Lutherans Will Hold Convention

The 167th annual convention of the Lutheran Church in North Carolina will be held in St. John's Lutheran Church, Salisbury, beginning on Friday evening, May 14th, according to information released from the official headquarters of the state organization, the Rev. George W. Whittecar, D.D. president.

The three-day gathering will represent a departure from former years in that it will be over a weekend, hopeful that many business and professional lay persons might have an opportunity to attend all or a part of the sessions.

Formal opening will be in charge of President Whittecar, with devotions conducted by the Convention Chaplain, T. C. Plexico, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church, Concord. A full schedule has been worked out for the official delegates, including reports of the Executive Board; the many standing committee and special committees; reports of boards of the institutions owned by the Synod, consisting of Lenoir Rhyne College, N. C. Lutheran Homes; and jointly owned institutions, Children's Home; Lutheridge Assembly, and the Lutheran Theological Seminary.

Likewise, elections to membership on various boards will take place, along with the election of delegates to the National Convention of The Lutheran Church in America which will be held in 1972.

The convention banquet will be held at Catawba College on Saturday night with entertainment by the Lenoir Rhyne College Ensemble under the direction of Ray McNeely.

The service with Holy Communion will be conducted on Sunday morning, with the sermon delivered by the Rev. Whittecar.

The Rev. J. Lewis Thornburg, D.D., interim pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, along with Mrs. O. A. Hofmann delegate from the local parish will be in attendance, as well as Mrs. J. Lewis Thornburg, and O. A. Hofmann as visitors.

Will Organize German Club In Transylvania

The German born citizens of Transylvania County have decided to form a club. They feel it would be a good thing for Brevard and its neighborhood to have such a club.

The aim of this club would not only be an answer to a need of these former Germans to meet with each other, but also to give an opportunity to any resident of Brevard to learn more about the cultural life as well as the customs of Germany.

A language study could be added. This might inspire other language groups to join together, either individually or unitedly with each other.

This club would certainly give Brevard an international flavor, and also it would have the benefit of uniting all the newly adopted citizens of the United States of America. It certainly would be one step closer to peace, the promoters say.

Anyone interested in this new enterprise, please contact Mrs. R. S. Berk, 335 N. Caldwell street, phone 883-3751.

To The Voters Of Rosman

I take this means to express my sincere appreciation for the vote of confidence I received in Rosman's town election Tuesday, May 4th.

I accept this vote as an endorsement of the efforts I, as Mayor, and the Board of Aldermen have made to give Rosman a fair, impartial, and progressive town government. I also consider re-election a personal endorsement, since I ran on my record of four years in the Mayor's office.

In accepting the office again, I acknowledge the trust placed in me and pledge to continue an administration devoted, to the limits of my ability, to the best interests of all the citizens of Rosman.

(Mrs.) Edith C. Osborne
