MRS. JERRY D. LAWING

Miss Ashe And Lt. Lawing Are United

In a ceremony at Lincoln-ton, Miss Barbara Louise Ashe and Lt. Jerry D. Lawing were united in marriage, Saturday, June 5th, at 8:00 o'clock in the evening, at the Macedonia Baptist church.

Rev. Guy E. Longshore and Rev. Jack D. Hunter officiated at the ceremony.

Miss Ellen Bridges, vocalist, and Harold Caldwell, organist, presented the wedding music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moss William Green, of Brevard.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Lawing, of Lincoln-ton.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Edwin L. Mulkey, of Fairburn, Georgia, wore a gown of silk organza and imported Venise lace posed over taffeta and styled in empire silhouette.

The lace bodice featured a high neckline finished with an Edwardian collar of lace scallops. Matching lace topped the full bishop sleeves and made the deep cuffs. The column skirt was softly shirred to the raised waist.

Her Chapel length veil of imported English tulle bordered with Venise lace and caught to a Camelot cap. Seed pearls accented the lace medallions.

She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid, accented with sweet peas and mums.

Mrs. David Segar, college friend, of Anderson, South Carolina, was matron of honor.

Her gown was of pastel green voile with embroidered white daisies, with bishop sleeves, and carried a colonial bouquet of daisies.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Libby Russell, cousin of the groom, of Belmont; Miss Vickie Westbrook, of Greenville, South Carolina; Mrs. Teresa Hendricks, cousin of the bride, of Atlanta, Georgia, and Mrs. Ginger Chapman, of Statesville.

They wore gowns of pastel yellow voile with embroidered daisies, with bishop sleeves with lace cuffs, and empire waist.

Harold W. Lawing, father of the groom, served as best man.

Ushers were Wayne Ashe, brother of the bride, of Brevard; Sam Carothers, college friend, of Louisville, Kentucky; David Setzer and Barron Lee, both friends of the groom.

The mother of the bride wore a lace dress, white over pastel green, with a pastel green chiffon coat with full sleeves and white accessories.

The mother of the groom wore a mint green dress of whipped cream with mint green sleeveless lace coat over dress and white accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawing.

The couple plans to reside at Ft. Knox, Kentucky.

Beta Rho Chapter To Host State Meeting

The Beta Rho Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha held its June meeting in the home of Ruth Osteen. It was a busy meeting with much excitement about the recent ESA State Convention in which Beta Rho won several awards and was represented by its Girl of the Year, Nancy Glazener, who is currently president of the chapter.

the third Saturday in each month. The membership was delighted.

The announcement was made that the Beta Rho Chapter will be the hostess Chapter for the State Council Meeting of ESA to be held in Brevard in September. The members immediately began planning for this event but many preparations are yet to be made. The hosting of this meeting is a distinct honor and the sorority is looking forward to it with much excitement.

A disappointing announcement was also made that we will be losing Anita Clark whose family is moving to the Boston, Massachusetts area. From all of the sisters, we will miss you, Anita, very much.

Following a very busy meeting, the sisters joined in cutting out and sewing ditty bags made out of burlap to be used at the State Council Meeting. Everyone was busy, including the hostess, Ruth

Lamb's Creek Homemakers Club Meets

The Lamb's Creek Extension Homemakers Club met May 25th at the home of Mrs. Ed. Sentelle with eight members present.

Mrs. Floyd Taylor called the meeting to order with the group singing "On Top of Old Smoky".

Mrs. Sentelle gave the devotion and used as her topic "Bad Company".

Miss Jean Childers gave a very interesting program on "Tension". She pointed out that a person has many ways of showing tension, by crying, talking too much and being irritable are some examples. "To get rid of tension, we can go for walk, get enough rest, talk to someone, learn to accept things, and get away from your worries and anxiety for awhile," she said.

Mrs. Frank Tinsley gave a report on fruits and vegetables.

Miss Childers and Mrs. Allen Vaughn, who attended the District meeting in Montreat, gave the highlights of the classes they attended.

A macrame workshop is planned for June 11th.

Osteen who, after a family camping trip, had taken the time to make and serve yummy refreshments. Secret Pal gifts were then opened.

The membership has voted to go inactive during the month of July, so look for more Beta Rho news in August.

Cherryfield Club Meets

The Cherryfield Extension Homemakers met in May with Mrs. Bill Talley, with nine members and one guest present. Mrs. Glennon Parker had devotions.

Miss Jean Childers presented a program on Tension. A tape recording by Dr. Roberta Frazier was heard. She discussed causes of tension and ways that "we could solve some forms of tension."

In the business session, Mrs. Clyde Summey reported on the District Meeting at Montreat and the various classes she had attended. Mrs. Parker reported on the Council meeting. The clubs were asked to do hospital tray favors for the summer months and the club was assigned for August 22nd.

The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. Summey.

Lost 86 lbs., buys fitted swimsuit

Christine Sinsley met her husband while he was stationed in Germany. Her German-style cooking won his heart.

When he was transferred to Thailand, she weighed 205 lbs. Yet Christine was only 24 years old. That's when she decided to try Ayds. She took one or two before meals as directed and Ayds helped her eat less, without harmful drugs.

By the time her husband came home, she was down to 119 lbs., and able to wear a fitted swimsuit, thanks to the Ayds Plan.

If you've got a weight problem, try Ayds Reducing Plan Candy. Available in chocolate fudge type, mint chocolate fudge, vanilla custard, and butterscotch fudge.
