

Past Favorites Return To Music Center For Weekend

FRANK LITTLE — tenor with the Chicago Lyric Opera sings the lead in Leoncavallo's "Pagliacci" at the Brevard Music Center this Friday night. Also featured are baritone Vern Shinall of the New York City Opera and Perry Daniels. "Unicorn in the Garden", a short modern opera based on a James Thurber fable and written by last year's composer-in-residence Russell Smith will make up the second half on Friday night's double bill.

MARTHA GERSCHEFSKI — internationally acclaimed cellist, returns to the Brevard Music Center this Saturday, July 17th, as guest soloist with the Transylvania Symphony. During Saturday's concert, Miss Gerschefski will receive the Center's second Distinguished Alumni Award. A native of S. C. and a Juillard School of Music student at 13, she has performed extensively in Europe. Concert time is 8:15 p. m.

Mr. Luvisi will work his expertise on the Rachmaninoff "Variations of a Theme by Paganini". On the same program the Brevard Music Center Orchestra conducted by Dr. Henry Janiec performs Wagner's "Tannhauser Overture" and Stravinsky's "Petrouchka". This Sunday matinee begins at 3:30 p.m.

The third festival weekend begins on Friday night with an operatic double bill. Leading off Friday night is an Opera Workshop production of "Unicorn in the Garden". This charming little work is the adaptation of a James Thurber fable set to music by last year's composer-in-residence Russell Smith, who is returning to the Center as a special guest for this performance. Heading an all-student cast as the wife is Carol Rolandi, the lovely and talented daughter of local favorite Jane Rolandi with Kelley Alexander returning to the Center in the role of the husband. Martha Sizemore and Tom Hoke appear as the Psychiatrist and the Policeman.

The second feature of the double bill is Leoncavallo's "Pagliacci", the play-within-the-play about the tragic clown who must at all costs entertain. Tenor Frank Little, former public relations director at the Chicago Lyric Opera Company to the Brevard stage as the tragic hero, Canio.

In the role of Tonio, the second clown, is baritone Vern Shinall. A former football player who turned to opera with great success as featured singer with the Metropolitan Opera National Company and the New York City Opera, he has been marked as one of the up and coming voices of the decade.

Other members of the Opera Workshop appearing in the production are the dependable Perry Daniels as Silvio, and students Gretchen Lund as Nedda and William Carney as Peppino. Both productions are staged by John Richards McCrae and conducted by Charles Rosekrans of the Houston Opera.

Cellist Martha Gerschefski is a native of South Carolina, who at the age of 13 entered the famed Juillard School of Music and as a teenager, studied at the Brevard Music Center. On Saturday (July 17) she returns to the Music Center stage accompanied by an impressive string of credits which she has accumulated all over the world. Miss Gerschefski, who will receive the Music Center's second distinguished alumni award during Saturday's concert, has recently completed an pital. Her condition is rather serious.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Foster on the arrival of a baby girl born at Transylvania Community hospital. They named her Terry Lee. Both mother and baby are fine.

Mrs. Leon Fisher was taken to the hospital on Saturday where she has been undergoing treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Detric Holden and children enjoyed a week's vacation visiting relatives in Alabama and parts of Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Fisher and children are vacationing this week at Myrtle Beach.

Rosman TVA Study

plains of the streams so as to minimize vulnerability to flood damage.

Much of the report is based on work TVA has been carrying on since its beginning in connection with its water resource operations throughout the 7-state area of the Tennessee Valley.

In its regular program, TVA has assembled information on rainfall, runoff, and other technical data in connection with the occurrence of floods that have been experienced in many localities throughout the region. These data provide the basis for compiling the flood study reports, which are made available to states, communities, and groups interested in their local flood problems.

The largest flood known to have occurred on streams in the vicinity of Rosman in recent years was in October, 1964. Other large floods occurred in June, 1876, July, 1916, August, 1928, August, 1940, and September, 1964. The TVA study shows that floods in the vicinity of Rosman occur more frequently in the months of August and October, but have occurred in every month of the year.

See Off Homesteaders Will Have Food, Craft Festival

The members of the See Off Mountain Community are planning their first Festival sale hoping it may become an annual event. It will be July 31st from 10:00 a.m. till 5:00 p.m. at the Community Center in See Off.

The public is invited, and admission is free.

There will be homemade bread, pies, cakes, cookies, candies.

Another section will have lovely homemade craft items and useful household items made by the members. There will be some white elephant bric brac and junk, no clothing at this sale.

Hot coffee and doughnuts will be for sale for those who desire. The profits from this sale are to be used for the building fund to reduce the mortgage and to pay for drilling the well and installation of a water system.

To Hold Revival At Faith Baptist, Other Quebec News

By - Mrs. Paul M. Fisher
QUEBEC — There will be a weekend revival at Faith Baptist church Friday night through Sunday night, 16th, 17th, and 18th.

Rev. Jack Plemmons, pastor, extends a very cordial invitation to everyone to attend these services. There will be special singing each night. Everybody is welcome. Come and bring a friend and enjoy these services.

A family gathering and dinner was held Sunday at the home of Waymon Thomas, honoring many members of the family having birthdays in July.

Approximately 70 guests were present to enjoy the occasion and share the abundance of food spread on the tables on the lawn.

This is an annual occasion and we look forward to it each year. All members of the Oliver and Mary Thomas family were present, except Mrs. Barry Robinson of Longview, Wash. And she sure was missed.

We extend our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Odell and family in their bereavement due to the death of their infant daughter at Transylvania hospital last Tuesday, July 5th. Mrs. Odell is still in the hos-
