News From
Transylvania 4-H Clubs

Volunteers Needed
 There are many boys and girls in Brevard, Rosman, Cedar Mountain, Quebec, Lake Toxaway, Eastatoe, Boyleston, Pisgah Forest, Little River, Balsam Grove, Silversteen, and Sapphire-Whitewater that need volunteer adult leadership.

The boys and girls want to be 4-H'ers, and clubs cannot be organized unless parents offer to give a few hours a month of help to conduct club meetings. No experience is necessary. Trained personnel offer guidance. The 4-H Coordinator for Transylvania County is Dennis B. Winters of Brevard. Call at the County Extension Office, 883-2780, if interested in serving as an adult leader. This county is growing and progressing in all areas of civic activity. Let's help 4-H to grow, too.

Adult leaders help 4-H'ers achieve a purpose and help boys and girls to achieve the aims and purpose of 4-H in thinking, helping, doing, and achieving.

Exchange Trip
 Approximately 12 Burke County 4-H'ers will be arriving this weekend, September 23-26, in Transylvania County as part of a 4-H exchange program. They will tour various attractions in Transylvania County and attend the football games at Brevard and Rosman this weekend. Local 4-H members will have the 4-H'ers in their homes and also the 4-H'ers will attend high school Friday at Brevard Senior High School.

This is conducted by the 4-H County Council of Brevard. The Council members consist of David Holden, Frank Summey, Gail McNeely, Tommy Hooper, Jr., Beth Burdette, and Joan Adams.

Enters National Finals
 Horsepower, fun power, earning power—that adds up to the 4-H petroleum power program, and some 110,000 young people are all for it.

Frank Summey, a senior at Rosman High School, has entered his 4-H record for national competition in the Petroleum Power Project for 1971. Frank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Summey of Cherryfield. Frank has been a 4-H member 9 years, and is presently treasurer of

Homecoming Set Sunday At Carr's Hill

Homecoming will be observed at Carr's Hill Baptist church Sunday, September 26th. Reverend P. P. Hamby, interim pastor, will bring the morning message. Lunch will be served at the noon hour. There will be special singing in the afternoon. Members and friends are invited to come and enjoy a day of good fellowship.

Special Services To Be Held At Boylston Baptist Church

A series of special services will begin at Boylston Baptist Church September 26th and to run thru October 3rd. Special services will begin with the Rev. James Stamey, pastor of Elizabeth Baptist Church, in Shelby. Mr. Stamey will conduct the services through Thursday evening and then the Rev. Mike Jamison of Sylva will be concluding the services Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 1st - 3rd.

The Rev. Mr. Stamey is a native of Lincoln and is a graduate of Gardner - Webb College and of Carson - Newman College of Jefferson City, and he is also a graduate of The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Kentucky. He has pastored churches in Tennessee and Kentucky before coming to Shelby in 1957.

Rev. Jamison a student at Gardner - Webb College at Boiling Springs and will be known as a member of the well-known Jamison Family Singers of Sylva. Mike will be especially appealing to the youth of the area.

The services will begin each evening at 7:30 p. m. A nursery will be provided for small children and babies under three years of age. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.
