BY MRS. AUSTIN HOGSEED

Sunday, July 25th will mark the 20th anniversary of services held in the present building of Zion Baptist church.

The pastor, the Rev. J. K. Pressley, will speak at the 11 o'clock service.

A short memorial service for deceased members will be held and present members, who were members at the time of the first service, will be recognized.

A covered dish meal will follow the morning service in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

Visitors Day

Visitors Day was featured at the morning service at Zion Baptist church. The Rev. Otis Wheelhouse, Transylvania County Association Missionary, was the visiting speaker.

A gift was presented to the person who brought the most visitors. Each guest and the person who invited him was presented with the world's largest M and M.

On Sunday night Zion members attended the concert of the Miracle Hill Band at the Rosman United Methodist Church.

Bible School

A very successful Daily Vacation Bible School was held at Zion Baptist church June 28th - July 9th.

There was an enrollment of 90 and average daily attendance was 70. Commencement was held July 9th with each class participating. Mrs. Tracy Rice served as principal.

Faith Revival Ends, Other News From Quebec Reported

By - Mrs. Paul M. Fisher

QUEBEC — Revival services closed Sunday night at Faith Baptist church with a large attendance each night. Everyone who attended these services, I'm sure received a blessing and was revived in their heart and soul from the good singing and the inspirational messages delivered each night by the pastor, Rev. Jack Plemmons.

The Quebec Community club will meet Monday night the 26th. Everyone who is interested in the community we hope will try to attend. Your presence and cooperation is needed.

Miss Lois Fisher, a teacher in the Home Economics Dept. at North Georgia College, Dahlonga, Ga., left Sunday to join Miss Elsa Ann Gaines of Elberton, Ga., who teaches English at N.G.C. They were leaving Atlanta by plane Monday for a six-weeks tour of England.
