District Homemakers To Meet May 12 & 13

Homemakers from Transylvania County will join Homemakers from adjoining 17 counties and the Cherokee Reservation for the annual meeting of the Western District Extension Homemakers.

The meeting will be held in the lovely setting at Montreat, two miles from Black Mountain in Assembly Inn, on May 12th - 13th.

Registration and a coffee hour for the annual event will begin at 9:00 on Tuesday morning with Buncombe County Extension Homemakers as hosts.

The theme for the two day program will be "Heritage Plus" in keeping with North Carolina's 50th Anniversary of NCEHA.

Mrs. Henrietta T. Phillips, of Newland, District NCEHA President will preside over the two day meeting. Serving with her from Transylvania County will be Mrs. Clyde Summey, of Brevard, and the District Corresponding Secretary.

Mrs. Billie Jean Simpson, a homemaker from Charlotte, who has captivated previous audiences with her "hat trickery" will present the Tuesday morning program on "picture potpourri."

A guild - Craft Exhibit will be on display with Mrs. Freida Terrell, Area Agent in Creative Crafts, in charge.

The two days will be filled with classes of interest to homemakers. The following classes will be available with each homemaker participating in four:

1. House Furnishings: Bruce Shipley with Shipley's Inc.
2. Wills & Inheritance: D. G. Harwood, Jr., and R. C. Wells, Extension Economists, Farm Management, N. C. State University of Raleigh.
3. Flower Arranging: Mrs. John L. Ervin of Morganton.
4. Family Relations: "The Generation Gap" (including Drugs): Mr. Leo Hawkins, Extension

5. Physical Fitness: Mrs. F. Percy Carter of Asheville.

6. Meats: Mrs. Sandra Brookover, Consumer Meat Specialist, United States Department of Agriculture.

7. Home and Personal protection: Asheville Police Department.

8. Clothing: Birthright of women — to look her best — Miss Dorothy Barrier, Extension Clothing Specialist, N. C. S. U.

Tuesday's program will close with a Fashion Show of garments from Doncaster-Tanner, conducted by Mrs. Shirley Koone, the Educational Representative. Working with Mrs. Koone will be Mrs. L. E. Callender, of Cedar Mountain, District Clothing Chairman, and models from the various clubs.

Wednesday morning's program will begin with devotions by Denver Robinson, Western District Chairman, N. C. Extension Service.

Two outstanding speakers will appear as guests at the luncheon on Tuesday and Wednesday. Miss Lorna Langley, former State Agent in Home Economics of Raleigh, will speak on Tuesday, and the meeting will close following the noon lunch on Wednesday when Mrs. Elizabeth Sparks, Woman's Editor from the Winston-Salem Journal and Sentinel, will speak.

Also taking part in the two day program from Transylvania County will include: Miss Jean Childers, County Home Economics Extension Agent, Mrs. George Hudgins, Council President, and Mrs. Clarence Allison, District Program of Work Chairman.

Elks To Hold Buffet Dinner

Brevard Elks are sponsoring a Buffet dinner Sunday, May 10th, from 5:30 until 8:30 in the evening for members, their children and guests.

Dinner will be $2.25 for adults and $1.25 for children.

A dinner-dance is also being planned at the Club for May 16th.

The Larsons Celebrate Their 50th Anniversary

Roy and Helen Larson of Orlando, Florida and Lake Toxaway, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on May 1st.

The Larsons were married in 1920 in Forest City, Iowa, at the Forest City Methodist Church. The Reverend J. P. Anderson, father of the bride, officiated at the ceremony.

Since 1941, they have lived in Orlando, Florida, where Mr. Larson was former chief of police and at present is State Coordinator of personnel training for Department of Correction. The Larsons have had a summer home for 13 years in Faraway Hills at Lake Toxaway.

They have two daughters - Lorraine, co-owner of Camp Illahee, Brevard, and Mrs. David Rutledge, Northfield, Ohio, and one son, Clayton of Myrtle Beach, S. C. The Larsons have nine grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

A luncheon, given by the couple's children and families in honor of the couples was held at Camp Illahee followed by a family dinner at the Colonial Inn.

Glady Branch Homemakers Club Meets

Fashion was the theme of the April meeting of the Glady Branch Extension Homemakers Club. Miss Jean Childers presented the program on a Fashion Preview for Spring and Summer. She discussed popular colors for spring as well as types of fabrics that will be seen. Pictures of some of the latest styles were shown such as: pant outfits, dresses with scarves, shoe styles and children's clothing.

Celene fabrics were featured in a filmstrip "Five Clues to a Winning Wardrobe". The five clues are: fashion, suitability, performance, cost and care.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. James Hemphill. Mrs. Bill Nicholson was co-hostess.

