Jason L. Orr Given Honor At Air Base

U. S. Air Force Master Sergeant Jason L. Orr, son of Mrs. Lucy C. Orr of 107 Minor St., Brevard, has been awarded the Air Training Command (ATC) Master Instructor rating at Sheppard AFB, Tex.

Sergeant Orr was accorded the honor in recognition of outstanding service as a technical instructor in communications equipment maintenance at Sheppard.

The sergeant's unit supports the ATC mission of training airmen and officers in the diverse skills required by the nation's aerospace force.

A 1945 graduate of Brevard High School, he attended Brevard Junior College.

Seabee Reserve Unit Is Being Organized, WNC

A Seabee Reserve Unit is being organized in Asheville. The Naval Reserve Training Center is contacting local Seabee veterans to organize a drilling Construction Battalion as a unit of the Asheville Naval Reserve.

Seabees (an acronym for CB - Construction Battalions) were Naval Units organized during World War II to construct advance bases, ports and airfields in remote areas to support our overseas forces. Seabee units have since seen extensive combat action in Korea and Vietnam.

Veterans interested in affiliating with the new unit may contact the Asheville Naval Reserve Training Center.

First Union Ranks 215th In Nation

First Union National Bank of North Carolina ranks 215th among the free world's five hundred largest banks.

Ray N. Simmons, City Executive in charge of the Brevard office of First Union National, said "The American Banker", a daily banking newspaper, made the compilation based on deposits as of December 31, 1970. The banking paper also shows First Union National Bank ranked 56th among the 100 largest banks in the United States based on total deposits as of June 30, 1971. Last year at the same time FUNB was 57th.

Total deposits of the five hundred largest banks rose 15.4 per cent in 1970 to a record 890-billion dollars. Deposits of the three hundred largest banks in the United States rose 17.4 per cent during the year to 342.8 billion dollars.

First Union National Bank is the third largest bank in North Carolina with 153 offices in 71 North Carolina communities.
