Miss Burhans And Mr. Barnhardt Speak Vows

Miss Anita Dorothy Burhans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Burhans of Brevard, and Earl Stevenson Barnhardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Earl Barnhardt of Rockingham, were united in holy wedlock on Saturday, August 17th at 4:00 p.m. in St. Philip's Episcopal church, Brevard.

The Reverend Edsel L. Keith, rector, officiated in the double-ring ceremony. Music was furnished by Lloyd Burhans, soloist, and Douglas Wauchope, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of candlelight French net over peau de soie with Watteau neckline. The bodice was appliqued with Alencon lace and scattered with bouquets of lace to the hemline. The net coat with train was circled with a deep border of Alencon lace and the long pointed sleeves were accented with re-embroidered lace and tiny self-covered buttons. Her shoulder length veil was of ivory illusion with lace applique trim. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and white rosebuds.

Miss Becky Burhans of Greensboro College was her sister's maid of honor. Mrs. Brenda Costanza was the matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Debra and Diane Amme, twin cousins of the bride, of Camp Springs, Maryland. They wore identical floor length empire gowns of organza in pastel shades with satin ribbon accents. The headbands were of daisies and small attached veils. All attendants carried nosegays of white and painted daisies to match their attire.

Misses Christine Whitaker, Beverly Howard, Betty Caraway of Charlotte and Miss Kay Reinhardt of Hickory were honorary bridesmaids. They wore street length dress in pastel colors and carried bouquets of tube-roses.

Mr. Michael Reinhardt of Asheville was his brother's best man. Mr. Jeffrey Barnhardt, brother of the groom of Wingate College, Evan Flynn of Etowah, Ronald Costanza and Daniel Bost of Brevard were ushers.

The mother of the bride chose a pink dress with mating coat, and the bridegroom's mother wore a deep pink silk suit. Their corsages were white rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Parish House. Assisting were Mrs. Spencer Macfie, Mrs. Fred Southerland, Mrs. Jack Smathers and Mrs. Mabel Alderman. The bride's book was kept by Miss Martha Rogers of Winston-Salem.

Following their wedding trip to Nassau, Mr. and Mrs. Barnhardt will reside at 782C, Sedgfield Apartments, Charlotte.

The bride attended Maryville College and is employed by Indian Head Yarn company in Charlotte. The groom attended Tarkie College in Missouri and is a graduate of Western Carolina University where he was a member of Delta Sigma Epsilon. He taught and coached at Brevard Senior High last year and will be a teacher and football coach in the Sedgfield Junior High school in Charlotte this fall.

Out of town guests were: Captain and Mrs. R. D. Amme, Camp Springs, Maryland; Mrs. Blanche Ballard, grandmother of the groom, Kannapolis; Miss June Raynor, Lakeland, Florida; Mrs. Michael Barnhardt and daughter Angela, of Asheville; Mrs. W. D. Shields, Elizabeth City; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Galloway, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. York, Asheville; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Davis, Hendersonville; Rev. and Mrs. Thom Williamson, Decatur Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sawyer, Jr., Columbia, S. C.; Mrs. Frank Sawyer, Sr., Orangeburg, S. C. and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Howard, Jacksonville, Florida.

Several events honoring Miss Burhans and Mr. Barnhardt were held prior to their marriage.

On July 27th, Miss Burhans was given a kitchen shower at the home of Mrs. Mabel Alderman.

On August 2nd, Mrs. Eston Roberts, Mrs. Timothy Murray and Mrs. Tracey Walker honored Miss Burhans with a linen shower.

Mrs. Robert T. Gash and Mrs. Lucian Desvor honored Miss Anita Burhans and Miss Vicki Caldwell at a luncheon given at the home of Mrs. Gash on August 3rd.

On August 7th the friends of Miss Burhans at the Y.W.C.A. in Charlotte gave her a surprise shower and farewell party.

Legion Auxiliary Now Plans Many Activities

The American Legion Auxiliary has many activities ahead.

The Auxiliary will hold their regular monthly meeting on Monday evening, August 26th, at 8 o'clock at the Legion Hall on Jordan street.

Plans will be formulated for their membership drive, as well as a joint covered dish supper with the Legionnaires.

Also, "The Country Fair" by which the members plan to aid their general fund, will be discussed.

Pisgah Forest Homemakers Hold Meeting

The Pisgah Forest Home Extension club met August 13th at the Pisgah Forest Community Center for their annual picnic combined with a workshop.

Mrs. John J. Brown, the president, presented to the club notes from the county council concerning the achievement day and the "out-of-county" tour for the clubs.

A delicious luncheon was enjoyed by everyone.

Mike H. Kirby, one of the vista workers in Transylvania, stopped in and visited with the club. He gave an interesting and enlightening talk.

Miss Peggy Williams, the Girl's State representative, will be the guest speaker.

It is hoped that a large attendance will be present for this important meeting to help in planning the future activities.

Hostesses for the social hour will be Misses Opal and Helen Fulbright and Mrs. Mitchell Neely.
