Brevard Man Is New Athletic Director At Shorter College

A native of Brevard and former very fine, all-around athlete at Brevard High School and Brevard College has been named Athletic Director and head basketball coach of the well known Shorter College Hawks at Rome, Georgia.

Continuing graduate studies, has accepted another position and Rogers was chosen to move up to the top position.

In making the appointment, Col. C.T.B. Harris of Shorter College, expressed regret at the loss of Bill Moore but said:

"We have as good a replacement as possible in Coach Rogers."

Said Rogers: "I'm very happy to have an opportunity of this type and hope to do a good job."

Rogers is the son of Mrs. Jane Rogers of 2 McMinn Street, Brevard, and the late Mr. Paul Rogers. He was a fine, all-around athlete at Brevard High School in the early 1960's. He was an outstanding left-handed baseball pitcher and All Blue Ridge Conference in basketball. He and the well-remembered Johnnie Bradburn made one of the most outstanding guard tandems ever seen at BHS and Brevard College.

After graduation from Brevard College, Rogers spent two years in military service before going to Shorter College.

He joined the Hawk's coaching staff last year and will be experiencing his first venture as a head coach this season.

Doug Rogers, who played for the Hawks two years ago and was one of the Georgia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference's top guards, returned last year as assistant coach to Bill Moore. Moore, who is con-

Brevard High Track Team Wins Ivy Conference Championship

Brevard High Track team minus the services of Tri-Captain John Bohan, one of the best 880 men in the state, captured the Ivy Conference Championship at Brevard College, last Thursday afternoon.

Tri-Captains Howard Bradburn and Eagle Moss led their team to the Championship victory. Bradburn set a conference record in winning the Shot Put with a toss of 45' 7 1/2", and finished third in the Discus behind teammates John Ray Gentry, who had a record throw of 129' 6", and Gary Nelson. Moss won the 100 yd. dash, the 220 yd. dash, was a member of the record-breaking 880 yd. relay team composed of Charlie Carr, Vernon Gardin and Wayne Robinson with a time of 1:34.5, and finished second behind Wayne Robinson in the Triple Jump.

Brevard was the second school in the Ivy Conference to win the championship. Since the birth of the Conference, Enka had conquered the championship until the Blue Devils threw and ran to daylight this past Thursday. The trophy was the second for the track team this season. The team finished 2nd in Class II of the WNC Relays, held the week-end of April 24th, at Brevard College and sponsored jointly by the Brevard Jaycees, Brevard College and Brevard High School Track Teams.

Trophies were presented to Howard Bradburn and Ben Bailey of Enka as the Most Outstanding Field and Track participants. New records set by the Blue Devils in addition to the Shot Put, 880 Relay team, Discus, were the 440 yd. Relay team consisting of Charlie Carr, Vernon Gardin, Wayne Robinson and Jacob Norman with a time of 4:52, and the Pole Vault with Mike Worley clearing the bar at 10' 6".
