

TRANSYLVANIA—
The Land of Waterfalls, Mecca for Summer Camps, Entrance to Pisgah National Forest and Home of Brevard College and Brevard Music Festival.

THE TRANSYLVANIA TIMES

A State And National Prize-Winning Home Town Newspaper

REPRODUCTION OF
All Matter Herein Is Prohibited
Without The Expressed Consent
Of The Owner.

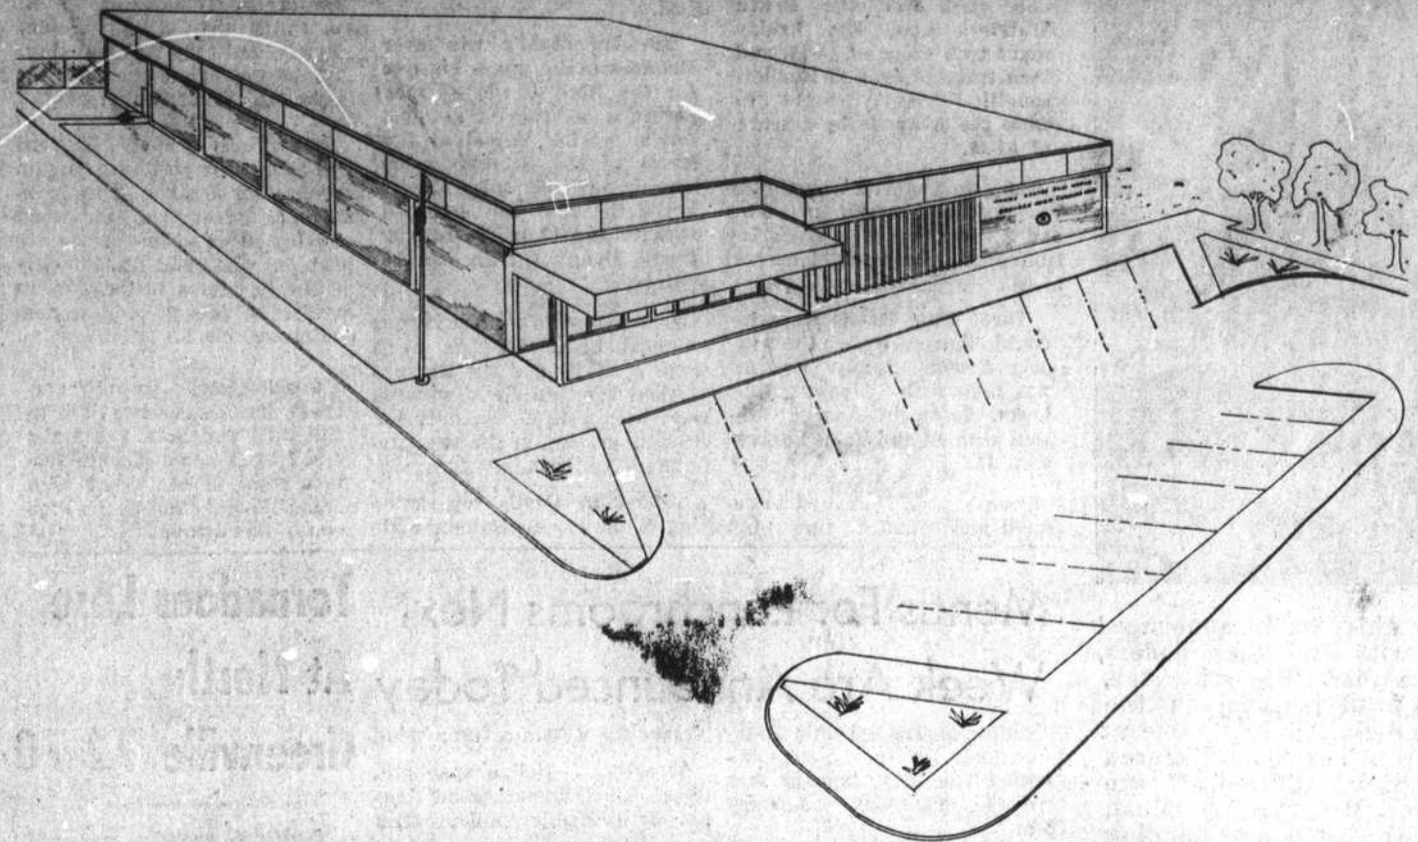

★ Vol. 84—No. 3

SECOND CLASS POSTAGE
PAID AT BREVARD, N. C. ZIP CODE 28712

BREVARD, N. C., THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 1971

★ 28 PAGES TODAY ★

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

Artist's Drawing Of The New Brevard Post Office

Bryant Construction Company To Build New Brevard Post Office

Work To Begin In Spring, To Finish In 1971

Bryant Construction company has been awarded the contract to build the new Post Office in Brevard. This modern new building of brick, stucco and glass will be located opposite the City Hall on West Main street. It will be bordered by three streets, West Main, England and Jordan.

