

32nd Annual Meeting Of Haywood EMC Is Set For Saturday

Event To Begin At 10:30 In Waynesville

The 32nd Annual Meeting of Members of Haywood Electric Membership Corporation will be held at the East Waynesville Elementary School, Waynesville, N. C., Saturday, August 28th. Registration of members and guests will begin at 9:30 a. m., and the meeting will start at 10:30 a. m. and adjourn at approximately 3:00 p. m., it was announced by R. C. Sheffield, Manager of the Cooperative, today.

The business session of the meeting will include reports of officers, the Manager and committees of the Cooperative and the election of nine (9) directors (by districts) for the coming year. A highlight feature of the meeting will be an address by Mr. Chester A. Cogburn, member of the Cooperative from Route 1, Candler, N. C., former Cooperative attorney and owner and operator of Pisgah Ranch, who will speak at 11:15 a. m.

An interesting feature of this year's annual meeting program will be the eighth annual beauty contest, sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary Committee, to select "Miss Haywood EMC for 1971." A large number of contestants, who must be members of families receiving electric service from Haywood EMC, are expected to compete for this honor from the various counties served. Cash prizes will be awarded to the winner and the first four runners up. Token gifts will be awarded to the remaining contestants. The winner will, also, receive a bouquet of roses and a tiara. Miss Pollyanna Gail Carver, Route 1, Clyde, N. C., "Miss Haywood EMC of 1970," will be on hand to crown "Miss Haywood EMC of 1971."

Numerous door prizes will be awarded during the meeting.

VFW To Hold Covered Dish Supper, Bingo

The monthly covered dish supper and bingo party will be held this Saturday, August 28th, at 7:15 at the VFW post home.

All members and their wives are invited, and they are also reminded that they can bring out-of-town guests.

The officers say: "Plan now to bring a dish of your choice and join us for an evening of good food and fellowship with your friends."

Weaver Brown Buried Tuesday

Weaver B. Brown, 65, of route 1 Pisgah Forest, died last Saturday in a local hospital after a long illness.

He was a native of Haywood County and had lived in Transylvania County for the past 30 years. He was a retired farmer and a son of the late William J. and Jane Bonham Brown.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Lona Fussell Brown; eight sons, George, Ira and Lester of Hendersonville, James of Windlock, Wash. Joseph and David of Castle Rock, Wash., William of Candler and Ralph of Bryson City; four daughters, Mrs. Elie Orr, and Mrs. Aline Steward both of Castle Rock, Wash., Mrs. Pauline Larch of Honduras, Mrs. Betty Northcutt of Columbia, S. C.; three brothers, Fred of Louisiana, Walter of Canton, and James of Lake Junaluska; three sisters, Mrs. Mary Jo McClure of Clyde, and Mrs. Behazel Buckner and Mrs. Pearl Green of Leicester; 38 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, at the Crab Creek Baptist Church with the Rev. Alva Ballard, Rev. Nickie Rector and Rev. Roberts Swanger officiating. Pallbearers were Phil Riddle, Kela Austin, Lyda Maynard, Robert Hollingsworth, Ott Wells and Henry Swanger.

The very first prize drawing will be held at the outset of the meeting at 10:30 a. m., and other prize drawings will be held at intervals during the meeting. Free lunch will be served to members, their families and invited guests, under the sponsorship of the East Waynesville School, from 12:00 noon to around 1:30 p. m. to be paid for by the Cooperative.

Haywood EMC was organized and chartered in 1938. Its first construction project, completed in August of 1939, involved 40 miles of lines to serve 175 members in the southeast section of Haywood County. The Cooperative has steadily expanded its system until it now serves, 7,100 members on 1,277 miles of electric lines in parts of Buncombe, Haywood, Jackson, and Transylvania Counties in North Carolina;

Rabun County, Georgia; and Oconee County, South Carolina.

The usage of electricity by members of Haywood EMC has increased during this period from an average of 40 kwh per member per month in 1940 to an average of 600 kwh per member per month today.

The Annual Meeting of members is the highlight event on the calendar of activities for the Cooperative; and a large number of members, their families and friends are expected to attend from the various counties served.
