

Revival Services, Homecoming, Reunion, Etc., In Rosman News

BY MRS. AUSTIN HOGSED

Revival services are scheduled to begin Sunday night at the Rosman Church of God.

The Rev. Volley Shook of Greenville, S. C., will be the visiting speaker at the services which will be held at 7:30.

Special singing will be features each night.

The Rev. Charles Millard, the pastor, invites the public to attend.

Homecoming

The annual Homecoming will be held Sunday at East Fork Baptist church, beginning at 11:00 o'clock.

The Rev. Homer Crouch of Easley, S. C., will be the visiting speaker.

Special music will be presented by Bob Ensley and the Gospellers of Sylva and other special groups. A picnic lunch will be served at 12:30 p.m.

Singing and fellowship will be the afternoon attraction. All former pastors, members, and friends are invited to attend. The Rev. J. W. Jackson is pastor of the church.

Reunion

The 19th annual Meece reunion was held Sunday at the Eastatoe Community Center.

Newly elected officers are as follows: Earl Aiken of Brevard, president; Walter Meece of Easley, S. C., vice-president; Mrs. Ernest Powell of Rosman, secretary-treasurer; and Newton Meece of Easley, S. C. and Rev. Jesse Meece of Rosman, historians.

Special music was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dodgens of Easley, S. C.

Approximately 130 persons attended the event.

Zion Church News

The Young People's Sunday School class of Zion church enjoyed a "hayride" Friday night to Gloucester. Upon returning, the group enjoyed a weiner roast and marshmallow toast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McCall. Mr. McCall is the class teacher.

A Gideon speaker will speak at Zion Baptist church Sunday morning.

Three persons were baptized following the morning worship service with the pastor the Rev. Joe Pressley in charge.

Honored

Miss Sherry Adeock was honored with a white Bible service Wednesday night at Middle Fork Baptist church.

Given by the Baptist Women of the Church, Miss Edith Jo Aiken, assisted by Mrs. Ernest Powell, was in charge.

Miss Adeock was married to Bobby Hoxit on Sunday, Sept. 5th.

Upstate Revenue

In a report recently released, the U. S. Bureau of the Census reported that the total revenue of all State governments in the 1970 fiscal year was $88.9 billion, 15 per cent more than in 1969.

Items Of Hand And Fingers Craft Show Shown At Fair

By - Ruby McCall

Items from the Hendersonville an Transylvania Counties Hand and Fingers Craft Shop, located at 60 West Main street, Brevard, were taken to the 1971 Arts and Crafts Fair in Hendersonville.

The Fair was in cooperation with the North Carolina Apple Festival and sponsored by Opportunity House in Hendersonville. The location of the Fair was Clifton Annex, 122 West 7th Ave., Hendersonville.

The turnout at the Fair was very good both days of the exhibit. People came to look and to purchase items of the Craft

Shop and of the Opportunity House. Items of the Craft Shop were quilts, leather vest, rugs, bonnets and other items of interest.

Profits Skidded in 1970

After-tax profit margins per sales dollar shrank to 4.7 per cent in 1970 from the already depressed 5.4 per cent in 1969, according to the First National City Bank of New York. This was the lowest ebb for profit margins in nonfinancial corporations as compiled by the bank since 1945.
