Miss McCall And Mr. Mann Speak Vows

Miss Hazel Charlene McCall and Kenneth Gerald Mann were united in marriage Saturday, September 11th, at 6:00 o'clock in the evening at Shoal Creek Baptist church in Balsam Grove.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. McCall, of Balsam Grove.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Mann, of Route 2, Brevard.

The Reverend Truitt Owen officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Keitha Faye Reid, organist, and Joyce Bell, vocalist, cousins of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length satin gown with lace empire waist, accented with pearls around the neckline and a Watteau train.

Her veil of illusion was attached to a lace and pearl face framer making a crown effect.

She carried a bouquet of white carnations encircled by an orange gladioli.

Miss Anita Mann, sister of the groom, served as the maid of honor.

She wore a street length dress of mint green satin overlaid with chiffon, and carried a bouquet of orange tinted carnations.

The bridesmaid was Miss Nina McCall, cousin of the bride.

She also wore a green satin dress and carried orange tinted carnations - matching the honor attendant.

Edward Nelson, of Brevard, friend of the groom, was best man.

Ushers were Randall McCall, uncle of the bride and Steve Whitmire, friend of the bride and groom.

The mother of the bride wore a cream dress accented with matching accessories and a corsage of white roses.

The mother of the groom wore a light blue dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the bride's home. Mrs. Reba Smith, Miss Rita Smith and Mrs. Vera McMinn was in charge of the reception.

The couple plan to reside in Balsam Grove.

The bride is a 1971 graduate of Rosman High school.

The groom is a 1970 graduate of Brevard Senior High school and is presently employed at the NASA Tracking Station of Rosman.

Homemakers Are In Dallas For Meeting

Some 3,000 Extension Homemakers from throughout the United States are in Dallas, Texas, this week attending the 35th annual meeting of the National Extension Homemakers Council.

Attending from Transylvania County are: Mrs. Clyde Summey of the Cherryfield Club, and Mrs. Clarence Allison, Sr., from the Hill and Dale Club. Mrs. Summey is attending the meeting as a Delegate at Large, and Mrs. Allison as the 1972 International Chairman.

Also attending from the Western District are: State President, Miss Margaret Decker, and the District Chairman, Mrs. Thomas S. Buchanan from Buncombe county.

The four - day meeting which began on Monday is being presided over by the National President, Mrs. Keith Blackner, of Lyman, Wyoming.

A number of well known speakers will be appearing on the program. They will be using the theme, "Priorities for Progress." The addresses will revolve around - Every Woman - EVERY WOMAN - has a responsibility to make of herself, and of our Nation, a force for bringing peace and friendship and a better life for all of the three and one-half billion people of this world that are each year becoming closer to us - closer not only physically, but closer in our intelligent and understanding concern for our fellowmen.

The keynote speaker will be Mrs. Willis Earl Spafford, mother of 7, teacher, writer, editor, executive, Doctor of Humanities and spiritual leader. She is a native of Utah and is currently President of the Relief Societies of the Church.

Others appearing on the four day program are: Dr. Bond L. Bible, Director of Rural Health and Secretary of the Council on Rural Health, American Medical Association from Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Sue Boe, Director of Consumer Service for the Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association; and Clayton Taylor, 19, an Oklahoma farm boy, and one of eight 4-H Reporter-to-the-Nation for 1971.

Also taking place during the Conference will be the Awards Luncheon and election of officers.

There will be Rap Sessions for the following Program of Work Chairmen: Citizenship Cultural Arts, Family Life, Health, International and Safety.

The Conference began on Monday, September 20th, and will end on Thursday, September 23rd. The Western District Delegation will be returning on Friday via Piedmont Airlines.

Local DAR Chapter Hears Many Reports

Fall flowers decorated a lovely dining table when the members of the Waightstill Avery Chapter National Society of the DAR came for the September meeting at the home of Mrs. Paul Schlunz.

Serving as co-hostess for the occasion, Mrs. Ernest Mayer helped serve fruit punch and delicious cakes and cookies while the guests and members were greeted.

The Regent, Mrs. Charles Dulaney, opened the meeting with the Ritual. The new yearbooks were presented and the changes in the officers noted. The President General's message was read by the secretary, Mrs. Dehon, and the May minutes were read and approved. The new treasurer, Miss Mary Scott, presented the new budget, with copies given to all the members. Reports were heard from the Standing Committee with particular attention to Mrs. Hill's report as to preparation for Constitution Week September 17th - 23rd.

Mrs. McCrary and Mrs. Parry reported they had contacted the schools entering the essay contest. The subject this year is "How My State Acquired Its Name." Mrs. Galloway made an interesting report on National Defense and Mrs. Ramsay read to the Chapter the nineteen resolutions passed at the Continental Congress in April.

Under unfurnished business, Mrs. Dulaney reported on the final figure for the dessert - bridge held on Washington's birthday and flag pins which she has sold. She has a few pins on hand so those wishing to purchase them may receive them without delay. Mrs. Dulaney also reported on the workshop in Marion where the Waightstill Avery Chapter had more in attendance than any other Chapter in this district.

Plans are being made for the District meeting September 27th which will be well attended by the Chapter.

Mrs. Parry reported on the work done by the Oteen Committee, and Mrs. Dulaney noted the new director of Crossmore School, Richard Brown. The Chapter had one applicant for the school this summer and through the efforts of Mrs. Dulaney the club now has the information needed for applicants.

"Through the work of the Chapter and the help of the friends of the Chapter, we now have sufficient funds to do some of the many fine projects that the Daughters of the American Revolution plan for their communities. The Chapter voted to place a marker on the grave of Miss Annie Jean Gash, the founding regent of the Waightstill Chapter, this year," the secretary reports.

Before the meeting was adjourned, the Regent reminded the members the October meeting will be a visit to Tamasssee School.

Alpha Phi Has September Meet

The September meeting of the Alpha Phi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority was held in the home of Mrs. Fred Fogel at Farr Hills Terrace.

The chapters president, Patti Fogel, presided at the business meeting. Among numerous business discussed, POW letters were again sent to The Honorable Andrei Gromyko in Russia, Minister of Foreign Affairs asking for humane rights and early release of these prisoners.

The Rummage sale was discussed and will be held September 25, from 9:00 a.m. until 12 noon at the Brevard Little Theatre Building behind The Transylvania Times Building. Household items, clothing and many odds and ends will be featured at very low prices. The sorority has been busy collecting lots of different items for this sale to offer a good selection to choose from.

Mrs. Fogel gave a very interesting Educational Program following the business meeting on how to make a man's neck tie.

Brevard, N. C. September 23, 1971

Dear Tom:

You know Mary and I have been thinking for a long time about getting a new diningroom set of furniture. Well, we were passing through Pisgah Forest last Sunday and saw that The Kyurio Shop was open. We saw all these chairs sitting out front so decided to stop and go in. I wouldn't have missed that—we enjoyed seeing all the different things they sell. Found just the right table and set of chairs that we were wanting. All was this unfinished furniture that you paint or stain any way you like. The good thing about this was that we didn't have to put out all the money at one time. We paid for the table so we could take it home right away and start antiquing it. Then we put down $10.00 on the six chairs and the Kyurio Shop will store them, and let us pay any way we like. Mary says she can cut our regular expenses down so we can finish paying for the chairs in a month's time. Now, I ask you, isn't that a deal? We figured that we saved on the price of the set and also saved carrying charges on the account.

Next time you and Kitty come up here, we want to take you out to see The Kyurio Shop.

Yours sincerely,
George