There will be patron parking in front of the building with official (employee) parking in the rear. The building will contain 8,000 square feet, and it will be 85 feet by 102 feet.

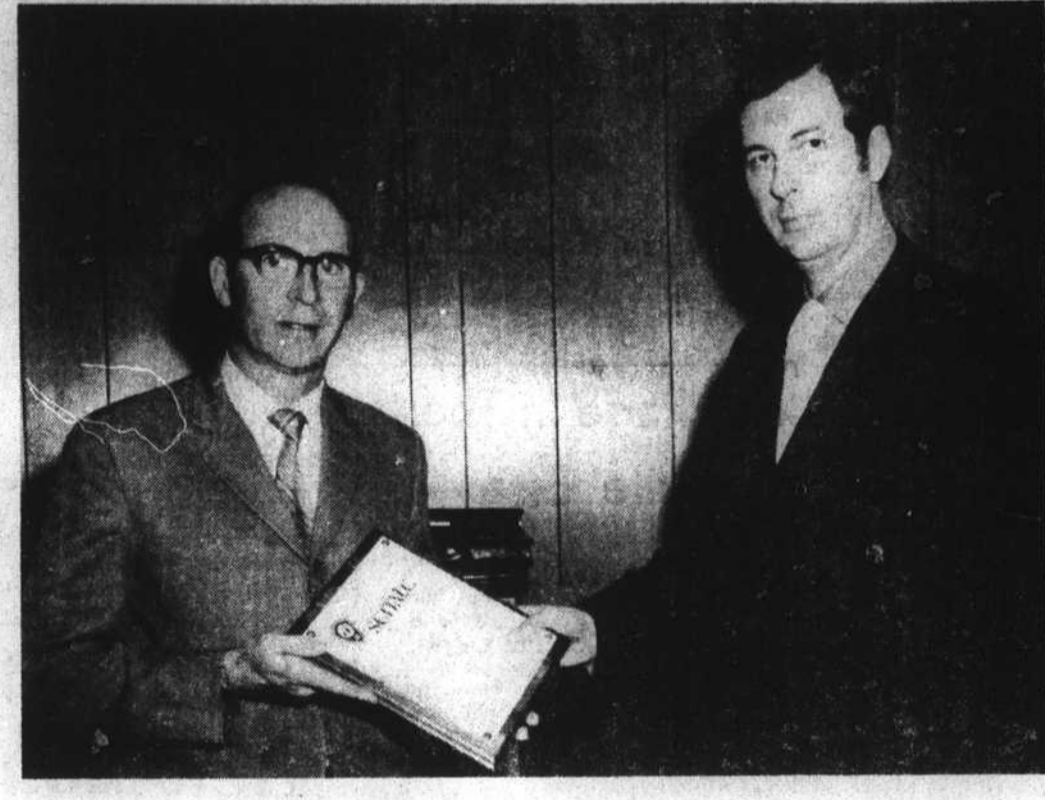

According to Jack Bryant, president of Bryant Construction company, work will begin on the building in early spring, and it will be completed in late 1971.

Terms of the lease agreement call for annual payments of $21,200 for 20 years, subject to renewal or purchase. The cost of the lot was $40,493.44.

The Bryant company, one of North Carolina's finest construction companies, has built post offices at Belton and Aiken, South Carolina.

The company recently completed the new YMCA in Asheville and the addition to Asheville's Memorial Mission hospital.

Currently, Bryant is building a million dollar court house in Macon county and the Medical-Dental Building. —Turn to Page Six

OUTSTANDING AWARD—This is National Jaycee week, and John R. "Jack" Hudson is pictured above at the left receiving one of the highest awards given by this International organization. Presenting the "Senate" plaque is John K. Smart, right, another outstanding Jaycee and Brevard attorney. (Times Staff Photo)

Criminal Session

Jurors For February Term Of Superior Court Are Called

Jurors for the February term of Superior court in Transylvania county have been called. Mrs. Marian McMahan, Clerk of Superior Court, announces today.

