Sloppy Joes Mexican-Style

Old Sloppy Joes have gone Mexican! It's the festive corn bread base that takes this popular lunch and supper entree south of the border.

Whole kernel corn and bits of pimiento and green pepper delicately fleck the crunchy corn bread. Preparation is especially easy with convenient corn muffin mix. As the corn bread bakes, the sloppy Joe mixture, seasoned with chili sauce and dry mustard, can lazily simmer to a perfect blend of flavors. Serve the savory beef mixture atop the golden, toasted corn bread for cheers of "Mucho gusto!"

Mexican Corn Bread Sloppy Joes

Makes 6 servings

- | | |
|--|----------------------------|
| Corn Bread: | Sloppy Joe Mixture: |
| One 12-oz. pkg. (2 cups) Flako Corn Muffin Mix | 1 lb. ground beef |
| 1 egg | 1/2 cup chopped onion |
| 3/4 cup milk | One 8-oz. can tomato sauce |
| One 7-oz. can whole kernel corn, drained | One 6-oz. can tomato paste |
| 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento | 1/2 cup chili sauce |
| 1 tablespoon chopped green pepper | 3/4 cup hot water |
| | 1 teaspoon salt |
| | 1/2 teaspoon vinegar |
| | 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard |

Heat oven to hot (425°F.). For corn bread, empty contents of corn muffin mix package into bowl. Add egg, milk, corn, pimiento and green pepper. Blend only until dry ingredients are thoroughly moistened. Four batter into greased 8-inch square baking pan. Bake in preheated oven (425°F.) 20 to 25 minutes.

For sloppy Joe mixture, brown meat in a small amount of hot shortening in fry pan. Add onion and cook about 5 minutes. Stir in remaining ingredients and simmer 20 to 25 minutes.

To serve, cut corn bread into 6 pieces; split each horizontally. Toast until golden brown. Top with hot sloppy Joe mixture.

Household Hints

If your washing machine and sink frequently suffer from over-sudsing, save removal time by sprinkling salt on the soap bubbles and into the water, and watch the suds disappear.

If the sun's reflection off windshield wiper blades bothers you, coat them with paste wax.

Distaff Deeds

You can make your own dining table with a small oil drum and a couple pieces of plywood.

These instructions from Mrs. Patricia Brown, assistant home economics extension agent, Johnston County, show how easy it is.

First, she says, attach the small oil drum to plywood circles that can help form a base and that will help make the table the right height.

Then, place a large plywood circle on top of the drum to form the table top. If you wish, cover this top plywood circle with formica. Be sure to secure tightly.

To make sure the table is sturdy, the agent suggests putting a cinder block or bag of dirt inside the drum to act as a weight.

Save On Suit

Beat the heat and inflation by making your own bathing suit. That's the advice of home-makers in Vance County, who have been buying knit fabrics and making their own bikinis and one-piece swim suits, Mrs. Phyllis Stainback, home economics extension agent, relates.

Homemakers find the swim suits they make at home cost only a third what a similar suit purchased in a store would cost, the agent adds.

Home Gardening

Three senior citizen families, living in a low - rent housing unit near Shelby, insisted on finding a plot of land for home gardens.

"I guess I saved a hundred dollars on my food bill last year by doing my own gardening and food conservation," one woman told Thelma E. McVea, home economics extension agent, Cleveland County. "I froze or canned about 75 quarts of vegetables from my little plot," she added.

"I wouldn't have had the money to buy those same vegetables fresh," she said.

Gardening isn't a hobby with these folks, the agent adds. It's a necessity.

Punchy Paragraphs

Big American Consumer

The average American who lives to be 70 years old will have consumed 26 million tons of water, 10,000 pounds of meat, 14 tons of milk and cream, 9,000 pounds of wheat and used up 21,000 gallons of gasoline.

More Beef Needed

Per capita beef and veal consumption, which reached 116 pounds last year, is expected to reach 130 pounds by the end of the decade. To meet this growing consumption figure, production must rise one third during the same period.

Pork A Plenty

1971 forecasts indicate producers will continue to supply the consumer - home - maker with adequate supplies of versatile and nutritious pork. The end of 1970 showed approximately 67.5 million head of hogs on farms, 19 percent more than a year earlier; with a further increase predicted for the first half of 1971.

