CEDAR MOUNTAIN — The regular monthly meeting of the Cedar Mountain Community Club will be held on Tuesday, June 22, at 7:30 p.m. at the center. All members are urged to be present.

This week is known as Day Camp Week at Camp Pick-A-Trail. This is for Girl Scouts of all ages. Brownie Troop 99 is represented at Day Camp by four Brownies and their leaders. Those attending are Sandy Woodring, Nira Jones, Donna Bishop and Cheryl McDaris. Mrs. Willene Bishop is one of the six Unit leaders and Mrs. Barbara Jones is her assistant. They will be attending camp each day through Thursday.

The Home Demonstration Club of Cedar Mountain met on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Joe Earl Jones. A lesson in crafts was taught by Miss Childers. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jones.

Rocky Hill Baptist Church had as their special guests on Sunday night a quartet from Enon Baptist Church. One of the members of the quartet, Mr. Carl Bishop, was formerly of Cedar Mountain. The singing was enjoyed very much by everyone there.

The Cedar Mountain 4-H Club was very well represented at the County Activities Day at the High School on Saturday by Misses Diane and Debbie Kisamore. These two girls have been hard at work as you can see from the ribbons they brought home. Diane won a blue ribbon for a Sunday dress she made and a red ribbon for making a pants suit. They were both shown in the Dress Review.

Debbie won a blue ribbon in Dairy Foods. Debbie can go to District and enter the Junior Contest, but she hasn't made any decision yet. Mary Volrath, formerly of Cedar Mountain won a red ribbon for making an evening gown. Congratulations to all you girls!