The court, a one-week criminal term, opens on Monday, February 1st. The holdover members of the Grand Jury are as follows, and nine additional members will be chosen:

- Thomas C. Bingham
 - Clarence Goodson
 - U. G. Batson
 - Davis William Baker
 - Dewey Moore
 - Melvin Hamilton
 - Emmett Edgar Owen
 - Paul Eugene Nicholson
 - Pansy H. Nicholson
- Jurors called to serve are as follows:
- Charles Francis Allison
 - William F. Armstrong
 - James E. Austin
 - Lyndon Baker
 - Harry Lee Ballard, Jr.
 - William Carroll Batson
 - Lennie Bolt
 - Ralph Breedlove
 - T. E. Brown
 - Edwin Carlson
 - William R. Coleman
 - Mrs. C. E. Corn
 - Jean S. Dees
 - Gertrude Dillingham
 - J. V. Dills
 - Thomas H. Dukes
 - Miss Katherine Fisher
 - James D. Fortune
 - Ivan V. Galloway
 - James O. Grubb
 - S. R. Harrington
 - Bill Harris
 - David Holliday
 - Paul C. House
 - Beatrice Hubbard
 - James S. Johnson
 - Dr. James M. Keeley
 - Hazel Kitchen
- Turn to Page Five

Set For Feb. 2nd, 3rd, 4th

"The Star-Spangled Girl" Rehearsals Now Underway

Rehearsals are underway for the upcoming Brevard Little Theatre play, "The Star-Spangled Girl." The play by Neil Simon is a hilarious comedy.

Dottie Tinsley will play the role of Sophie Rauschmeyer, a typical All American Girl. Mrs. Tinsley whose husband Bill is in Korea with the Army has temporarily settled in her hometown of Brevard with her little boy. She is employed at the Education Building.

Chuck Stires, who plays the role of Norman Cornell, is a supervisor at Du Pont. He with his wife and two children moved to Brevard in June from Wilmington, Delaware. Mr. Stires previously was in theatre work at Georgia Tech.

Arthur Dehon, Jr., will act the play's role of Andy Hobart. He is assistant manager at Sherwood Forest and a bachelor who enjoys traveling.

The play is directed by Maggie Masters who is well known in the area for her original handicraft. She is president of the Eight Cratters and a member of the Southern Highlands Guild. Mrs. Masters has previously directed plays at Pajolito Theatre, California. She and her husband Gus, who is retired from the Army, reside in Brevard.

Joann Dehon, who will be the assistant director, has acted in previous plays here. She has lived in Brevard for two years with her little girl and her husband Donald, who is head of advertising at Olin.

"The Star-Spangled Girl" will have four performances; February 2nd, 3rd, and 4th at 8:30 p. m. and on Saturday the 4th there will be a matinee at 2:30.

Log Reviewed

Special Apollo 14 Program Set Thursday Over WPNF

This week WPNF - Radio will feature a NASA Special Report called "Flight to Fra Mauro — The Astronauts of Apollo 14." The program was especially prepared to be broadcast before the scheduled launch of Apollo 14, which is tentatively scheduled for January 31st.

The program will feature the latest comments by the men who will fly this nation's next moon landing mission — Astronauts Alan B. Shepard, Jr., Stuart A. Roosa and Edgar D. Mitchell. Shepherd and Mitchell are to make the actual landing in the moon's hilly uplands area, while Roosa remains behind in lunar orbit.

This special NASA program will be on WPNF Thursday morning at 10:45 a. m.

During the following week, interviews will be heard throughout the day on WPNF with other personnel of the launch and backup crews of the mission, as well as those responsible for making the critical decisions at Mission Control.

Betsy Palmer has begun a new series of "Adventures in Food" programs over WPNF. Betsy is heard each weekday morning doing this interesting little program.

Other Programs
The schedule for the Farm and Home hour is as follows: Thursday, Station Program; Friday, Station Program; Saturday, Station Program. —Turn to Page Four

Weather
By FRED REITER

Temperatures in Brevard averaged only in the middle 40's for a high during the past week. Averages were 44 and 29 for the week. There was a minimum of precipitation.

High temperature for the week was Thursday's 55 degree reading, while the low was 15 Tuesday morning.

Extended outlook for the Western North Carolina area, from the National Weather Service: Thursday through Saturday, chance of rain or showers Friday and over the rest of the state Saturday. Cold Thursday. Lows in the upper teens and low 20s. Highs in the 40s. Warner Friday and Saturday, with lows in the 30s Friday and in the 40s Saturday. Highs both days mostly in the 60s.

	High	Low	Prec.
Wednesday	54	30	0.00
Thursday	55	47	0.05
Friday	50	41	0.21
Saturday	42	20	0.00
Sunday	46	24	0.00
Monday	34	24	Trace
Tuesday	24	15	0.00

Look Inside...

