fla., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duckworth. Mrs. Cook is Mrs. Duckworth's sister.

Huggins Announces

Junior High Awards Are Made To Many Students

Receiving the Outstanding Eighth Grader Award at the Awards Day last Wednesday was Joseph Fowler Brotherton. This award is presented each year on behalf of the Student Council to the eighth grader judged by the teachers to be most outstanding in citizenship, leadership and scholarship. Making the presentation was Principal John Huggins.

Making the DAR Good Citizenship Award was Mrs. Lila Hill, music teacher at the Junior High and members of the DAR. Receiving the awards were Robert Merrill and Ruth Jones. These awards are presented each year to the outstanding boy and girl citizens from the seventh grade.

Neill Fullenhan presented the Charles Pater Davis Award. This award is presented on behalf of the American Education Publications for outstanding achievement in the study of current events.

After the teachers made classroom award presentations, the following eighth grade students received medals: art, Valerie Stribling; physical education, Darius Holtzclaw and Caroline Nix; mathematics, Jerry Ammons; science, Steve Morgan; language arts, Kay Enloe; and social studies, Jeff Irwin.

Seventh graders receiving medals were Bobby Woods, for overall academic work; art, Pam Parker; language arts, Cynthia Buck; physical education, Cathy Daniels and James Grayley; mathematics, Sidney Kitchen; social studies, Mike Morris; and science, George Perkins.

Coach William Lowe then made the presentations for the intramural program for the year. Olin Redmon received the chess award and Harry Hill the checkers award. Most valuable player awards in basketball went to seventh grader Chris Sneeden and eighth grader Darius Holtzclaw.

Basketball trophies went to champions from Mrs. Wagoner's seventh grade homeroom and Mr. Swann's eighth graders. Presented runner-up trophies were Miss Clayton's seventh graders and Mrs. Austin's eighth graders.

Following the awards, recognition was given to the following groups: the school store, the library assistants, student council, school newspaper, and school annual. The students then gave the teachers a big round of applause.

Rites Held For Mrs. Lee, 89

Mrs. Lella Miller Thomas Lee, age 89, died at her home in Spartanburg, S. C. last Friday after a long illness.

The daughter of the late Gideon and Mary Ann Henderson Miller, she was twice married. Her first husband was the late Julius L. Thomas, with whom she lived at Lake Toxaway until his death in 1913. She later married Charles J. Lee of Spartanburg, who passed away in 1946.

She was the mother of nine children, six of whom survive her. They are Mrs. H. D. Lee, Mrs. Lewis Tinsley and Leonard H. Thomas of Lake Toxaway; Lester J. Thomas and Ray Lee of Spartanburg, S. C., and Charles W. Lee of Portland, Oregon. She is also survived by five sisters, Mrs. Emma Fisher of High Point, Mrs. Nancy Fisher of Lake Toxaway, Mrs. Beale Fisher and Mrs. Lesa Lovin, both of Brevard, and Mrs. Ida Whitmore of Penrose; one brother, Tolvin Miller of Walhalla, S. C.; 18 grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren and 12 great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted last Sunday afternoon in Gethsemane Methodist church with the Reverend Buster Seruggs of Spartanburg and the Reverend Shamon Rhodes of Lake Toxaway officiating. Burial was in Philadelphia Baptist church cemetery near Spartanburg. Grandsons were pallbearers and granddaughters were flower girls.

Joel Walker Carroll

Mother Of Two Is Identified She Is A Woman--Not A Man

Joel Walker Carroll is a female.

She has been a female all of her life.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Spencer Walker of Woodland Terrace, Brevard, knew it from the time she was born.

Her husband, Riley Carroll, has known it ever since they first met.

Her children, 13-year-old John and 11-year-old Sara Kaye, have known it since their nursery days.

But because her name Joel is usually associated with males, Mrs. Carroll often is listed as a man.

She reacts to the error by others with good mountain wit.

"When I first came to N. C. State," she recalls, "I was assigned to a men's wrestling class."

Recently, the very feminine lady was mentioned in a newspaper article, released by the University, as "the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Spencer Walker."

After 32 years of such mistakes, Mrs. Carroll laughed it off.

Her husband, the director of vocational education for Wake county schools, muttered about the mistakes but let it pass.

The University wanted to release another story about "Mr. Joel Carroll" and checked to see what "his wife's" maiden name and children's names were.

Mrs. Carroll's lighthearted settled the question as to her gender—at least for once, if not forever.

"My parents wanted a boy," she said.

Mrs. Carroll has earned

DONALD KENNETH HAENHEL, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Haehnel, of Park avenue, Brevard, has received a $2,000 Graduate Assistantship at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro for the 1968-69 academic year. Recently, Mr. Haehnel received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology at Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem.

MRS. JOEL WALKER CARROLL, of Raleigh and Brevard, is pictured with her husband and their two children. She is the subject of the accompanying feature story, which we think you'll find interesting reading.
