Rosman Teacher Appointed Principal At Pisgah Forest

The new Pisgah Forest principal, a home economics teacher, was born at Mars Hill and attended public school there. She holds the BS degree in Education from Western Carolina University, a Master's in Education from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and will complete the 8th Year Program in School Administration and Supervision at Western Carolina next month.

She is the wife of Wayne

Taylor, formerly of Cullowhee, who is employed at Olin. The couple have two girls: Donna, nine, and Tracie, two.

"I have greatly enjoyed working at Rosman the last eight years," says Mrs. Taylor. "All the people there are wonderful to work with and the youngsters are marvelous."

"But I'm looking forward to working at Pisgah Forest," she says. "I've lived in the school district for 10 years and know a lot of people; still, there'll be a lot more to get to know, working at the school."

Mrs. Moore, after 42 years as a school teacher, is looking