Easy Salmon Pie

Celebrate the "Fourth" with a hearty main-dish pie as Americans as George Washington.

To save the troops at Valley Forge from starving, General Washington's cook devised a "leftovers" stew now famous as Philadelphia peppercorn soup. "Easy Salmon Pie," based on convenience foods unavailable 200 years ago, would have been a welcome time-saver in the General's camp. The full-bodied concoction uses chunks of canned salmon and prepared peppercorn soup, all in a flaky and flavorful pie shell for easy service.

Pie shells and all products made from enriched self-rising flour are easy to make, too - salt and leavening are preblended with the flour for you. Look for "enriched" on the flour label - it means a bonus of three B-vitamins, thiamine, niacin and riboflavin, plus the minerals, iron and calcium.

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------|
| 8 cups enriched self-rising flour | 2/3 cup shortening |
| 1/2 teaspoon paprika | 6 to 8 tablespoons cold water |
| 1/4 cup finely shredded CHEDDAR CHEESE | |

Combine flour and paprika. Stir in cheese. Cut in shortening until pieces are size of small peas. Sprinkle with water, a tablespoon at a time, mixing lightly until dough begins to stick together. Press into ball; divide in half. Roll out one portion on lightly floured surface to circle 1/8-inch thick; fit loosely into pan. Trim pastry. Fill with Salmon Filling. Roll out remaining dough 1/8-inch thick. Cut circles 2-inches in diameter and place around rim of pie, overlapping edges. Bake in preheated 425° oven 30 to 35 minutes, or until lightly browned. Cool 10 to 15 minutes before serving.

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| Salmon Filling: | |
| 2 cans (11 oz. each) pepper pot soup | 1 can (1 lb.) salmon, drained and flaked |
| | 1 medium green pepper, diced |

Combine ingredients. Spoon flour into dry measuring cup; level. Do not scoop.

"The Bishop Misbehaves" Is Now Playing At Flat Rock

The fourth production of the Vagabond Players ten-week summer season is "The Bishop Misbehaves," a highly - acclaimed, long - run Broadway and London comedy hit by Frederick Jackson, which opened Tuesday evening at the Flat Rock Playhouse.

PLAID - Kasper designs a black velvet battle jacket over a green and black pleated tartan skirt and a white shirt with plaid tie.

The Broadway version starred Walter Connolly in the title role, the self - styled sleuth, a Broadminister Bishop. A later movie version featured Edmond Gwenn. This wholesome rollicking comedy will be given for the fourth time by the Vagabonds. It was first presented at Lake Summit Playhouse in 1949, opened a 16 - week winter season in St. Petersburg, Florida, and was last done at the Flat Rock Playhouse in 1960 for two capacity weeks.

In the new Flat Rock production, Walter Williamson will play the Bishop who, with his elderly Victorian sister, Lady Emily Lyons, portrayed again by Helen Bragdon, wanders accidentally into an English "pub," and much to his delight finds himself involved in a just - perpetrated jewelry robbery. The Bishop tries all the tricks of the gum - shoeing trade with hilarious effectiveness, as he seeks to unravel the mystery of the robbery. Before he is through, all the members of the jewelry robbery gang feel the pressure of his worldly and other - worldly wisdom.

Involved in the chase from the pub to the Bishop's Palace, with pistol - waving, knife - brandishings and blackouts are Ralph Redpath; the robbery victims Earl Wontz and Margaret Kliness; their chauffeur, Robin Farquhar; Frenchy, Tom Campbell; and the timid old secretary, Ed Oster. Sally Nall is Hester in the role previously played by Rosemary Prinz, a former Vagabond and current television and stage star. Managing Director Robroy Farquhar, will appear as Red Eagan, recreating the role he played in New York City with Jennifer Jones and Robert Walker. For the first time Mr. Farquhar appears with his son, Robin, in the same play.

The Vagabond Players announce that members of the clergy will be admitted to any performance for half-price.

"The Bishop Misbehaves" will be directed by Anita Grannia. The picturesque settings of the "Queen's Head" taproom and the hall of the Bishop's palace will be designed by Walter O'Rourke. Bobby Hiers is the assistant technical director, and DeLayne Parham is property mistress.

Performances are Tuesday through Saturday evenings at 8:30, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday at 2:30. Flat Rock Playhouse is situated on the Greenville Highway, U. S. 25, three miles south of Hendersonville.
