

MERRY CHRISTMAS GREETINGS TO ALL

THE TRANSYLVANIA TIMES

A State And National Prize-Winning Home Town Newspaper

Library
WCVC

★ Vol. 82 — No. 52

SECOND CLASS POSTAGE
PAID AT BREVARD, N. C. ZIP CODE 28712

★ BREVARD, N. C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1969 ★

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

★ 32 PAGES TODAY ★

A WINTER WONDERLAND was an appropriate description of Brevard and Transylvania county on Monday, following the snowfall of five to eight inches on Sunday. At the right is a photograph of the Town of Brevard from Morgan Heights, and at the left is the Glen Cannon Country club under a blanket of snow. The swimming pool can be noted in the center with Olin corporation in the background. (Times Staff Photos)

Brevard Housing Authority Elects A Director And Architects

Cecil J. Hill, prominent Brevard attorney and chairman of the Brevard Housing Authority, has announced the election of Charles S. Dunlop as Executive Director, and the firm of McDonald, Brewton, and Associates as architects for the Authority.

At the same time, Mr. Hill announced that the Housing and Urban Development office in Atlanta, Georgia, has committed 100 public housing units to the local authority to be constructed in the Brevard area. Forty of these units will be designated for retired people. According to Mr. Hill, the project will be established in approximately 4 locations. The buildings will be modern apartment structures with apartments from the small "efficiencies" to some with 5 bedrooms.

The rent to be paid will be based upon the income of the tenants, but will not exceed 20% of his total income. The Federal Government, at a later date, will establish the maximum income in this area with which persons may be eligible to rent the apartments. The locations will be chosen this January by representatives of the Housing and Urban Development Authority. The architects have begun preliminary design and construction is expected to start during the summer of next year. The anticipated cost of the whole project is $1.5 millions. "We want to offer housing and hope," says Mr. Hill, speaking. —Turn to Page Seven

THE BREVARD HOUSING AUTHORITY is moving along at a rapid pace and at the last meeting the committee members elected an executive director, Charles S. Dunlop, seated, center, and architects, Sam Brewton, left, and Henry Mc-

Donald, right. Members of the authority, standing, left to right, are: Cecil J. Hill, chairman, J. I. Ayers, Charles F. Himes, L. E. Bagwell and Jack E. Bryant. (Times Staff Photo)

Holiday Schedule Given

Times Out Early, Merchants Expect Big Day Wednesday

With Christmas falling on Thursday, The Transylvania Times is being printed on Tuesday in order that readers might get their papers before the holidays.

There are special Christmas messages and features throughout the issue, and The Times staff wishes for all readers a Very Merry Christmas.

The greetings in this issue also come from industries, businesses and others, and they will make for pleasant reading during the Christmas observance.

The tempo of business in Brevard has reached a high peak, and a fine day of trade is expected on Wednesday.

Schools closed for the holidays last Friday, and classes will reconvene on January 5th. Brevard College also began the holiday observance last weekend, and students will have an extended vacation.

They will return to the local campus on January 19th for registration, and classes will begin on the following day.

Most of the stores in Brevard will be closed on Thursday for Christmas.

The City Hall will be closed for Christmas on Thursday and Friday, December 25th and December 26th.

There was a garbage pickup on the 22nd and 23rd as usual.

The Thursday and Friday, December 25th and 26th, pickups will not be made.

The regular pickups will resume on the 29th of December.

The offices in the courthouse will close at noon on Wednesday, the 24th, and they will remain closed until Monday, Dec. 29th.

The license tag office will close at noon, Wednesday, Dec. 24th, and will reopen Monday, December 29th, 9 a.m.

The 1970 license tags will —Turn to Page Seven

Weather
By FRED REITER

More slippery weather for the area is predicted for Tuesday. The forecast calls for rain possibly mixed with snow by late Tuesday. Skies will also be increasingly cloudy and the temperatures continued cold.

High Low Prec.
Wednesday	48 15 0.00
Thursday	51 14 0.00
Friday	49 30 0.00
Saturday	46 19 0.00
Sunday	37 21 4" snow
Monday	43 29 0.00

Greetings
1 SHOPPING DAY TIL CHRISTMAS

First Day Of Winter

Snow Storm Hits Town And County, More On The Way

Brevard and Transylvania county were hit with a heavy snowfall on Sunday—the first day of winter.

The snowfall began shortly after the noon hour and fell steadily until early evening.

The town and county were blanketed from five to eight inches, and traffic was almost at a standstill.

Church services Sunday evening at most of the churches were postponed until Tuesday evening.

Much of the snow melted Monday, but colder temperatures Monday night turned streets into a sheet of ice, making traffic conditions hazardous again.

The weatherman is calling for more slippery weather late Tuesday and Wednesday.

Chains and snow tires are recommended.

No serious accidents have been reported because of the condition of the roads, but the State Highway Patrol reminds all motorists to drive with extreme care.

Survey Reveals

More Working Wives In County

For a growing number of married women in Transylvania County, running a home and raising a family are only part of their activities.

With each passing year, more and more of them are finding that they can take care of their household responsibilities and still have enough spare time to permit them to take outside jobs.

As a result, locally and elsewhere, the proportion of wives at work—in offices, stores, factories and in professional occupations—is at an all-time high.

In Transylvania County, an

Look Inside...

News of and for the women, page six, section two, and pages six and seven, section three

Editorials, page two, second section
Almar Farm column, front page of the second section
Junior Achievement picture story, front page of the third section

Sports, page five, second section, and pages four and five, fourth section estimated 35.2 per cent of the married women are now employed, according to the latest statistics. This compares with 26.7 per cent in 1960.

On the average, throughout the United States, in more than 1 out of every 3 husband-wife families, the wife is employed, either part-time or full-time.

It represents a considerable change over earlier years. In 1952, for example, only 1 out of 5 wives was in the labor force.

The figures are based upon sampling surveys of the nation's labor force, conducted by the Census Bureau, and upon reports from the Labor Department and others.

They show that no less than 15.8 million wives in the 43.3 million husband-wife families in the United States were in paid jobs in the past year.

Their contributions to the family exchequer have made it easier to cope with the family budget, to save for junior's education and to live on a better scale generally.

The increase in the number of working wives reflects only part of the changing pattern of women's attitude toward economic self-sufficiency. The proportion of single women in jobs —Turn to Page Five

In New Year

Dog Tags To Be Issued By Transylvania Tax Office

In a move most Transylvania animal lovers will appreciate, Transylvania county will require all dogs to wear identification collars and tags beginning with the New Year.

An announcement by County Tax Supervisor, Lawrence Hipp, states that the North Carolina law of many years standing which requires this, will now be enforced in Transylvania. The identification tags and attachments will be provided by the Tax Supervisor's office when owners list their dogs for taxation.

North Carolina General Statute 67-33 requires:

"Every dog in counties where a dog warden is appointed shall be required at all times to wear a collar with the owner's identification firmly attached to the collar. Each year at tax listing time all dog owners shall be provided by the taxing authorities with a numbered metal —Turn to Page Five