

Realtec Says "Thanks" To Public For Fine Response

lect of men. You have accepted us as your new neighbors with an open heart; for this we say, "Thanks."

"Additionally, it was a revelation and a delight to hear about the great interest shown by many of you when it was announced by The Transylvania Times that we had purchased 3,900 acres of land in this, the most beautiful section of Western North Carolina. In reply to this heart warming response, we will be more than pleased to show you our plans for developing and marketing Con-nectee Falls; our offices will be open and the land available for inspection at your convenience, effective Saturday, June 19th. If you can't make it, write Connectee Falls, Route 1, Brevard, North Carolina 26712 for further information. We are proud and we want you to be proud, of this budding, year 'round recreational/resort community, six miles south of Brevard on U. S.

276.

"We call it the "Un-City"
... uncrowded, unhurried, unpolluted... and we will keep it that way! The natural splendor and unspoiled beauty of Connectee Falls is our inheritance. We pledge to preserve and protect that trust with all the resources at our command.

"In appreciation of your interest, if you care to inspect Connectee Falls, we tender you what we believe to be a most attractive offer.
Before the advent of accelerated development and home construction, and before giving the go-ahead to our marketing and sales organizations, we will make available to you certain choice home sites at very special "good neighbor" pre-development prices. Obviously, it will be our pleasure to show you the property and you will be under no obligation."

Medicines are designed to cure, or at least to make you feel better. But, if they have been in the medicine cabinet too long, they may lose their effectiveness, warn Liberty

Schools Receive $300 From The Blue-White Game

Superintendent Harry C. Corbin by Oris E. Crout, president of the Rhododendron Civitan Club of Asheville, sponsors of the big prep all-star basketball game.

According to Superintendent
Corbin, the Rhododendron Civitan Club annually sponsors the game in order to show off the area's finest high school senior basketball players, and to raise funds to be used by the Special Education department of the schools in Buncombe and surrounding counties.

The proceeds are equally divided between the schools of the participating players in the Blue-White game, with the Buncombe county schools sharing the proceeds one year, and the schools of the surrounding counties getting a share the next year.

Brevard High's Joe Washington was an outstanding performer in this year's Blue-White game, and since this is the year that the surrounding county schools split the proceeds, the local school system received the $300 grant.

Mr. Corbin stated that the local schools were most pleased to receive the money and that it would be put to use at once in assisting the Special Education program here.

He also praised the Rhododendron Civitan Club for the fine work that they are doing in sponsoring the annual all-star game and in assisting the Special Education programs of the schools of Western North Carolina.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Steer Clear of Symptoms

YOU SAY in your columns that you avoid describing symptoms.

How else can a reader decide what could be wrong with him?

Mr. J. S., N.Y.

Dear Mr. S.: In one newspaper, the following statement appeared in a discussion of a particular disease:

"Symptoms such as itching, fever, headache, general aches and pain, and diarrhea can begin about a month later, and last several weeks." It goes on to say that months or years thereafter patients with these symptoms can die from serious damage to the liver, the spleen, the bowel and other organs, including the spinal cord.

Now, if you were a sensitive, somewhat fearful person won't you agree that reading these symptoms might induce in you a sense of terror if you had one or more of these complaints?

Yet every doctor knows that any of these symptoms, alone or in combination with each other, might well suggest 30 or 40 different conditions.

Even physicians, with their highly trained diagnostic knowledge, would have to study the problem intensively to arrive at the true diagnosis.

How then could a reader, especially a nervous one, be benefited by any run-down of symptoms?

The symptoms described above actually refer to a rare disease known as "snail fever," or schistosomiasis.

You can see how easy it would be to apply everyday, run-of-the-mill symptoms to this rare disease, and live in terror that you might have it.

I hope this clarifies for you and other readers why I refuse to describe symptoms, and to encourage self-diagnosis.

You ask how else a reader can decide what's "wrong with him." He must not be expected to make that decision. The only way to understand any combination of symptoms is to tell them to your doctor and ask him to ferret out the cause.

Are children born to first cousins more prone to birth abnormalities?

Miss B. R., Toronto
Dear Miss R.: A recent study suggests that more than 95% of such marriages will bring forth perfectly normal children.

There are, however, greater chances of abnormalities if there is a family history of birth defects and mental retardation in the bloodline of these cousins.

There now are many genetic counselors who can advise you more specifically after carefully scanning the total history of the family.

For first cousins contemplating marriage, this is a very worthwhile investment in family happiness.

SPEAKING OF YOUR

can damage the sensitive hearing mechanism.

In Memoriam

In memory of Norman W. Moore

"The Sorrow that I Bear" Dear Lord, please help me bear the sorrow
I feel today, Because my Grandfather passed away.

I know I can trust in you, Because I can't believe its true, My grands was eighty-one,
I was his only grandson I loved him so much, it's hard to say,
Just how I feel this day.

Why you need two newspapers

After you've read this paper and digested the home town news, you're ready for the world. For that, you need a second newspaper, with first-hand coverage of national and world affairs. The Christian Science Monitor.

Why the Monitor? Twenty-six correspondents around the globe. Nine reporters watching Washington. Pulitzer Prize winning news coverage. Award winning features.
And, according to an independent poll of 1800 newspapermen, the "most fair" reporting in the U.S.

For fresh insight into your world, send us the coupon.

Please send me the Monitor for the introductory term of 4 months for $10.00. If I am not satisfied, you will refund the balance of my subscription.

IF YOU'RE FROM BREVARD HOW COME YOU'RE NOT A YOUNG CAROLINIAN?

If you want to meet new people at parties, seminars and get-togethers. Travel in town, out of town and out of the country at reduced rates. And if you want to enjoy discounts at your favorite stores and restaurants. How come you're not a Young Carolinian?

All it takes is 3 bucks a month ($3.50 for couples) and a regular checking account with us. The checks are free. And so is $10,000 worth of Accidental Death Insurance.

But if you want free checking regardless of your balance, low-cost consumer loans (10% reduction in finance charges) and your insurance increased to $25,000 (we call it the Advantage), then how come you're not a Young Carolinian?

The Advantage doesn't cost any more in dues. All it takes in addition is an FBC/Master Charge Card, a First Checkloan that lets you write a check for more money than you have in the bank. And a $50 savings account with a $20 monthly automatic savings transfer (which you should be doing anyway).

So stop in at your First Union National Bank. And let's make tomorrow together.