The meeting was opened with devotions and the singing of Home on the Range.

Mrs. Bill Nicholson gave a report on growing fruits and vegetables. Miss Childers discussed the district meeting at Montreat on May 12 and 13.

Mathatasian Club Meets

The Mathatasian Book Club was entertained April 22nd by Mrs. J. B. Jones at her home on Country Club Road.

Mrs. Jack Trantham gave a most interesting program on Stonewall Jackson, including many seldom-told facts.

Jackson, who was undoubtedly the greatest of Robert E. Lee's generals, possessed a deep religious nature and a fiercely aggressive fighting spirit.

He went to West Point in 1842 as a gangling country boy, but he stayed, rising from 51st place to 17th at graduation. It was there that he wrote many maxims on how to live.

Most unusual was the fact that his wife's sister attended them on their honeymoon, later writing a book on the subject.

At Bull Run he won the famous Stonewall title.

His men made up fables about him. In the Bible story, they said, Moses took 40 years bringing the Israelites through the wilderness. Old Jack would have taken them through on half rations in three days.

His untimely death at the age of 39 cut him down at the height of an increasingly successful career. Written of him are these lines:

In all the days of future years His name and fame shall shine, The stubborn iron captain Of our old Virginia line.

A delicious dessert course was served by the hostess.

The next meeting was announced to be on May 13th, with Mrs. Al Watson. Mrs. Charles Cook will be program leader.

Epsilon Theta Group Has 39th Birthday

Epsilon Theta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi celebrated the 39th anniversary of the organization's founding April 30th at 8:30 p.m. A banquet for the occasion was held at Gaither's Rhododendron room.

Thirty-nine years ago the first chapter of the sorority was formed in Abilene, Kansas. There are now approximately 10,000 chapters and 220,000 members in the United States, Canada, 15 foreign countries and in five protectorates of the United States and England.

Preceding the banquet, a Ritual of Jewels Degree Ceremony was held. To qualify for this Degree, a pledge must complete six months' pledge training and pass the Test for the Ritual of Jewels Degree. Mrs. Evelyn Owen, Mrs. Judy New, Mrs. Camellia Hutchins and Mrs. Marilyn Babb received their Ritual of Jewels Badge in the ceremony.

The banquet then began with members standing to sing the National Anthem, the Opening Ritual and the Beta Sigma Phi Grace. Everyone was seated to enjoy a delicious steak dinner followed by the Founder's Day program.

Mrs. Patty Williams served as Toastmistress and officially welcomed everyone. Other members who had a part of the program were: Mrs. Priscilla Miller, who gave a brief history of Epsilon Theta; Mrs. Judy New, who read the Founder's Day Pledge, which was repeated in unison by the sisters; Mrs. Camellia Hutchins, who read a message from Mrs. Walter W. Ross, widow of the Sorority's founder; Mrs. Doris Smith, who read a message from Walter W. Ross, III, the Sorority's president; Mrs. Barbara Beine, accompanied by Miss Nancy Miller, who sang the winning song in the Beta Sigma Phi song contest; and Mrs. Marilyn Babb, who presented the Girl of the Year Award to Mrs. Barbara Beine. This award is voted on by the members, and is given to the sister who has contributed the most to her sorority in the past year.

Mrs. Beine served Epsilon Theta as Vice-president, chairman of the membership committee, and a member of the ways and means committee. She did an outstanding job in all these capacities, and offered her talent, experience and services whenever she was needed.

The banquet concluded with members standing for the closing Ritual. Fourteen members attended the Founder's Day Celebration.

DAR Installs New Officers

Mrs. James Maney will be hostess to Waightsill Avery National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alexander Thomas.

The meeting will be on Monday, May 11th, at 3:30 p.m. at the Thomas Farms on Everett road.

New officers will be installed for the coming year.

Miss Duvall Is Honored At Shower

A lovely linen and lingerie shower was held Saturday night, May 2nd, at the Lambau room in Berry's restaurant in honor of Miss Jane Duvall, bride-elect of William Henry Ingram, III.

Co-hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Evan Bacon, Sr., Mrs. Evan Bacon, Jr., Mrs. Berry Gaither, Mrs. Harold Saltz, all of Brevard, and Mrs. Jerry Starnes, of Asheville.

Both the honoree and Mrs. William Henry Ingram, Jr., mother of the groom-elect, were presented with lovely glamelia corsages.

The bride's table was beautifully decorated with an arrangement of iris and white dogwood, and flame azaleas were used in back ground decorations.

Thirty-five guests were served delicious refreshments of assorted miniature sandwiches and cookies. Mrs. Jerry A. Starnes presided at the punch bowl.
