1 straight 3's.

(That's how last week's column was supposed to end before the type lice slipped into the act. That was how Al Downtin scored his nifty even par round—18 pars in succession.)

The Fourth of July was a real Roman candle at Sherwood Forest as we enjoyed our biggest turnout ever—89 players. To make it even grander we celebrated with the "spirit of 176." That's how many people played over the three-day weekend.

And 117 of them elected to play in the regular weekly tourney which spanned the same period and was a blind bogey, low gross and Calloway system combination that made 27 swingers happy with one or more prizes.

Biggest boom was produced by 18-year-old Justin Eller. The Charlotte native, who is working with the Brevard Sanitation Department this summer, discovered SFGC Saturday night just before dark. He sailed around in 56 blows and was crushed that his lack of a partner prevented him from entering the weekly tournament. He promised that he would return.

(And on Monday afternoon, with pretty Brenda Orr as his partner, he made the scene and fired the shots heard 'round the course. Two more trips were engineered, each in 56. When the smoke had cleared he had captured low gross, low Class A Calloway with a 54 and Brenda was one five who shared the blind bogey laurels at 53.

The others are Betty Jones, Perry Crutchfield, Shaun O'Rear and Don Roberts.

Second low gross went to Terry Hile with 57.

Youth was also served in the B and C Class Calloway as John Ledbetter, 10, Hendersonville, bagged the former with a 55 which was matched by eight-year-old Atlanian, Jamie O'Rear in the C category.

Second in Class A at 55 were Ed Latham, Gary Hincley and my oldest pupil, Nick Robertson, twice. Nine more places rounded out the A winners.

B runners-up were Tom Walker, 56; Lewis Whiteside, 56½; Brian Miller, 57; Jack Brown, 57½, and Gene White, 58. Miller was also second in C at 55½, followed by Preston Rahn and Millicent Latham with 57s.

Best strings in the tournament were 11 3's in Eller's first Monday round and eight 4's by H. F. Northrop, Miami.

Closest to the pin winners last week on No. 4 were Jim Riley, H. P. Wright, Volney Tinsley, Ed Latham, A. M. Tewkesbury and S. M. Brown. Tewkesbury, from Aiken, S. C., had the best shot—four feet, 10 inches, and he probably would have won Sunday (he was closer) except for the fact that you can't win

Panthers Win Minor League, But Little League Still Up For Grabs

The clinching of the regular season Minor League championship, the closest race in recent Little League history going into the final week of play, and a 15 inning no-decision marathon Babe Ruth League game highlighted Youth Baseball action here last week.

Dennis Hamilton's Panthers clinched the regular season Minor League championship when they got a brilliant no-hit performance by Randy Bryson against the rugged Red Sox. This, combined with a victory by the last place Braves over the second place Cardinals last Saturday night gave the title to the Panthers, who are also the defending champions.

In the Babe Ruth League, the League leading Orioles and the Jays battled for fifteen innings and then decided to halt the 2-2 contest and finish it the next time the two teams meet.

David Roberts started for the Orioles and was relieved in the eleventh inning by Mike Stamey. Chris Sneed started for the Jays, and was relieved in the eleventh by Mark Hooper. All four pitched well and should receive a great deal of credit for their efforts.

In the hotly-contested Little League, five of the eight teams in the league still have a mathematical possibility of winning the regular season crown going into this, the final week of play. The Braves are still on top with a 7-3 record, but they have four games to play in this final week, and a loss in any of them could seriously hinder their championship hopes.

Breathing right down the Braves' necks are the Red Sox, 8-5, the Cardinals, 6-4, the Mets, 6-5, and the Colts, also 6-5. Only the Cubs, Pirates and Panthers do not have a chance at first place going into this last week.

It's almost a certainty that the regular season championship will not be decided before the last games are played this Saturday. This should make the league play-offs, scheduled to start next Monday, just about the best ever.

All managers are in agreement that any of the eight teams could get hot enough to win the tournament, and to call any one a "favorite" would be sheer folly. True baseball fans won't want to miss a single game in the play-offs next week.

DONKEY BASEBALL will be coming to Brevard next Wednesday evening, July 14, and a large crowd is expected to be on hand for the laugh filled "contest". The game will be played at the E. L. Lynn Field located directly behind Pisgah Forest elementary school, and is scheduled to get underway at 8:00 p.m. Proceeds from the game will be used by the sponsoring Transylvania Youth Baseball Leagues to pay for the newly erected fence that now surrounds the E. L. Lynn field. Tickets are being sold in advance by all team managers, and will also be available at the gate. Admission is $1.00 for adults and 50c for children.

Youth Baseball Leagues To Hold Big Donkey Baseball Game Here

Plans are being made by the Transylvania Youth Baseball Leagues to sponsor a big donkey baseball game here on Wednesday, July 14.

The game will be played at the E. L. Lynn Field directly behind Pisgah Forest elementary school, and will start promptly at 8 p.m.

Officials of the three leagues, the Minor, Little and Babe Ruth leagues, state that proceeds from the laugh-filled contest will be used to help pay for the newly erected fence that now surrounds the E. L. Lynn field.

The total cost of this fence was in excess of $500, and officials hope that a lot of these expenses can be raised with a good attendance at the donkey baseball game.

Admission for the game, which will feature a number of well known local people, will be $1.00 for adults and 50c for children.

Weather permitting, tournament play-offs in the Transylvania Minor League and Little League will get underway next Monday evening at the E. L. Lynn Field at Pisgah Forest.

The two leagues, comprised of a total of fifteen teams, will share the field for their respective play-offs as they have done throughout regular season play.

If all teams complete their regular schedules this week as they are supposed to, play will start next Monday at 5:00 p.m.

The teams will be scheduled in the tournament according to their regular season finish. In case two teams have identical records, the managers will flip a coin to decide their tournament seeding.

Games will be played on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, with the championship games in both leagues scheduled for Saturday night, July 17.

No games will be played on Wednesday evening since the field will be used that night for the big Donkey Baseball Game sponsored by the Youth Baseball Leagues.

The play-off schedule follows, with the number following the league name indicating the order of finish of that team in regular season play.

Monday, 5 p.m., Little League teams 1 vs. 8, Monday, 7 p.m., Minor League teams 4 vs. 5, Monday, 9 p.m., Little League teams 4 vs. 5.

Swimming Lessons Being Offered In Franklin Park

The second session of swimming lessons will begin July 19th at the swimming pool in Franklin Park.

Beginner lessons will start at 10:00 o'clock on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Junior life-saving will start at 6:00 o'clock on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday.

A swimmer course will be offered

but one time each week.

Harold Strickland was closest to No. 3 on Monday and credits his first-time-ever trip over Caesar's Head as relaxing him for the sweet shot—he birdied two in a row, Nos. 2 and 3. He operates Greenville's Four Winds.

Golfers were on the course from Missouri, Ohio, Indiana, Arkansas, Alabama, Kentucky and Virginia as well as the Carolinas, Georgia and Florida during the past week.
