marking that it was a lovely river. She took the Club to the Dead Sea, to the place where the Dead Sea Scrolls were found, to Nazareth, Galilee and Aperaum. In Bethlehem they saw through her pictures and description the Church of the Nativity covering the spot where Christ was born.

Mrs. Hunter said that although she and her husband had read extensively about Egypt before going there, they were not prepared for what they saw — the overpopulation and poverty which plagues the country. The begging of both the children and adults became quite a problem. There, among other things, they visited the Great Pyramid and saw the dirty, but life-giving Nile.

The educational program, based on the 19th annual state convention of Epsilon Sigma Alpha held in Durham, was presented by Peggy Nissen. She discussed the various workshops and award programs and shared her ideas for the upcoming year.

The next regular meeting of Alpha Phi will be held in August. A tennis party will be the social for this month held at Camp Straus.

After the closing ritual, refreshments were served by the hostess and secret pal gifts were opened.

Following the program, Mrs. Ramsey served a delicious desert course.

Mrs. Ernest Tilson and Mrs. Jack Trantham gave a luncheon on June 3rd at Mrs. Trantham's home. Fifteen members and three former members, Mrs. Oliver Orr, Mrs. C. E. Buckner, and Mrs. John Truesdall, attended.

The club then adjourned for the summer months and will meet again in September.

Fresh North Carolina strawberries are back in season and are now being featured at most grocery stores. Delicious and beautiful, fresh N. C. strawberries are the perfect complement to every meal.

lins, Second Vice President; Mrs. Helen Byrd, First Vice President; Mrs. Ellie Herrick, President. Mrs. Lula Mae Briggs, Former District Director, conducted the Installation Ceremony. Mrs. Beverly Tate, Corresponding Secretary, was not present when the picture was taken.

Little River Homemakers Hold Meeting

The Little River Homemakers met in May with Mrs. Morris Hawkins with 15 members and one visitor present.

A program on "Tension" was given by Miss Jean Childers as she directed our thoughts on "What Tension is and what one can do about it."

She played a recording by a Family Relations leader, Dr. Roberts Fraser, as the basic for a group discussion on the subject.

She brought out that some tension is good but every body has their own way of reacting.

"We must learn to recognize it and take one day at a time or make a change, work it off or play it off."

Miss Bryson Graduates At Wake Forest

Emma Ellen Bryson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Bryson of Brevard, route 3, Brevard, was graduated from Wake Forest University on June 7th. She was among about 600 who received degrees.

Miss Bryson majored in psychology and received the Bachelor of Arts degree. She held a George Foster Hanks Scholarship and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, national scholarship fraternity. She is a member of Laurels Society, women's social organization.

Omit stimulants," she said.

She gave the 10 commandments for tension as proposed by an expert.

Delicious refreshments were served as a closing feature.

Mrs. Gayle Ramsey was hostess to the Mathatasian Club at her home on May 26th. Fourteen members and two guests, Mrs. Juanita Kimzey, a former member, and Mrs. James Hunter attended.

from the walls of the old city.

She pointed out landmarks of the old city including the famous Dome of the Rock Mosque, the Church of the Nations and the wailing Wall. She remarked that the new city is very much like any other big city of the modern world.

Mrs. Ed Matheson, president, conducted a brief business session.

Mrs. Jerry Jerome introduced Mrs. Hunter who presented a program on the Holy Land. The Club listened to a most timely and interesting program on Israel and Egypt, illustrated by slides which Mrs. Hunter made during a recent trip to these countries. She took the group over many of the streets and roads trod by Jesus when he was on earth.

Her pictures also showed the Garden of Gethsemane, where the tour group had communion and Calvary, where Christ was crucified. She pointed out the crowds of people in all of these places and the numbers of tour busses there.

Mrs. Hunter took the club members on a guided tour of the Jordanian wilderness, pointing out its desert character, the Jordan River, re-
