

WALLACE GALLOWAY just returned from a week in Raleigh after serving as a House Page. Wallace received this opportunity because of the essay he entered in Representative Charles Taylor's essay contest held throughout the district for young people of Junior High and High School age. Topics of the essays were political problems in North Carolina.

"Action" Board Meets Monday

The Board of Directors of Western Carolina Community Action, Inc., will meet Monday evening, May 10th, in the Faculty Lounge of Brevard College at 7:30 p.m.

Items on the agenda will include the pending Hand and Fingers Incentive Grant request for $2,350.00, a report by the Executive Director on the W.C.C.A. regional incentive grant and the Neighborhood Youth Corps Summer Program.

The public is invited to attend.

Car Wash At BHS Saturday

The Senior class at Brevard high school is sponsoring a car wash this Saturday, May 8th.