Pictorial feature on Brevard high school student from Chile, front page of section three.

Pet buyers are given warning, front page of the second section.

Classifieds, pages two and three, fourth section.

Sports, page five, section two, and page four, first section.

Editorials, page two, second section.

News of and for the women, page six, second section, and pages six and seven, third section.

Picture and story on new officers of the Brevard Jaycee Sheltered Workshop, front page of the fourth section.

Rosman news and picture of winners in "Miss Bengal" contest, page four, section four.

Record Gifts

U F Victory Dinner Held, Johnson Is New President

The recently completed United Fund Campaign was celebrated with a dutch treat victory dinner held at the Brevard College Cafeteria on January 11th.

Outgoing United Fund President, Robert A. Davis, presided over the well attended victory celebration and spoke of the community spirit and cooperation that made this victory possible. He pointed out that the adopted budget of $39,775.00 was exceeded by approximately 14% for a record gift. —Turn to Page Five

Old Building Destroyed By Fire At Rosman

The old Will Glazener store building at Rosman was destroyed by fire early Wednesday morning.

The Rosman fire fighters were called out at 5:15, but when they arrived, the entire building was engulfed in flames.

The building, some 110 feet long and 40 feet wide, was reported to be over 50 years old and in recent years it had been used as a warehouse for storing ivy.

Rosman's Fire Chief Boice White said his department, along with the help of the Brevard firemen, were able to contain the fire. —Turn to Page Six

Banquet Friday

Three Are Finalists For DSA, Hudson Gets Plaque

Three Brevard men, L. C. Case, III, Coach Ed Emory and James M. Felty, have been chosen as finalists for the 24th Annual Distinguished Service Award.

One of the three will be presented the DSA award, declaring him "Young Man of the Year in Transylvania" at the annual banquet this Friday night at Gaither's restaurant.

John K. Smart and John R. Huggins, DSA chairmen, announced the winners. A panel of judges, all over the age of 36, selected them on the basis of (1) contributions to the community welfare during 1970, (2) evidence of leadership ability, and (3) evidence of business or personal progress.

Business manager of Transylvania county schools, Mr. Case was selected for his work as chairman of Transylvania better schools committee. His other activities include work with the Boy Scouts, Ruritan club, United Fund and Community club. He is also an active member of the North Toxaway Baptist church.

Coach Emory of Brevard Senior High was cited for his outstanding work in coaching the Blue Devils to the championship and in working with young people in general. He is active in the Brevard - Davidson River Presbyterian church and the Boy Scouts.

The assistant manager of Belk's department store, Mr. Felty was selected for his recent efforts as campaign director of the United Fund drive. A Deacon and choir director at Calvary Baptist church, he was recently chosen "Outstanding Young Layman" by the Brevard Jaycees. He is also president of the Brevard Junior High PTA, and past president of the Jaycees.

Brevard Jaycees will also honor the Boss of a Jaycee chosen as the most distinguished employer. This is the chapter's first "Boss of the Year" Award, and it will be presented to the Boss judged most outstanding in his professional achievement, contributions to the Jaycee Chapter, and to the community.

Mothers' March Slated Sunday

The Mothers' March against birth defects, sponsored annually by the Brevard Junior Women's Club for the March of Dimes, is set for Sunday, January 24th, it was announced today by the Co-Chairman, Mrs. Gary McVay and Mrs. Donald Monk.

More than 250 volunteers, from all sections of Transylvania county, will canvass their neighborhoods in the annual appeal for contributions to the March of Dimes. The proceeds from the Mothers' March will be used to aid birth defect patients throughout North Carolina and to assist in the national programs of research, education and community service conducted by The National Foundation - March of Dimes.

"The greatest gift a mother receives is perfect health for her child" stated Mrs. McVay. "But in the United States alone, more than 700 children per day are born with a significant defect." —Turn to Page Five

One Of Six

"Rick" Bohan Named A District Winner, Morehead Scholarship

George Patrick Bohan, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Bohan, Jr., of 3 Woodside Drive, is one of the six district finalists for a Morehead Scholarship at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

The announcement was made following the district judging last Friday in Asheville. This district represents 14 Western North Carolina counties, and the finalists and the alternates will go to Chapel Hill March 5-8 for interviews before the Central Morehead Selection Committee.

Morehead awards provide four-year, all expenses paid undergraduate educations at the University at Chapel Hill. They are worth $9,000 each to each North Carolina student. —Turn to Page Six

