

Brevard High School Ranks High In Mathematics Contest

Arthur M. Smart, Jr., a senior at Brevard High School, tied for first place in the state with his score on the 1971 High School Mathematics Contest.

More than 4900 North Carolina high school students participated in the contest sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America and the Society of Actuaries.

Other members of the team of three students representing Brevard High School included Jerry Ammons and George Cline.

Ammons received an Honorable Mention Award for his score, which ranked 14th highest in the contest.

The combined scores of the Brevard trio earned second place for Brevard High School in the team awards. A total of 85 teams participated, representing high schools from all over the state.

Oakland News Is Reported

By Mrs. I. S. Sanders
OAKLAND—Cemetery mowing is back again. Gene White mowed the Reid Cemetery Saturday. Anyone that's interested in the Reid Cemetery and will send a donation for expenses, it will be appreciated. Union and Lake Toxaway Baptist church cemeteries are on the list too.

I. S. Sanders celebrated his 83rd birthday April 29th. Two of his sons, Ray Sanders of Asheville and Sgt. Cecil Sanders of Fayetteville and his daughter, Mr. Evon Taylor of West Asheville and granddaughter Robby Jo of Asheville were his dinner guests. Mr. Sanders received a number of nice gifts and birthday cards.

Luther White has returned to his home after a long treatment in the hospital at Sylva. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Chappell of Rocky Bottom visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Macie Hinkle was rushed to the Transylvania Hospital one day last week for sudden illness.

We regret to hear of the sudden death of Mr. Cecil Whitmire of Brevard. Also the death of Mr. J. C. Reid of Knoxville.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCall of Longview, Washington, arrived here last week on a visit to their relatives, Mrs. Lila Hall and family of Brevard and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Revis of Selma.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Odem of Greenville were Sunday visitors of Mrs. J. L. Sanders.

Vincent Owen has added a new room to his gift shop and hopes for a good season this summer.

Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cash were Loyd Cash and son Kenny of Brevard, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Thorpe of Quebec and Mrs. Caryl Hinkle and mother, Mrs. Mildred Sherman of Sapphire.

Mr. and Mrs. David Norton and son Paul of Lake Toxaway visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Norton Sunday.

Dogwood-winter was a visitor in our area Monday morning. Temperatures dropped to 28 degrees.

Lane and Robert Sanders of Los Angeles called their father, I. S. Sanders over the phone for his birthday.

Jess Welch visited his brother Henry Welch in Bryson City Sunday.
