Sapphire-Whitewater Given Honorable Mention Saturday

Brevard Rotarians To Have Yule Party At Glen Cannon

Brevard Rotarians will entertain their Rotary Annes at their annual Christmas party next Monday night, Dec. 14th, at the Glen Cannon Country club.

The banquet meeting will begin promptly at 7:00 o'clock, and all Rotarians are urged to bring their wives to this gala event.

Dr. Wilburn Davis will be in charge of arrangements.

At the regular weekly meeting of the club on Monday in Gaiter's Rhododendron room, Dr. Davis told of plans for the big Asheville-Kemper Golf classic at Etowah Valley next June.

He said that many Rotarians were already assisting with plans and he emphasized that the event would be a big attraction for Brevard and Transylvania county.

Walter Holland, the immediate past president, presided over Monday's meeting.

COMFORTING — Swirl's "Wear-Now" coatshirt from the Spectator collection is in tones of gold and brown on polyester and cotton.

Penrose P-TA Meets Monday

The Penrose P-TA will meet Monday evening, December 14th, at 7:30 o'clock in the school cafeteria.

The program, "What Christmas Means", will be presented by Miss Joan Mills and Mrs. Jean Dees. Students from all classes will participate.

All parents and interested persons are urged to attend.

SAPPHIRE - WHITEWATER — Sapphire - Whitewater Community won an honorable mention at the Awards Luncheon in Asheville on Saturday, Dec. 5. Attending the luncheon from Sapphire were Mrs. Dorothy McNeely and daughter, Jean and Gail, Mr. and Mrs. Erik D. Hansen, Miss Cindi Rock, Mrs. Hester Hansen, and Mr. and Mrs. Oakley Farver.

It is not too late to enroll in the upholstery class that is being held each Tuesday and Friday evening at the Sapphire-Whitewater Community center. This is proving an interesting project for husband-and-wife teams. The classes are from 7:00 to 10:30 p.m.

We express our appreciation to the Highway Department for repairing road shoulders and installing guard rails at the top of Toxaway Falls. This will make a much safer bridge crossing come tourist season.

Ken and Laura Wilson have leased the sandwich shop at Mt. Toxaway Lodge and will have it opened officially the latter part of this week even though they are already serving, along with redecorating.

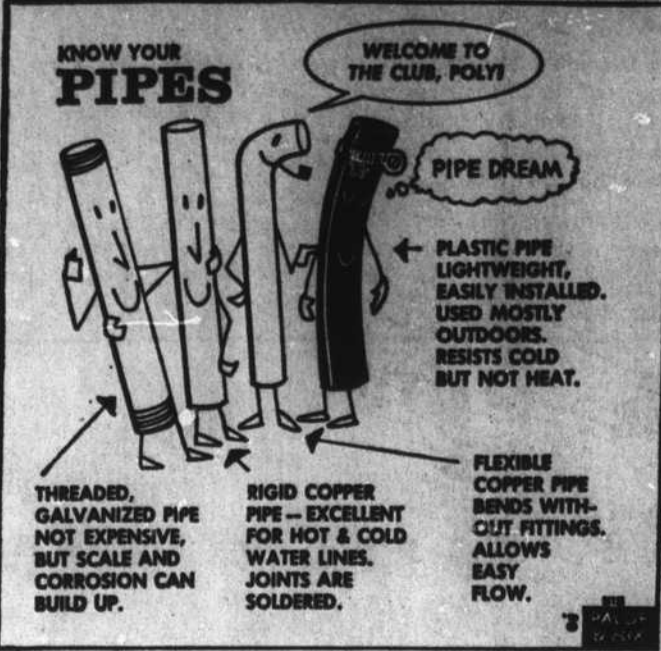

They will serve breakfast and lunch during the week and perhaps will serve dinners on week-ends if there is sufficient demand during the skiing season. This is a much needed accommodation in our community and we thank the Wilsons for bringing it to us.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to our many friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers, food and many other acts of kindnesses at the death of our son and brother Danny Tinsley. May God bless each and everyone of you.

BOOK REVIEW FROM THE TRANSYLVANIA COUNTY LIBRARY FOR FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

CALE by Sylvia Wilkenson
Sylvia Wilkenson, one of North Carolina's major living authors, has had her third novel published recently.

CALE, the title of the book and the name of the hero, is a much longer book than the earlier KILLING FROST and MOSS ON THE NORTH SIDE. It is both easier to understand and less interesting than the earlier works. The setting is a farm in middle North Carolina from 1940 to 1958, from the birth of Cale Jenkins until his senior year in high school. The incidents in the book ring true to every North Carolinian who has lived in the country. The dialogue is real and the attitudes of the characters, both white and black, are exactly and skillfully depicted.

is a hard working, sober, intense woman, never deviating from her duty as wife, mother and house-keeper. Cale's sister, Pearlise Mae, is touched by the sympathy for the Negro liberation just being felt in the rural South.

Cale himself is pulling away from tobacco farming. Endowed with keen intelligence and a love of building houses he knows college is completely out of the question for him and is rebelliously waiting out his school year until graduation.

There is little drama in the book, although some of the incidents are frightening and some comic. The land, the everyday life of the Jenkins family and their black tenants are the stuff all rural Southerners are made of, and as such are part of the South, America, and its joys and problems.

Action Group Approved To Operate Emergency Food And Medical Operations

Western Carolina Community Action, Inc., has been approved by the Division of Human Resources, Department of Local Affairs, Raleigh, North Carolina to operate an Emergency Food and Medical Services Program in Henderson and Transylvania Counties. This program is funded to operate from December 1, 1970 to May 31, 1972.

The Emergency Food and Medical Services Program will issue vouchers to persons needing food on an emergency basis. Medical vouchers will also be issued for illnesses that are food related upon referral from a doctor or the Health Department.

Persons needing emergency food services should contact Western Carolina Community Action, Inc., in Brevard or Hendersonville. The Brevard phone number is 883-8151. In Hendersonville, the number is 692-6295.

Lutherans To Light Christmas Tree At Service On December 20

Plans are being completed for the annual lighting of the Christmas Tree at Good Shepherd Lutheran church, corner of North Broad street and Fisher road, according to announcements released by Mrs. O. A. Hofmann, president of the Lutheran Church Women.

cial ornaments which the women of the church have made and will be placed on the tree during the service.

The word Chrismon is a combination of the first parts of two words, Christ and monogram. Thus the tree, when completely decorated, becomes a visible witness of the Lord, telling what He is like, what He has done. Many of the designs which will be used are centuries old, some as old as the Bible itself and are thus the heritage of all Christians.

Following this service, there will be a period of fellowship to which all worshippers are cordially invited.

The service will begin at 5:00 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, December 20th, and a special invitation is being given to members of all church groups in the community to attend this beautiful and impressive Chrismon Service.

Instead of making use of the usual lights and ornaments, the tree will be decorated with spe-
