mandants.

Bragging

Two little boys were bragging about the relative accomplishments of their respective fathers. Billy appeared to have an edge when he insisted, "My father's an Eagle, an Elk, a Moose and a Lion."

"Yeah?" responded the incredulous companion. "How much does it cost to see him?"

When in need of job printing, call The Transylvania Times.

"These young men," according to U. S. Jaycee Past President (1962-63) Doug Blankenship, "are truly outstanding because they have distinguished themselves in one or more aspects of community and professional life." He is presently Chairman of the Board of Advisory Editors, OUTSTANDING YOUNG MEN OF AMERICA.

President Nixon, complimenting the awards volume, has said, "OUTSTANDING YOUNG MEN OF AMERICA presents a most fitting testimonial, not only to the success of many of our young people, but also to their awareness of the debt which they owe our free society."

Publication date for the 1971 edition is November.

Nominations for the awards volume are submitted each year by Jaycee chapters, civic organizations, college alumni associations, and military com-
