TEE TIME

By - Ann Robertson

Sherwood Forest Golf Course
Golf Pro

Sherwood Forest was bathed in sparkling Transylvania County sunshine most of last week and the "merry men and women" really took advantage of the glorious weather for some busy days on the course which dried out splendidly after a soggy fortnight.

There were 293 players over the seven-day Monday - Sunday span - a new weekly record with Saturday's 76, a new high for that day of the week.

Big news, of course, was the last weekend Merchants' event of the season. There were 62 who signed up for the tournament with a total number of rounds at 98.

When all the shooting was over 83 prizes had been won. Everyone bagged at least one award. Thanks to our many merchant donors and to the players themselves for a spring and summer full of fun.

Husky young Eddie Nabers, Greenville, who attends the University of Tennessee, grabbed top honors with a nifty, three - birdie, one-bogey two-under par 52. His Sunday round edged Gary Hinckley's three - birdie, two-bogey 53. Gary bagged low putts with 25 green taps.

Blind bogey winners were Hal Todd, George Orauc, Johnny Mack Brown, Bill Burton, Bill Perry, Fred Pitten, Chuck Hanson and Larry Jackson.

Class A Calloway net laurels were shared by Jack Ammons and Ben New, Jr., each with 53s. Class B Calloway winner is Jack Aiken at 55 and in Class C Laurie Robertson celebrated her 15th birthday by registering a 50 which edged Kathy Hinckley's 51. Next in line was eight-year-old Atlantan Jamie O'Rear with rounds of 52 and two of 53.

His brother, Shaun, 14, hit Sunday's sweetest shot - an ace on the 105-yard second hole.

Runnerup in low gross was New at 56 fol-

Tips to help make that outdoor trip PLEASANT
TAKE ALONG INSTANT COFFEE. YOU CAN COOK FISH BY WRAP-PING IT IN ALUMINUM FOIL.

A SMALL CAMP STOVE IS A HANDY ITEM, TOO, SINCE YOU MAY NOT WANT TO, OR BE ABLE TO MAKE AN OUTDOOR FIRE.

TAKE ALONG OTHER INSTANT FOODS LIKE, POTATOES TO CUT DOWN ON ITEMS CARRIED.

SMALL CANS OF FOOD ARE BETTER IF YOU HAVE A SMALL GROUP TO FEED THERE, WON'T BE ANY LEFT-OVERS TO THROW AWAY.

SLICED MEATS WON'T KEEP AS LONG AS MEAT LEFT INTACT.

TAKE ALONG AN OVEN RACK. IT WILL COME IN HANDY TO BROIL MEATS AND COOK OVER OPEN FIRES.

lowed by R. N. Robertson and B. W. Mayer, 57s. Low putts runnerup was Crugar Raglund at 26.

Calloway Class A net also rans included R. N. Robertson, 54; Luther Barnett, Nabers and Shaun O'Rear, 55s, and Jim Riley, 55½. In Class B. Hal Todd, 56½; John Haxit and Millicent Latham, 57s, and Bob Lindner and Twigg Greene, 57½s.

Jack Alexander came close to a hole-in-one on No. 10 where his tee shot tore a divot out of the right lip of the cup, backed off the flag stick and wound up 29 inches below the hole. He made the putt.

Closest to the pin winners on No. 18 last week: Van Artherton, Dean Sumner, Lawrence Chapman, Ed Latham, David Preston, Riley and Nabers.

Another final thank you is due our wonderful merchant sponsors who have provided cash and merchandise prizes which enabled us to provide, along with the players' entry fees, a total of 280 prizes in 12 weekend tournaments.

MORE Good news!—Several of our players suggested that we have a "special" tournament. A few put their heads together and now, during September, we have scheduled a four - round, medal play invitational which will be just as good an event as you golfers make it.

Plans call for a championship flight of 16 players with other flights numbering eight. Qualifying will be the first round which is slated during the week of Sept. 4 - 10.

DON'T MISS IT

Just because the U.S. Olympic Team will wear Converse basketball shoes, should you?

Darned right! OK, so you're not Olympic material. You call basketball shoes "sneakers", and you use them as much for knocking around as for playing the game. Do you rate Converse? Think of it this way. More collegiate and professional athletes wear Converse basketball shoes than any other brand. Obviously, when you wear them, you have a lot more going for you! And why shouldn't you have the best?
