Jon E. Anderson Is Named Outstanding Law Student

JON E. ANDERSON

Jon E. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John I. Anderson, 107 Park Avenue, has been named the most outstanding member of the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity at the University of North Carolina Law School at Chapel Hill.

The award was made at the recent awards and initiation banquet in the Carolina Inn.

He serves as Justice (or president) of the fraternity.

Young Anderson was also awarded a handsome trophy for winning the PAD annual Golf tournament which was played on the Finley Golf Course.

He will receive his Doctor's Degree in Law at Graduation exercises on May 30th of this year.

He also holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree from UNC at Chapel Hill and a Master's Degree in Business Administration from the University of South Carolina at Columbia.

Patton Announces

Postal Rates Will Increase Here, Across Nation May 16

Postmaster Charlie Patton said today that increases in most postage rates will take effect May 16th as the new United States Postal Service begins its task of achieving self sufficiency as required by the Postal Reorganization Act.

Mr. Patton noted that general postage rates have not been increased since 1967 when Congress passed what was to become its final legislative act in this respect.

He pointed out that, earlier, requests for rate increases were proposed to Congress in 1969 by both President Johnson and President Nixon. In addition, President Nixon proposed an increase again in 1970, although none of the proposed increases was acted upon by Congress.

Mr. Patton explained that the new increases — authorized on a temporary basis until the newly created Postal Rate Commission can make recommendations to the Governors of the Postal Service on permanent changes — will raise first-class letter rates from 6 to 8 cents an ounce, and airmail letter rates from 10 to 11 cents an ounce. Post cards will go from 5 to 6 cents each and airmail post cards will go from 8 to 9 cents each.

The increases will be borne more by business than by individuals, the postmaster pointed out, since about 75 per cent of first class and airmail is from commercial mailers.

In addition to increases in first-class rates, second and third class will also go up on May 16th. However, the full increases proposed by the Postal Service will not be put in effect on a temporary basis, in second and third class, since the postal reform legislation contemplates that such increases be phased over 5 years — or ten years for nonprofit organizations — provided Congress appropriates the necessary funds to ease the transition to full rates.

Because of the phasing provision, the increases to become effective May 16th for second and third-class will generally be only 1/5th of the total increase which has been proposed by the Postal Service.

No changes are made in the rates for parcel post, which is the principal component of fourth-class mail. However, initial increases will be made in the "book rate" which is classified as fourth class.

The new temporary rates also make changes in other postage rate categories and special service fees, such as special delivery and registered mail.

The Postal Service advised the public in February that it intended to make the temporary increases if the Postal Rate Commission did not make the recommended decision within 90 days of the request by the Postal Service.

Recently the Rate Commission confirmed that it will not be able to make a decision within the 90 days, and Sunday, May 16th, was selected as the date on which the rates would become effective.

When the domestic changes go into effect, there will be conforming increases in letter rates to Canada and Mexico.

Hearing Held For 11 Nabbed In Drug Raid, 6 Bound Over, Three Failed To Appear Here

Fowler is held in Virginia; and Galloway has been apprehended here and is in custody in the Transylvania County Jail.

Six defendants, bound over to the July term of Superior Court here are: Dean Landreth, 18; Charles Allen Smith, 19; Danny Ray Volrath, 18; Kenneth Allen Smith, 21; Michael L. Edwards, 19; and Eric Michael Saunders, 21.

Bishop and Woodruff were released after evidence showed that neither of the young men were in the trailer when the raid took place and that neither had narcotics or stimulants on his person.

For the three who failed to appear, capiases were issued and new bonds in the amount of $1,500, the same as they had been free under, were ordered.

Two of the six defendants who were bound over to Superior Court, Bishop and Woodruff, had probable cause hearings before Judge Carnes on April 22. The other four were heard and bound over to the July term by Judge Carnes on May 6.

For all six bound over to Superior Court, it was moved at last week's hearing that the misdemeanor charge of unlawful possession of stimulants be consolidated with the felony charge of unlawful possession of narcotics and both charges be heard in the Superior Court in July. The move was accepted because the evidence on both charges is expected to be the same.

The misdemeanor charge of unlawful possession of stimulant drugs could have been heard separately in the District Court but, in the North Carolina judiciary system, the felony charge of unlawful possession of narcotic drugs must be tried in Superior Court since the District Court does not have disposition in felony cases.

All of the 11 arrested on April 17th were charged with both the felony of unlawful possession of narcotic drugs and the misdemeanor of possession of stimulant drugs.
